A FORTUNE FOR SUFFRAGE

Mrs. Frank Leslie Bequeaths Residue of Her Estate to Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt

New York, Oct. 8.—The will of Mrs. Frank Leslie was filed yesterday for probate by William Nelson Cromwell, one of the executors. At the same time the lawyer made an estimate of the amount of the estate left by the publisher, the most of which was left to the cause of woman suffrage.

Mrs. Leslie bequeathed all her household and personal effects to her niece, Mrs. Wrenn, and also left $50,000 in trust for Mrs. Wrenn and $10,000 for each of Mrs. Wrenn's children.

She made many other provisions for relatives and friends, the total amount being about $130,000, and also bequeathed $10,000 to the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, in the formation of which her late husband, Frank Leslie, had taken part.

The residue of her estate she bequeathed to Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, of New York City, Mr. Cromwell said, the request to Mrs. Catt being absolute and unconditional, but containing a special provision for the use of the money in the suffrage cause.

"It is my expectation and wish," the will reads, "that she turn all of my said residuary estate into cash to apply the whole thereof as she shall think most advisable to the furtherance of the cause of women's suffrage, to which she has so worthily devoted so many years of her life, and that she shall make suitable provision so that in case of her death any balance thereof remaining unexpended may be applied and expended in the same way; but this expression of my wish and expectation is not to be taken as creating any trust or as limiting or affecting the character of the gift to her, which I intend to be absolute and unrestricted."

Mr. Cromwell was not willing to make any statement with regard to the size of Mrs. Leslie's estate, except to say that the estate would probably be in excess of $1,000,000.
