THE IMPERIAL SPRING BED.-This ted is manufactured by Messrs. Davis & Kimhall, at Osceola, and is well worth the attention of the public. It was on exhibition and took the first premium at our county Fair. It has been thoroughly tested by the editor of this paper, who is willing to vouch for its superiority. It is cheap, durable, and only needs to be seen o be appreciated. Persons wighing to purchase

Youthly for November. It is a good number, and sustains the character of leading magazine magazine character-a sort of highly grammati-'il rhyming, that reads very well, and fades from the memory as soon as read.

A friend complains to us that the school children at the lower school annoy him exceedingly. They have absorbed his entire upnle crop, have overrun him promiseuously, and, sie row-regardless of colles in the prospective -cating their way through his turnip patch. He admires children; thinks those of the graed school as bright as any he has seen; but suggests that the young lady teachers find a few hundred specimens of male and female Young America too much for thom, in the way of man-

ACCIDENT .- A serious rubaway ocurred near the new mill of Phelps & Dodge, at the Big Marsh, on the 14th inst. Mr. Charles Ouderkirk, of Farmington, with a son and daughter, (a little girl of about ten years,) was going from the mill to the main road in a buggy, when was of the borses became frightened, sprang against the tengue, and broke it. Mr. Oudersirk jumped out for the purpose of catching the burses by the head, but failed, they starting ahead furiously, and soon run the buggy into a bank, turning it twice over, with the two occupants unbecame detached from the vehicle. The young man escaped with a few slight injuries, but the little girl bad one leg broken just above the anble. The wagen was pretty much demolished .-Horses unbarmed.

The November number of that most popular of all magazines, Harper's, is on our table. It is a live number, and the Easy Chair is worth the price of it, easy. The Drawer is geting a little behind, however-owing, probably, to the rearesty of anything new under the sun. The sale of this magazine exceeds that of any ther printed in the English language, and is mereasing.

Now that we are on the subject of periodicals, so will just say that Harper's Weekly is the best pictorial and literary weekly, of which we have my knowledge. The illustrations by Nast have rardly been equalled since the days of Cruikthank : and Nast's caricatures of the Tammany Ring have made even boys familiar with the and will be met without embarrassment. The fices of boss Tweed and Oakey Hall. That Ring company continues business with undiminished could have well afforded to retire Nast on a pention before he got after them, had they known That was to come.

THE INSURANCE COMPANIES .- Of course the Chicago disasters are ruinous to insurance companies. But the companies have met "-... disfortune in a manner decerving of the bighest praise; and the straightsorward, manly Anodyne Liniment. and liberal spirit in which they have behaved under crushing losses, is a lasting honor to the class of men who live by insuring their neigh-birs against loss by fire. All the insurance companies of Chicago are reported as insolvent. It is well known that I am the agent who has among the literary monthlies. Among the articles, "Tennyson and Theorettus" will take the fad with the scholarly and poetle reader.

Wayside Pikes," by Clarence King, is a chatty, readable article. The poetry is of the ordinary of his insurance immediately after said fire, the management of the continuous and the agent who has ince insured his property, (with the exception of $1,000 taken by Rev. C. D. Keeney, and I have no recollection of ever having been prayed, entered, or protested, not to take any risks upon said property since the fire which broke out two years ago last June. In regard to the cancelling of his insurance immediately after said fire, the agent cancelled a portion of it, leaving an insurance of $4,500—the same amount I insured on the same cluss of property. The risks were taken in good faith on my part; and without apprehension of loss above the average liability.

The article, though written with a show of fairness, and an apparent effort to be "calm," fairness, and an apparent enort to be "caim," was, I apprehend, conceived for the purpose of increasing the already existing prejudice against Mr. Marlatt, and of creating one against myself, as an agent. I hope, in all charity, it may be a micapprehension.

Lastly, as to the benefit to Mr. Marlatt from burning, I have yet to meet the man who can make it appear, by comparing the amount of insurance with the estimated loss, that there can be anything but loss in case of a fire. The moderate amount of insurance on the property, compared with its real value, makes it seem absurd to suppose that any sine man could have thought of gaining anything by an incondisc. thought of gaining anything by an incendiary

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes." Sold by all Druggists, and Dealers in Medicines.

FOR THE WHISKERS As our Renewer in many cases requires too long a time, and too much care, to restore gray or faded Whiskers, we have propared this dye, in one preparation; which will quickly and effectually accomplish this result. It is easily applied, and produces a color which will neither rub nor wash off. Sold by all Druggists, Price Fifty
