Mayor Hall has been cited to appear before Justice Bixly, to answer charges of swindling and embezzlement of the public monies. He answers, by attorncy, that Justice Bixly has no jurisdiction in the case, and that he (Hall) can only be proceeded against in a higher court, for malfea sance in office.

The committee are after the Tammany rogues in earnest, and show no disposition as yet to let up. The Tribune wants them forced to disgorge, which is sensible, and about the only punishment they fear. And another good point recently made by the Tribune, in view of the Ring's attempts to incite a riot, was its comparison of New York affairs to those of San Francisco, and a hint of the same remedies which the citizens of the latter city adopted to clear the moral atmosphere.
