T. L. BALDWIN & CO. will sell goods that passed through the late fire, very cheap, for the next thirty days. Don't lose any of these good bargains.

It is said clergymen cost the United States $12,000,000 annually; criminals, $40,000,000 annually; lawyers, $90,000,000 annually; intoxicating drinks, $70,000,000 annually.

MATILE SUGAR.—A large cone of new maple sugar, of excellent quality, has been received at this office. We tender our thanks to the donor, whoever he or she may be.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. D. Hotchkins, of the Davenport Orphans' Asylum, Bath, N. Y., was in an appearance in this office on Wednesday last. He reports the school as being in a flourishing condition.

Auction bills, posters, programmes, bill heads, cards, letter heads, circulars, and in fact almost everything pertaining to printing, done at this office on short notice.

FOR SAFETY.—Our honored authorities should be all made anxious at night, police to serve in this village. Since whisky is in the ascendancy, and strangers are flooding it, we should in some way be protected.

Dr. T. S. URE DE GRAFF operated upon a gentleman from Oregon, yesterday, for a fractured skull, who had been blind for the past four years. The operation afforded him good vision.

RUM VS. APPLES.—Items believes in temperance principles—decidedly. Temperance in all things is to be commended. But let those who combine theology with abstinence remember that the human race has gone nearer to ruin through eating apples than drinking rum.

The practice of stopping horses and wagons by shouting and standing long enough to enter into conversation, is a nuisance, at least as it is voted by pedestrians who are obliged to walk around in the mud, or wait until the interesting conversation is completed.

PRIESTSON.—Rev. C. A. Stone, has resigned his pastorate with the Wellboro and East Charleston Baptist Churches—to take effect April first, next. The former church he has served one year, and the latter four and a half years. He retires from these churches with the entire confidence of both, having served them faithfully and well. We hope his services may be retained in this Association, as we have no good men to spare. It has our best wishes for his future success, if whatever field of labor his lot was cast.

Editor of Agitator.—I see in an article written by "L. B." and appearing in a late number of your paper, that he condemns the grand jury for ignoring certain bills against Huddling. As—And well may he; for there never was more positive proof brought before any body of men than there was then.

I was one of that grand jury, and consider that I owe it to myself and my posterity to inform the public that, in spite of all my efforts, I found myself among the minority.

Holding that the time is not far distant when the grand jury shall be constituted of two or more respectable men, together with a Justice of the Peace, who shall have the sole authority, and that they shall have the power of ignoring or finding a bill in each and every vicinity wherever any difficulty occurs, I subscribe myself yours, etc.

D. G. BOWMAN.

INTOXICATING DRINKS.—The newspapers all over the country are now urging the necessity of some law to prohibit the sale of liquor as a beverage. The petitions for prohibition which have been sent to the Legislature this winter are overwhelming and unprecedented in number and strength of signatures. The local-option bill is urged by at least one hundred thousand petitioners, whose memorials are now on file in both Houses. No measure was ever more strongly supported by the will of the people, expressed directly and emphatically to their servants at Harrisburg.

CO-PARTNERSHIP.—The Matrimonial News, London, publishes the following in regard to "popping the matrimonial question," instead of the old fashioned way of a tedious courtship:

"A clergyman, tall, dark, handsome, aged about 30, whose present income is $150, would like to correspond with a lovable lady, from 20 to 25 years ago, with some means, was ever more strongly supported by the will of the people, expressed directly and emphatically to their servants at Harrisburg."
