

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL: COL. DAVID STANTON.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: COL. ROBERT B. BEATH.

Meeting of the County Committee.

In pursuance of prior notice, the Republican County Committee met at the Court House in Wellborough, on Wednesday, June 22, 1871.

That voters belonging to the Republican party, in each township and borough, shall meet on the 12th day of August next, at the usual places of voting.

That the polls be opened at two o'clock P. M., and closed at 7 o'clock P. M., and that the name of each person voting shall be written on a list at the time of voting.

That the return judges shall be competent to reject, by a majority vote, the returns of any district where there is evidence of fraud.

That in case of vacancy in any Board at the time fixed for opening the polls, the vacancy shall be supplied by any member or members of the vigilance committee.

S. F. WILSON, Ch'n. AUGUSTUS ALBA, Sec'y.

THE NEW DEPARTURE.

We are sorry to say, does not bring that unanimity to the ranks of our Democratic friends which is so pleasing to the hearts of candidates on the eve of an election.

The Boston Post is a lively paper—that is, after the ponderous manner in which they work the lively at the Hub.

The two following planks are taken from the Democratic platform adopted at the Harrisburg Convention:

Col. McCandless is the Democratic nominee for Auditor General in the Keystone State, and we think the party might have nominated a worse man.

Taking this view of the case, we are sorry the Colonel did not publish the two letters side by side, bringing the differential quantities to an ultimate result, and explaining the sum total.

On Thursday last we received a visit from Hon. S. A. Swails, of Kingstree, S. C. Coming from the very hotbed of secession, and being a radical of erect spine and able-bodied knee joints.

Such, seeing we took an interest in such trifles, he agreed to send us an occasional item from his place of residence (Kingstree, S. C.) and a regular Kuklux letter from some of the larger lodges, where they do the thing up in better English.

It is a fearful famine in Persia. People die of starvation in thousands by the wayside, in the streets, in out-houses, and in their dwellings.

Pestilence follows—as it always does—on the heels of famine; and one-half of the kingdom is being depopulated.

We are getting into trouble with the Celestials. Commodore Rogers has been giving the Koreans a lesson in gunnery that they can appreciate.

The Iowa Democracy, it appears, has joined in the general stampede of the party, and has pulled up stakes and taken a New Departure by a vote of three to one.

The Ohio Republican Convention met at Columbus on the 21st inst., and made the following nominations: Edward F. Noyes, of Cincinnati, for Governor.

The two following planks are taken from the Democratic platform adopted at the Harrisburg Convention:

Weak Spot in the New Departure. The Democratic in various parts of the country are hard at work passing resolutions and getting up declarations to place themselves advantageously before the country in relation to the late three constitutional amendments.

The press generally notice the fact that Queen Victoria's second son, who is Duke of Edinburgh, naval officer, and dead-weight on English taxpayers to the tune of $76,000 per year.

It is an easy way of getting an honest living to be born a Prince, with a right-wing, hereditary, and, inalienable, to draw on the hard earnings of a nation's producers to the extent of fifty, one hundred, or two hundred thousand dollars, annually.

The Treaty of Washington is favorably received in England. The London Times approves warmly. Lord John Russell, who bitterly opposed it, has withdrawn his opposition.

The Commune, it seems, is not yet dead. Though badly beaten, it still struggles; and there are ominous rumors from Paris of another insurrection.
