

THE PRACTICAL LOVER
BY JAMES W. CLAY
Rich jeweled rings and costly fans,
But what I thought would be her pride—
A set complete of pots and pans.
I did not win sweet Jenny's love
By golden gifts of magic power;
If she a proper wife would prove,
She would prefer some bags of flour.
I did not play with Jenny's heart,
Nor try to fix it where it tickle
Dut she, alas! declining modesty,
A side of pork for her to pickle.

AGRICULTURE.

From Report of the Department of Agriculture.

Gloucester County, Va.—In our neighborhood in this county, including three flocks of sheep, 35 per cent. were destroyed by dogs.

Augusta County, Va.—About three dogs to every sheep in this county. If one legislature would tax the dogs instead of the sheep, it would soon rid the county of a nuisance, and build up one of the most profitable branches of industry.

Fairfax County, Va.—We were troubled by dogs in this State, until our legislature took the matter in hand, and made the owner or the keeper of a dog pay a good round tax for the animal. That statute has had a splendid effect in relieving the farmers from the deprivations of dogs. If other States would adopt like measures, they would soon find their flocks and herds enjoying their inalienable rights throughout their whole domain. The result would be that no good, respectable citizen would keep a mischievous, worthless cur.

Jefferson County, Va.—The dogs have played havoc with the sheep in this neighborhood within the last six months, having killed or crippled $250 to $300 worth in that time. It is high time that a tax on dogs, or some such law, for the protection of sheep owners, was enacted in our State.
