SAD ACCIDENT.-A Mr. Phillips, of Niles Valley, met with a sad accident on the lat inst. On his way home, a short distance below town, his horses became frightened and unmanngeathe, throwing Mr. P. violently upon the ground, bruising him terribly, and tearing the flesh nearly off his nose. Dr. Thompson dressed the wound, and placed the flesh back on the nose, which is healing nicely.

SAD ACCIDENT .- A young lad, by the name of A. Labar, was shot on the 28th of November, and instantly killed, under the following circumstances: It appears that he and another lad were out hunting, and when returning home, his comrade fell, and his gun went off, the ball passing through the heart of Labar. His funeral took place at Sabinsville on the 29th ult., and was largely attended.

NEW STORE IN ELKLAND .- Messrs. Smith & Waite, of Corning, N. Y., have started a branch dry goods store in Elkland, in this county. These gentlemen are first class merchants, and their reputation for honorable dealing is unquestioned. They always keep a good assortment, sell for small profits, and are always prompt in their dealings. We cheerfully recommend this new store to the public, and hope it will be well patronized. Tioga, Nov. 25, 1871.—In pursuance of a resolution passed at the late Republican County Convention, I have appointed the following County Committee for the ensuing year: Niles, Wellsboro; R. B. Rose, Sallivan; E. Kinner, Jackson; C. B. Mather, Lawrenceville; A. Alba, Knoxville; W. D. Knight, Fall Brook. T. L. BALDWIN, Chairman of late Co. Conv'n.

Mr. M'Collin, the blind vocalist, gave a second "parlor entertainment" at the Court House last Wednesday evening, to a large and appreciative audience. Mr. M'Collin is a, collegiate, and met with his misfortune by the accidental discharge of a gun, soon after his graduation. He excels equally in music and closution. His receptions consist of songs and recitations, up and down the gamut, from grave to gny. Some of his selections fairly convulsed his sudience with laughter. Notwithstanding the loss of his eyesight, (a priceless blessing,) he engages in these efforts to gain an honest living, and he deserves, and his entertainments are worthy of, a liberal patronage:

RAILHOAD ACCIDENT.—The Elmira dvertiser chronicles the following accident, which occurred near that city, at Fletcher's grossing, on the 5th instant. The engineer of the train reports a wagon as standing on the crossing, and though the usual signals were given, there was no attempt to get out of the way of the train. The engine struck the establishment, killing the horses instantly and knocking the wagon into numerous pieces. The man who was in the wagon was found securely rolled up in a blanket on the cowcatcher. He gave his name as John Cornell, of Jackson, Pa., but was utterly unable to give any particulars as to how he happened to be in the way of the train.

How Mysterious.-I heard that Horace Greeley said that Mrs. Grant told Mrs. Colfax that she heard that Brick Pomercy said that Mr. Beccher thought there was no doubt but that it was true that President Grant heard that made the remark that Mace whipped Coburn because Coburn insisted that he heard that Boss into the borough on the first train. Look out Tweed had said that Petroleum V. THE WOODEN WEDDING .- For the enefit of the many friends of Mrs. and Mr. G. W. Merrick, we publish below the poem written and read by Rev. Dr. Mitchell on_the occasion of the "wooden wedding" at the residence of the above parties, on Saturday evening, Nov. 25

Mrs. and Mr. George W. Merrick. 1866-Nov. 25-1871. You've lived five years as man and wife,

And find it very good; And now, to mark advance in life, Are gathering bits of wood! I wood, in woody mensures, bear My tribute to your feast; And thus, with others, bring a share,

Altho' my share prove least. So take my bit of woody rhyme, The growing pile to swell; While, at the close of five years' time,

Still peals your marriage bell. It comes in sport, yet carnest, too: Heart-prayer 'neath wordy screen; Like fir-tree, covered o'er with show, . Still standing, ever-green. In life and love, may you twain be

Like two twin cedars, green; Your virtues tough as hickory; Elm-like, in grace, your mien. Bright be your lot as cherry-blow; Your joys as maple sweet; Your mutual trath keep love aglow

With steady birch-fire heat. With heart of oak may you bear up, Should storms your pathway sweep; If hemlock mingles in your cup, May you not pine nor weep.

May stately ash the emblem be Of parents' honest pride, In saplings of the parent tree Upgrowing by your side.

May olive plants around you grow And thrive, like-schools of perch; And they be trained,-if-how-you know, Without the aid of-birch.

United, may your course long run Before the willow waves, Or cypress, with its foliage dun, Weeps o'er your loved ones' graves. And when the summons comes, at last, As come it must to all;

When, 'neath the fell-destroyer's blast, Your tree of life must fall; May you, in that distressful hour, .. Be cheered by faith Almighty,

And clothed with a victorious power : As strong as-lignum vitæ! But the Major received the following effusion, found tacked to his Palmer's patent,) which was 1866. At wooden weddings, pray let us know

How wooden men can laugh so! But hold—I think five years ago The case stood "half and half" so.

But if the timber 's good, why it Will answer instead, they say, Of flesh and blood; and, if it fit, Is a leg-itimate leg-acy.

LIBERTY.-The autumn months have come to a close, and the trees have become disrobed of their garments of green. Every bush, shrub and flower has been blighted by the autumn frosts, and all nature seems to have nut on its gray habiliment of winter. The melodious feathered songiters of the fields and woods, that cheered our ofttime drooping spirits with their sweet strains of music during the fragrant months | dle Branch, entering Nebraska at Plattsmouth, of summer, have taken their flight to the far off passes through Lincoln, the State Capital, and were, a funeral pall hanging over the vogetable kingdom of the Northern States. In our musings over the coming winter months, we are sometimes almost led to exclaim, "Ob, how long will it be that we are to be shut up in our houses by the drifting snows and dreary winter winds?" Yet, were it not for the changes of the seasons, life would seem very monotonous indeed. Americans are very fond of variety, for it is the spice of life with them.

The citizens of our flourishing village have for the past two months been very much excited over the two attempts made in that time, by some black hearted incendiary, to fire the hotel of Mr. John Irvin. The man that suspicion seemed to rest upon, was arrested after the first attempt, and brought before one of our Justices for examination, but the Justice said there was not sufficient proof to justify him in binding the prisoner over. After the second attempt at the same diabolical work, the same suspicious charfor examination, but the Justice said there was actor was again arrested by the Constable of Union township; but unfortunately the criminal that it was true that President Grant heard that made good his escape from the Constable, on the Horace Greeley dreamed that Ben Wade accused morning at the day that he was to de brought Ben Butter of eaving that Captain links had before the Justice of the Peace in Union for ex-The following are the embellianments: A new steel plate. The literary matter is interesting and instructive.

This is the magazine first seized on by the feamination. We know not whether the man is guilty of the crime, but the fact of his making his escape from the officer goes a great way to establish his guilt in the minds of quite a number of our citizens. I am told that on Friday, the 1st instant; the said criminal came in and gave himself up, and on the day following was tried for the offense before the Justice of the

Mr. Albert Krice and Mr. Alpheus Sheffer have each erected themselves a fine dwelling house, and have had them finished up in good taste, which adds very much to the appearance of that part of the village. Messrs. H. H. Sheffer, Henry Lutz and D. S. Mackey have each a dwelling house under course of erection, which when finished will make fine appearing dwelling

The prospects of the Catawissa railroad extension, that is to pass through our section, have considerable to do in industring some parties to make improvements in our locality. I hope these prospects may be realized speedily in the building of the road. If constructed, it will enhance the value of real estate in our village fifty per cent. We have long felt the want of such a thoroughfare through our section.

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GBAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimu-lates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HATE DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes." Sold by all Druggists, and Dealers in Medicines.

Price One Dollar. Buckingham's Dye FOR THE WHISKERS.

As our Renewer in many cases requires too long a time, and too much care, to restore gray or faded Whiskers, we have prepared this dye, in one preparation; which will quickly and effectually accomplish this result: It. is easily applied, and produces a color which will neither rub nor wash off. Sold by all Druggists. Price Fifty
