Church to Spring a Surprise at Sunday Morning Service-Interesting Services in Other Churches

The congregation of the First Reformed church has made elaborate preparations for the observance of Harvest Home to-morrow morning. The decorations to be used for this occasion are unique in church affairs and consist of a variety of canned fruit, instead of the regular potted plants and flowers.

At the close of the services to-morrow morning in this church the fruit will be packed and shipped to the Womelsdoof orphanage, which is under the supervision of the Reformed womelsdoof orphanage, which is under the supervision of the Reformed by the choir under the direction of Professor William M. POLITICS DISCUSSED IN THE U.B. CONFERENCE

Resolution Pledging the Body to Vote for No Candidate Not Pledged to Oppose Liquor Interests Is Adopted -Lebanon Valley College Grows

(Special to the Star-Independent.)
Mechaniceburg, Oct. 10.—In the session yesterday of the Pennsylvania conforence of the United Brethren Church the Rev. Dr. J. L. Grimm, of Waylesboro, gave his report on temperance, which was an expression of the attitude of the conference and the church toward the solution of the temperance question through politics.

He said: "No man in politics, no matter what his personal record may be, is in position to discharge his duties if supported by and receiving orders from the liquor traffic." He offered the resolution that the conference pledge itself to vote for no candidate who will not pledge his opposition to the liquor interests, or who is supported by the liquor interests, or who is supported by the liquor interests, or he is supported by the liquor interests, The report was adopted with applause.

The Rev. F. P. Holsopple, superintendent of the Harrisburg district of the Anti-Saloon League, gave an address, in which he said that the prospects for the victories to the cause of temperance were greater than ever before in the history of Pennsylvania.

A resolution was offered urging the Sunday schools of the conference to teach the temperance lesson on Sunday, November 1, two days before the election day, instead of November 8, as scheduled in the national lessons. Bishop W. M. Weekley said to the conference in scheduled in the national lessons. Bish W. M. Weekley said to the conference this connection:

this connection:

"I hope every preacher will lay aside his former political preference and vote for the man who is right."

The report of the committee on the pastors' reports showed that every charge throughout the conference had paid the assessments for the general work of the church in full, and that there was a net gain in membership of 1.280, making the total membership of the various charges of the conference 21,019. ence 21,019.

An offering for the sustentation fund of the forward movement of the conference and preachers' aid fund was taken at this time, amounting to nearly $600.

In the midst of the business of the afternoon again.

at this time, amounting to nearly $600. In the midst of the business of the afternoon session Bishop Weekley turned aside from the routine and held a short, lively, spiritual experience meeting, calling upon the older members of the conference, ministers and laymen to tell where they were wonverted and spiritual experience. Among others who spoke was Dr. Z. A. Colestock, of this place, who was converted eighty-five years ago at the age of 6, and has been in the ministry for seventy years, very porbably the oldest living minister in the denomination in point of service.

The Rev. A. M. Stamets of the Latteran church was introduced to the conference. The Rev. G. D. Gossard, D. D., president of Lebanon Valley College, made a report of that institution. The report showed marvelous progress in the growth of the number of students in attendance. Ten years ago there were twenty-two students in the freshman class, fifty-seven in last year's class and one hundred and four in the freshman class this year, almost twice as large as last year, and almost five times as large as last year, and almost five times as large as last year, and almost five times as large as last year, and almost five times as large as ten years—ago. He declared that it was the largest freshman class ever entering any educational institution of the church in its history.

evacuated by the eBlgians yesterday." The French official statement to-day says only that it is announced that Antwerp was taken yesterday but that the conditions under which it was occupied by the Germans are not yet

To-day's news dispatches indicate that early reports of the damage done by the bombardment probably were exagegrated and that the cathedral of Notre Dame and other historic structures may have escaped injury.

It is believed in London that the final resistance was made by a small garrison who were sacrificed in order to permit the escape of the Belgian army which is now reported to be somewhere between Antwrep and Ostend trying to make its way to the lines of the allies. German aggression at various places along the line of the field fighting is reported from Paris which, however, says that the entire battle front of the allies has been maintained in spite of violent attacks by the Germans at several points. Cavalry fighting on the left wing of the allies between La Bassee and Cassel continues withot notable result.

Progress to the north of the Oise and in the region of St. Mihiel is claimed for French arms. Paris reports also partial successes by the Russians on the east Prussian frontier and that the siege of Przemysl continues under conditions favorable to the Russians.

A news dispatch from Russian Poland says that a Russian attack extending from Wilkowyszki along a front of sixty miles to a point below Lyck, East Prussia, was repulsed, the Russians losing heavily while the German losses were light.

A dispatch from Amsterdam asserts that Germany is expecting momentarily a declaration of war upon her by Portugal

Christian refugees are reported as arriving at Cyprus from Turkish ports. They report great unrest in Turkey. The trial of the assassins of the Archduke Francis Ferdinand and his consort will be opened in Sarajevo, the capital of Bosnia, on Monday. Twenty-one Servians and four Croatians, ten of the total being under 20 years of age, are assued of high treason.

"The new line of the opposing forces means that northern France is destined to suffer a desolation similar to that lowest prices and on short notice.

but the channel ports. To sum up the German plan—the first blow on Paris having failed—the second blow must be aimed at England.
"The new line of the opposing forces

"The French general staff is still confident of success, but it is recognized that there can be no decisive victory while the masses engaged are so enormous. It is possible to hope for the defeat of the enemy's plan only if there can be a constant stream of reinforcements."
