"C. H. T. Lor Webster, New Hampshifre, reports that in the spring of 1865 he bought a field which had become almost worthless. It yielded but a scanty amount of hay, and that of very poor quality, being June-grass or white- in the country. top. A portion of the field had not been plowed for twenty-five years. He sowed two bushels of coarse salt per acre, wheir show was going off, following two weeks later with about three lands of the state of bushels int uniteached ashes per nere and after another two weeks with two Sugars, Molasses & Syrups hundred poundit of playtor fier acre. The product of hay was double in the from the best Refiners, and sold at latest and subsequent crop. Each succeeding spring the same fertilizers have been applied in like inhount, and manner.
Two and a half tons of hay were cut that first week in July, 1868, and another crop was out the first week in Sep- Fish-Dry & Pickled tember, yielding about three-quarters bushels of ashes were applied, which started the grass so vigorously that at firm in Western New York. the latter part of October it looked as though no second crop had been taken full line of goods. during the season. . The quality of the product has also improved, and instead of June-grass-the field now produces timothy, red and also white clover, and some red top. The field remained green long after surrounding fields had browned and dried up. The boundary of the top-dressing could be traced as easily as though marked by a fence.

TO MAKE AN OMELETTE.-It seems We specially invite purchasers to call and examine our stock of Foreign and Domesoto n pity that all housekeepers should not understand the art of making an omelette. Egganre generally to be obtained, and it is a dish prepared with very little trouble; and is consequently, very convenient when unexpected company makes an addition to the table desirable. There is no need of weighing, or measuring, or fussing, to make a simple omelette. Use four, five, or six eggs, not more.

It a greater quantity is needed, it is better to make two. Break the eggs in va bowl, adding salt -two or three pinches—then beat with a large spoon. It is not necessary to beat them light, Albemarle Land Agency as for cake. Put a lump of butter, about the size of a large hickory, nut, into a small frying-pan, and melt it over a moderate fire; then quickly pour in the beaten eggs, tipping the pan. There is quite a little secret in this; If the eggs cover the hottom of the pan, you will have a kind of egg pancake, instead of a light, puffy omelette. Besides, it is apt to become too brown in spots. Do not touch the top, but have ready in hand a broad-bladed knife with which to lift it, for if the fire is at all hot it will begin to cook immediately. Bift continually with the knife, allowing the Prawegg to run under.— When it ceases to run, which will be in three or four minutes, the omelette is done, and should be quickly doubled together, like a turn-over, and put on a

A PERFECT ANTIDOTE FOR ALL POIsons.—A plain farmer says: It is now over twenty years since I learned that sweet oil would cure the bite of a rattlesnake, not knowing that it would cure poison. Practice, observation and experience have taught me that it will cure poison of any kind of man or beast. I think no farmer should be without a bottle of it in his house, The patient must take a spoonful of it internally for a cure. To cure a horse if requires eight times as much as a man. It is an antidote for arsenic and strychnine.-It will cure bloat in cattle by eating too freely of fresh clover; it will cure the sting of bees, spiders and other insects; it. cures persons poisoned by ivy.—Recorder.

THE EFFICACY OF ONIONS .- A Writter says: We are troubled often with severe coughs, the results of colds of long standing, which may turn to consumption or premature death.
