Shibe Park, Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—The Boston Braves, pennant winners of the National League, and the Philadelphia Athletics, champions of the American League, clashed to-day in the first battle for the world's baseball championship of 1914. About 22,000 persons saw the opening engagement of the seven-game series. Hundreds were turned away at the gates unable to obtain admittance to the crowded stands.

The Bostonians prepared to send their slow ball boxman Dick Rudolph to do the pitching. The American leaguers groomed the Indian, Bender, to pitch off the Boston invaders with his fast ball. "Slow ball pitching is not relished by the Mack artillery of batters, and I guess it will be Rudolph for the fray to-day," remarked Manager George Stallings. "Still I may switch to James or Tyler. They are all good you know."

Waited 40 Hours for Seats
The outfield stand, seating four thousand persons, was thrown open at 10:50 o'clock. It was filled within a short time and the gates were closed. The first in line for seats in this unreserved section had waited more than forty hours for the gates to open. Several women had stood in line since day-break. The crowd holding reserved tickets in the covered and double-decked stand came to the park later. Hundreds viewed the contest from temporary stands erected on the roofs of houses that overlook the back field walls.

The day was warm and humid and one suited for fast baseball. An insistent sun burned through the menacing clouds and there was only a slight threat of showers from the southwest.

CHIEF BENDER
Athletics' Pitcher Who Was Knocked Out of Box To-day

The infield and other gardens were bone dry and hard.

Betting favored the Athletics at 2 to 1 and 9 to 5 when the two teams came upon the field for batting and field practice. Preliminary field play was snappy and scintillating. The work of the Boston player Deal, who substituted at third base for Smith, who broke his leg this week, was keenly watched. He displayed no fielding faults in warming up.

The Umpires Confer
The umpires came upon the field at 1:55 and they were promptly photographed. Umpires Dineen and Hildebrand conferred with Captain Thomas, of the Athletics, and Captain Evers, of Boston, regarding ground rules.

FIRST INNING
First Half—Bender's first over was an outcurve for a strike. Moran went out on a high foul to McInnis. Evers sent up a high fly to Collins and walked back to the bench. Connolly took a strike and then fouled off. Connolly fanned, missing a slow one around the next. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second Half—Rudolph put over a strike and then fouled off. Connolly struck single to center and the crowd started to cheer. It was the second ball pitched. Oldring sacrificed, Gowdy to Schmidt. Collins walked, Baker fouled out to Schmidt and Murphy was out trying for third. Schmidt to Deal. No runs, one hit, no errors.

SECOND INNING
First Half—Bender put over three balls and then two strikes on Whitted. Whitted walked. Schmidt fied out to Oldring. Whitted scored on Gowdy's two-bagger to the left field stand. Gowdy scored on Maranville's single over second. The Boston hits were hard and clean. A double play followed. Barry took Deal's grounder and tossed to Collins, forcing Maranville. Collins then threw out Deal. Two runs, two hits, no errors.

Second Half—McInnis walked on four pitched balls. McInnis scored when Strunk's single went through Moran's legs to the fence. Strunk took third on the play. Barry fanned. Strunk was out at the plate when Evers took Schang's grounder and threw to Gowdy. Maranville took Bender's grounder and threw to Evers, forcing Schang. One run, one hit, one error.

THIRD INNING
First Half—Bender threw out Rudolph at first. Moran couldn't see Bender's speed and struck out. Oldring took care of Evers' hoist. No runs, no hits, no errors.

CAMPAIGN PROBE POSTPONED

Senate Committee Delays Action Until After November Election

Washington, Oct. 9.—Postponement until after the November elections of action on the Norris resolution to direct an investigation into financing of the Senatorial primaries in Illinois and Pennsylvania was decided on today by the Senate elections committee.

The committee had agreed at its last meeting to vote on the resolution to-day after weeks of preliminary inquiry into allegations of excessive financing of the campaigns for Roger C. Sullivan, Democratic nominee for Senator in Illinois, and Senator Boies Penrose, Republican nominee in Pennsylvania.

That the committee was prepared to vote in favor of the resolution was indicated by the fact that an effort was made to-day to find members who might serve on the committee of inquiry at this time. So many were planning for work in connection with the approaching campaign that it was decided to defer action.

FIREMEN DEPARTING AFTER BIGGEST PARADE IN HISTORY OF THE STATE

MIDDLETOWN WINS FIREMEN'S DRILL

Union Hose Company Takes $75 Prize in Contest Held This Morning

ALTOONA MEN IN FINE ARRAY

Other Events in Prize Competition Booked for This Afternoon Among the Closing Features of the Big Convention

The large crowd that was on hand at the firemen's drilling contest this morning at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets, was treated to some of the best drilling that has ever been seen in Harrisburg.

At 10 o'clock A. L. Patton, chairman of the committee that arranged for the contest, announced that each team would be given twenty minutes for fancy military drill.

Only two teams contested, one being the Union Hose Company, of Middletown, and the other the Altoona Volunteer Firemen's Association of Altoona, each team having twenty-four men, two lieutenants and a captain.

The Middletown drill team was the first to go through the drills and they did some splendid work, going through intricate and difficult maneuvers under the direction of Captain P. M. Black, First Lieutenant David Houser and Second Lieutenant Leroy Snavely.

The Altoona Volunteers were next and for twenty minutes they drilled with clock work precision, working like beavers under Captain W. B. Allen, First Lieutenant N. P. Fowler and Second Lieutenant Roy P. Lange.

The judges, Captain Frank E. Zeigler, of Company I, Eighth Regiment, N. G. P.; Captain Jerry L. Hartman, of Company D, and Christian Nauss, decided that the Middletown drill team was the best and so awarded to them the $75 prize.

Captain Black, of the Middletown team, said that in appreciation of the prize his team would give an exhibition drill to-night at 7 o'clock in Market square.

This afternoon a large crowd was on hand at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets where the hose races were to be held at 2 o'clock but no fire companies were on hand to participate.

The engine tests were scheduled to be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the city pumping station at Front and North streets. It was reported that up to 3 o'clock three companies had been entered in the contest.

PRESENTS FOR FIREMEN

Hope Company Gets Two Trumpets and Citizen Gets One

The Hope Fire Company yesterday received two silver and gold-lined trumpets from visiting companies, one from the Humane company, of Norris-town, and one from the Rainbow company, of Reading. Speakers who presented the trumpets congratulated the local company on the hundred years of its existence.

The Good Will company, of York, a guest of the Citizen company, last evening presented the latter company with a handsome trumpet. In every instance visiting companies extended invitations to local firemen to pay them a visit.

Companies and Bands Returning to Their Home Cities Praise Harrisburg Firemen's Union for Success of Record-breaking Pageant—March Lasted Almost Six Hours

THE OLD-TIME APPARATUS SEEN

Hand Engines More Than a Century Old in Sharp Contrast With the Modern Auto Machines—Most of the Crowd Had Left the City by Midnight

Following the big parade of yesterday the visiting fire companies began to leave Harrisburg almost as fast as they had invaded the city in the morning. The greatest crowd the city has ever entertained came and went with practically no disorder. To be sure there was a jam and a crush at the railroad stations, but that was to be expected as unavoidable.

At least ninety per cent. of the men and musicians, who took part in the parade, left the city before midnight. Those few companies remaining expected to take part in to-day's contests or to make visits of several days. Many of the 100,000 out-of-town spectators of the parade also departed before midnight.

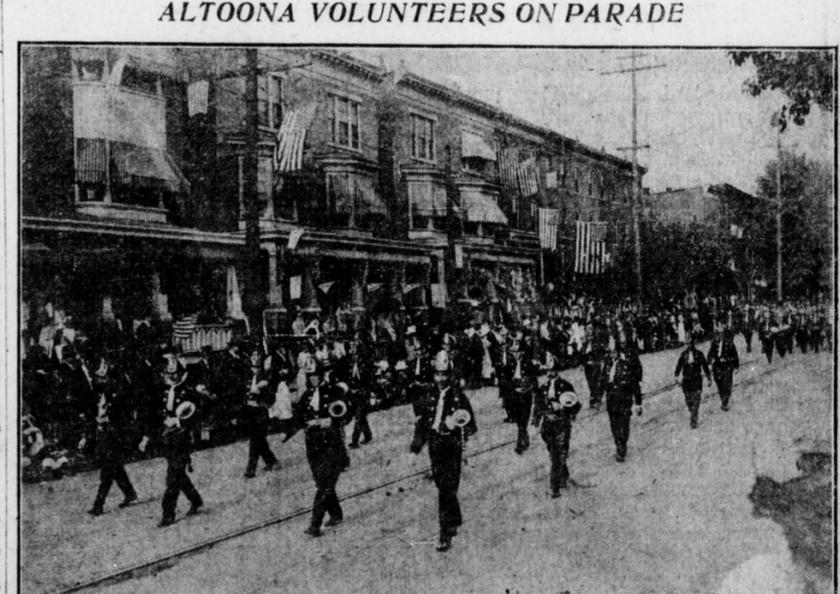

It was a gigantic task on the part of transportation officials to handle the crowds and elaborate policing arrangements were necessary, but definite lanes of traffic were maintained on the streets and through the railroad stations and the crowd was handled with friction reduced to a minimum.

Before departure however, the crowd had a jolly time on the streets in the central part of the city. Confetti fell about like snow, noise-making toys were everywhere, impromptu bands with toy instruments were organized and paraded the streets. By 8 o'clock last evening pedestrians used the middle of the streets. Policemen were lenient and were called on to reprimand but a few. Band concerts at the various fire company houses attracted not a few of the people from the streets.

Most of the Delegates Gone
Fire companies marching back of their hands to the railway stations added picturesque scenes in the evening. To-day the city looked comparatively deserted, knots of scores on street corners taking the place of hundreds yesterday. Most of the delegates to the convention left the city last night, as did the officers of the State association. Various fire companies are arranging entertainment for the remaining guests to-night. The Humane Fire Company band, of Reading, will give an open air concert at the Hope house this evening.

Many delegates were disappointed because an additional supply of guest badges did not arrive in the city in time for distribution. Eighteen hundred have been ordered and, it is expected, will arrive to-day.
