TWO PICTURES.

An old farm-house with meadows wide.
And sweet with clover on each side;
A bright eyed boy, who looks from out
The door with woodbine wreathed about,
And wishes this one thought all day:
"Oh! if I could but fly away
From this old spot, the world to see,
How happy, happy, happy,
How happy I should be!"

Amid the city's constant din,
A man, who round the world has been,
Who, 'mid the tumult and the throng,
Is thinking, thinking all day long:
"Oh! could I only tread once more
The field-path to the farm-house door,
The old, green meadow could I see,
How happy, happy, happy,
How happy I should be!"

Marion Douglas.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

Old Master Brown brought his ferule down
His face was angry and red;
"Anthony Blair go sit you there,
Among the girls," he said.

So Anthony Blair, with a mortified air,
And his head hung down on his breast,
Went right away and sat all day
By the girl who loved him best.

Woman suffrage--Twevle Reasons for it.

At the meeting on Monday, in Boston, of the New England Woman's Association, Mr. William Lloyd Garrison gave twelve reasons why woman should vote:

First—They have the same actual and inalienable rights, and the same common interests as men.

Second—They have as much concern in the establishment of Justice; the insurance of domestic tranquillity, in providing for the common welfare, and in securing the blessings of their liberty to themselves and their posterity as have men.

Third—They are naturally as capable of understanding and determining what laws will be equitable and what measures effective to these ends as men.

Fourth—They have as strong a love of country, as exalted and pure patriotism as men.

Fifth—They are taxed without representation, and in various ways by unjust legislation.

Sixth—They are made amenable to the laws even to the extent of capital punishment—laws which they have no part in enacting, and to which their consent has never been asked or given.

Seventh—Deprived of the ballot, they have no means of self protection against legal and judicial injustice.

Eight—With the ballot they will possess an equal share of political power, and thus be able to redress wrong.

Ninth—All caste legislation is offensive.

Tenth—A Government with excludes one-half the population from all participation in its affairs is not a Government of the people.

Eleventh—To make sex a ground of exclusion from the possession and exercise of equal rights, is as unjustifiable and tyrannical as it has been to make color of skin the ground of similar abuse.

Twelfth—To withold it from women is to assign them to a state of guardianship through sheer usurpation, and the strong arm of brute force, and consequently tends injuriously to affect the character, policy and destiny of a country and to make a more pure and just administration of government utterly impracticable.

About Journalism.

Harpers' Bazar gossips pleasantly about journals and journaliste, as follows:

"The Tribune property is estimated to be worth a million dollars, which includes two or three hundred thousand dollars of real estate. It is the intention to take down the present building within a year or two, and erect in its place a superb edifice, that will contain every convenience and appliance known to modern newspaper offices. The profits of the paper in 1869 were $163,000, which is $1,630 on each share. There are one hundred shares in the company, of which Mr. Sinclair, the publisher, owns the largest amount, or twenty-one; Mr. Greeley, twelve; the estate of Mr. Stephen Clark, its late money editor, fourteen; Dr. J. C. Ayer, the Lowell medicine man, sixteen; the late Mr. Richardson's estate, five; Bayard Taylor, five; T. N. Hooker, foreman of the composing department, five; Mr. Runkle, who has just married Mrs. Calhoun, two; Oliver Johnson, of the Independent, one; Mr. Cleveland, brother-in-law of Mr. Greeley, one; two other of the printers, one each; Mr. Smalley, the London correspondent, two; Solon Robinson, two; Solomon A. Cheney, three; John Hooper, two; and B. F. Camp, two. Mr. Greeley now receives $10,000 a year salary, and Mr. Sinclair, the publisher, an equal sum, while the pay of Mr. Reid, the managing editor, is $5,000, but will probably soon be increased to $8,500.

The principal writers on the World are understood to be Mr. Marble, the proprietor, Mr. Chamberlain, Mr. Hurlburt, Mr. Evans, Mr. Schuyler, and several others. The managing editor is Mr. D. G. Croly, a very capable and experienced man."

A RICH ORATORICAL CLIMAX.—The Toledo Blade says that a good story is told of an aspiring orator who held forth on the Forth of July at one of the many celebrations in the "rural districts" of Ohio:

His maiden speech duly prepared, and the telling portions committed to memory, he found himself in a thrilling state of nervousness before the people. All went on well, and he had in a measure recovered his selfcommand, when he arrived at the great climax of his speech—that portion of it in which he was to allude to the "American Eagle." Proudly he began, and tossed off almost flippantly, "The American Eagle, gentlemen, that proud bird! the emblem of our liberties, as she stands"—when suddenly the rest of his labored simile faded from his memory. Terrified at the discovery, he grasped—he nervously seized a tumbler of water, and turned it by mistake inside his cravat, and took a fresh start with a rush of desperation which bade fair to burst the bonds of his fettered imagination, and soar majestically away on the wings of the apostrophized bird. "The American Eagle! the American EAGLE, gentle-MEN, that proud bird of our liberties, as she stands—standing—as she stands—standing (with great vigor) with one foot on the Alleghanies and the other on the Rocky Mountains, and stretching her broad wings from the Atlantic to the Pacific, shall—stretching her broad wings—with one foot on the Rocky Mountains and the other one on the Alleghanies, shall—shall HOWL, gentlemen and fellow-citizens, in the glorious freedom of—her NATIVE AIR."

Editors ought to be able to live cheap—they get "bored" for nothing.

CUSTOM WORK!

As usual.

There's comfort in a well made custom boot,
That fits the corns without too much compressing:
For everybody knows a shabby foot
Cannot be compromised by overdressing.
And one may wear oldean linen with a suit
Of finest cloth, but there is no guessing
Will make a man with shabbily dressed feet,
Look like a gentleman upon the street.

TO THE FARMERS OF TIOGA COUNTY.

I AM now building at my manufactory, in Lawrenceville, a superior

FANNING MILL,

which possesses the following advantages over all other mills:

1. It separates rye, oats, rat-litter, and foul seeds, and chess and cockle, from wheat.
2. It cleans flax seed, takes out yellow seed; and all other seeds, perfectly.
3. It cleans timothy seed.
4. It does all other separating required of a mill.

This mill is built of the best and most durable timber, in good style, and is sold cheap for cash, or produce.

I will fit a patent sieve, for separating oats from wheat, to other mills, on reasonable terms.
