In Louisville, Kentucky, the fines collected for drunkenness are placed in the school fund. It is said, satirically, that many of the prominent men get drunk every week, just to contribute to the cause of education.

HON. HENRY SHERWOOD visited the Graded School on Friday last, and spoke to the school in his felicitous way for half an hour. It was one of the pleasant, familiar talks that interest and amuse without tiring; such as a school will always listen to with pleasure and profit.

ON Thurday evening of the 16th inst. Rev. T. K. Beecher lectured in Smith & Bowen's hall subject, "Man and Music." The house was moderately well filled, and most of the audience went away satisfied—that they had heard an excellent discourse.

REMOVAL.—Mrs. Kimball has removed to the second floor of Wright & Bailey's new brick building, over Hasting & Co.'s boot store, where she is prepared to fill all orders in millinery and dressmaker's line.

A female servant died suddenly in Elmira. The doctor could not account for the death, and made a post mortem examination, which showed that the stomach had been reduced to the size of a baby's, and the heart pushed out of its place, by tight lacing.

SWISS BELL RINGERS.—This troupe will give a concert in Smith & Bowen's hall, on Saturday, February 25, and we bespeak for them a full attendance. They are highly spoken of by the local press, and we have no doubt that they are one of the few really good troupes traveling up this way.

The Hemmie Society have a discussion on Thursday night, at their hall in Wright & Bailey's block. Question—"Resolved, that it is the policy of this government to make education compulsory." Chief disputants—W. Strange and J. H. Bosard. Hugh Young will read a short thesis on an educational subject.

ENTERPRISING.—The enterprising firm of H. L. Smith & Son, Tioga, boot and shoe manufacturers, are again in full blast, on Wellsboro street, opposite E. N. Smith's late hotel.—The people will find, as usual, a large assortment of boots and shoes from which to select any kind or quality desired. A large stock of new goods will be on hand in a few days.

NEITHER DEAD NOR SLEEPING.—The village of [illegible] neighboring village, so recently destroyed by fire, is already rising from the ashes of her destruction. Fifteen business places are nearly ready for occupation, and will be in full operation before the first of March.

The citizens of Tioga have unanimously resolved to re-build the town on its old site—all buildings within the business limits to be FIRE PROOF. And, from the energy and resolution evinced by her business men, we are inclined to believe that the Tioga of 1880 will have small reason to regret that the Tioga of 1870 was swept by fire.

BURGLARY.—The store of Converse & Osgood, in this borough, was burglariously entered on Friday night, and robbed of a large quantity of dry goods. The burglars gained entrance by boring through the back door and removing a heavy bar. They were evidently up to the dry goods trade, and made their selections with taste and discrimination. We trust they will find some tracks uncovered, by which they will be found out, and duly rewarded for their industry and ingenuity, by free tickets at the "National" for a few years.

LITTLE BITS.—Rev. H. Lamkin had a donation at Blossburg recently of $250.

—Troy, Bradford county, is to have a new [illegible] at a cost of $70,000.

—Mr. S. Ludlow, of Charleston, found his [illegible] mare with her leg broken, in the stable, [illegible] last.

—The population of New York city, as last [illegible] is reported, is 942,292.

—Wellsboro has three licensed hotels and one [illegible] grocery now.

PERSONAL.—Mr. D. W. Avery, late of the firm of Sears & Avery, spent a few days with his numerous friends in this village last week. We learn that he is about starting a new [illegible] in some place.

CARDS OF THANKS.—To Messrs. Wm. [illegible] Baldwin, J. H. Putnam, Samuel Adams, [illegible] Liberty, W. W. Gaskill, Richard Hathaway, and others, to whose exertions I am indebted for the safety of my property at the late fire. These persons have my warmest thanks for their untiring efforts in saving my property in my absence from home.

JOHN W. GUERNSEY.

NEW MUSIC STORE.—Miss H. W. [illegible] has opened a music store in front of the Agitator office, on the same floor, for the sale of [illegible] and sheet music. She also [illegible] vocal and instrumental music. Persons [illegible] the concerts at this store can rely on [illegible] Todd deals in no other.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RECREATION.—On Wednesday last, the Blossburg Baptist Sunday School paid a visit to our village. It was a pleasant and agreeable affair, on rather an extended scale for a backwoods's country like ours. There were in attendance of 12 teams, carrying 140 souls, of whom 15 were Sunday School teachers. They visited the county alms house, jail and M. E. church. They also called at our office, which they filled as effectually—and quite as [illegible] ably—as a political caucus could do.—The success of all such excursions should have and no doubt will be furnished by Fishler's band; and a most satisfactory dinner was provided by Mine Host of the Cone House.

The children enjoyed the affair hugely; and if the county can turn out a rosier, brighter, better behaved crowd of juveniles, we have not seen it. Such visits are always welcome.

LOCAL LEGISLATION.—Our Legislature has had under consideration several bills of different dates touching Wellsboro, as follows:

Mr. Mann, from the Committee on Education, reported a bill entitled "an act authorizing the School Directors of Wellsboro to invest surplus funds."

A bill was presented entitled "a further supplement to the act to incorporate the Wellsboro and Lawrenceville railroad company."

Also a bill entitled "an act to incorporate the Wellsboro Water Company."

A bill was also presented entitled "an act appointing commissioners to lay out and construct a road from Babb's creek to the coal mines at Antram, in Tioga county."

GRACE BY AGREEMENT.—The following communication explains itself sufficiently, and we trust that the Tough Ten may be brought to grace within the limited number of sittings; but we are a little uncertain about it. We know some of the parties to the contract; they are good sinners. How they would perform as saints, is not so clear. And we have never heard Rev. Mr. Omans in the pulpit; consequently cannot say how much Parson Power he rates. We only wish to suggest that, if he only wields the ordinary one-Parson-Power, he has his hands full:

Friend Agitator:—As there is considerable excitement and loud talk in this vicinity, we are rather anxious, through you, to make a plain statement of the facts in the matter.

On Friday evening, the 10th instant, during a conversation between Rev. W. P. Omans and some of the gentlemen whose names appear on the following contract, the question was asked, "Why are such and such men not converted?" And the elder's answer was, "because they will not 'hang on,'" or, in other words, "they leave the house of God before I get half through preaching." Then the suggestion was made that those men, numbering about ten, of the toughest cases in town, should attend meeting regularly, for a certain number of nights, under the preaching and directions of Mr. Omans. And in accordance with this understanding, the following contract was gotten up and signed:

"Good for fourteen consecutive nights, under the preaching of Elder Omans, and others, at the Union church, in Knoxville, commencing on Monday evening, February 20, and to follow the Elder's directions. Each to forfeit, to the Elder, ten dollars per night for his voluntary absence. The Elder to light and warm the house, and furnish the best of accommodations. None to speak unless he chooses.

C. W. Beach,	O. H. Wood,
J. Dearman,	Charles Morse,
A. Albo,	A. D. Knox,
H. A. Phillips,	Hiram Costley,
J. Hogamcamp,	William Morse,
W. W. Dunham."

There is not one among this number, that has entered into this with the least thought or intent of burlesque, or making light of the subject of religion. On the other hand, we have entered into this novel arrangement, hoping and praying that we may be benefitted by it and "brought to light" in the Christian's faith.

One of our friends is now making a trip thro' Potter and M'Kean counties, and we rather expect that, through him, we shall be "noticed" in the papers of those counties, and perhaps more conspicuously than we desire.

We are aware, friend Agitator, that this is rather a queer way of getting up a series of meetings, and our only reason for asking you to make any mention of this matter is, that we do not want our friends to think for a moment that we are defying God and man, or virtually saying to the clergy, "Fire your biggest guns, you cannot reach us!" This is not the position we occupy.

SEEKER.

AN OLD RESIDENT.—James Goodrich, himself one of the oldest citizens of this county, sends us the following notice of Joseph M'Cormick, who lived at Lawrenceville, in this county, as long ago as 1812. Captain Goodrich informs us that "Old Joe" figured quite conspicuously in this county in that early day, and adds that many old inhabitants would like to hear from him. We take the following from the Wisconsin Legislative Manual:

"A LEGISLATIVE NESTOR.—Joseph M'Cormick, of Almepee, was born in the town of Wyoming, Pa., April 18, 1787, and is the oldest member of the present Assembly, and is also believed to be the oldest member of any legislative body in the world. He received a common school education, and is by occupation a farmer. From Wyoming he went with his parents to Steuben county, N. Y., in 1789; to Lawrenceville, Tioga county, Pa., in 1812; to Louisville, Ky., in 1819; to Covington, Indiana, in 1829; to St. Louis, Mo., temporarily, in 1841; to Rob Roy, Warren county, Illinois, in 1844; and to Manitowoc, Wisconsin, in 1848. For several years he was operating backward and forward between Indiana and Texas, and was elected a member of the convention to form a constitution for Texas, but his family residing in Indiana, and having been elected a member of the Assembly of that State in the same year, he did not take a seat as a member of the Texas convention. He was a member of the Assembly from Fountain county, Indiana, in 1839, '40, '41 and '42, and elected to the Assembly of Wisconsin in 1870, in the 84th year of his age; was postmaster at Rob Roy, Fountain county, Indiana, under Gen. Jackson. He entered the military service of the United States during the war of 1812, was commissioned as captain, and promoted to major; participated in the engagements at Tippecanoe, Queenstown Heights, Lundy's Lane, and the blowing up of Fort Erie."

GOSSIP ON POETRY.—Tennyson is out with some execrable verses, which he calls 'Songs of the Wrens.' It hardly seems credible that the man who wrote "Lockesly Hall" and "Morte de Arthur" should publish such unmitigated [illegible] as the following:

"The frost is here,
And fuel is dear,
And woods are sere,
And fire burns clear,
And frost is here,
And has bitten the heel of the going year."

We have a pair of rats in our cellar, ancient and fishy customers, who know all about traps and cats. Suppose our rats should sing, thusly:

"The coast is clear,
The cheese is here,
No cat is near,
We love good cheer,
And all the year
Naught but the snaky weasel we fear."

We will sing the Laureate for a new stove pipe hat—Rats against Wrens,—Mr. Swinburne to be umpire. But our rats don't expect two guineas per line. On the contrary, we will tell the entire sing for five cents, and throw in several columns of reading matter.

NEW COUNTY ON THE BRAIN.—The people of Canton and Troy are very much afflicted with New county-on-the-brain. A gentleman of Canton came to Liberty for the express purpose of spreading the disease here; but the people of Liberty did not wish to be afflicted in that way, and they gave the gentleman such a counteracting dose of Old County, that without doubt he went away considerably relieved, with the addition of a ten in each ear. We would add, that if there are any more in that region similarly afflicted, send them straightway unto Liberty; for verily our remedy is a good one, and we will warrant a cure. We will charge them a very moderate price for board, and medical treatment will be free, the same as at Minequa. By order of the medical directors of

JACKSON.—The friends of Rev. Chas. Weeks, Methodist, made him a donation visit at the parsonage at Daggett's Mills, Friday evening, 3d instant. The amount received amounted to $140.

Elder M. Rockwell has conducted the meetings at Job's Corners since the departure of Elder Johnson. Some are still inquiring. Elder Rockwell, who has been pastor of this church for nearly seventeen years, has presented his resignation, and will deliver his closing sermon the 26th inst.

The changeable weather has caused considerable sickness for the past two or three weeks.—The scarlet fever is raging among the children in the western part of the township, and many are complaining of lung and throat diseases.

EYE

WARD.—Our quiet town has had but little to break the monotony of pioneer life this winter, except sickness. Measles and mumps have been rampant all winter among the juveniles, so much so that the school in the upper district has closed, teacher and scholars being under the sad[illegible] ton treatment.

Mr. Bateman's child, about two years old, was dreadfully scalded by sitting down in a tub of hot water, a few days since.

There has not been snow enough this winter for sleighing until this week, and the water in the streams has been very low, consequently the saw and shingle mills have been idle, which brings disappointment to many of our hard working citizens.

Considerable interest has been manifested by many about the proposed new county; yet few are willing to be set off from Tioga, unless the county seat is at Canton, which event is not likely to happen soon, as the people of either Troy or Canton will fight it, unless it comes to them. And this opposition may be kept up for years. The more the subject is agitated, the less popular it becomes.

Speaking of a big day's work in one of the chair shops at Wellsboro, by a woman, reminds me that Denmark & Morrit, of Canton, have sold over one hundred dozen of the genuine Wellsboro chairs in the last year. They are a staple article in western Bradford.

E. PLUMMUS.

INCORPORATED BOROUGHS.—All incorporated boroughs in Tioga county are required by law to publish annually a statement of the receipts and expenditures of said boroughs. Let each one send in its report as early as practicable.

FANNING MILLS.—We have four mills of J. H. Mather's make for sale. These mills are admitted by the farmers generally to be the best in use. Call at this office.—Sept 28, 1870, 3m.

And nothing stays its march they say:
But love's rigor is more adorable,

ROSADALIS.

ROSADALIS

THE GREAT AMERICAN HEALTH RESTORER, purifies the blood and cures Scrofula, Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Diseases of Women, and all Chronic affections of the blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens.

Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis; send for our Rosadalias Guide to Health Book, or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valable information.

Dr. R. W. Carr of Baltimore, says:

I take pleasure in recommending your ROSADALIS as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.

Dr. Sparks of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of Scrofula and Secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results. As a cleanser of the blood I know no better remedy.

Samuel G. McFaddan, Murfreesboro, Tenn., says I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother, who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benjamin Bechtol, of Lima, Ohio, writes, I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my whole body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.

Rosadalis is sold by F. R. Williams & Co., and W. O. Kress, Wellsboro; Philo Tuller, Tioga; M. L. Bacon, Blossburg, and Druggists generally.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER

Is the only perfected and scientifically prepared preparation of its kind ever offered to the public, and has no competitor in merit. By its use GRAY HAIR is soon restored to its original youthful color and brilliancy, which is so much admired by all. Persons whose hair is thin or falling out will, by the use of our Renewer, soon see its good effects, as, by its tonic and stimulating properties the hair glands will be incited and the hair grow thick and strong again. In cases of Baldness it will create a new growth unless the follicles are destroyed. It is cooling, and allays all itching and irritation of the scalp. It does not stain the skin as do dyes, but makes the scalp white and clean. As a DRESSING it is the best and most economical preparation in the world, as its effects last so much longer. Send for our Treatise on the hair, free to all, by mail.
