

SUBURBAN

BERRYSBURG

Number of Persons Visit Capital City During Past Week

Special Correspondence. Berrysburg, Oct. 12.—Mrs. John Lebo and daughter, Mabel, of Rife, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Deibler last week.

Miss Sallie Heckert, Miss Marie Geist, of Urban; Miss Mabel Deibler, Mack Keobch and William Schlegel were the guests of Mrs. Norman Engle, of Penbrook, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McCoy visited the latter's brother, Samuel Reed, near Hebe, on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Bender, of Williamsport, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bender.

Mrs. Morris Schreffler and Mrs. John Burkett are visiting friends in Harrisburg and Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keobch and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Deibler motored to Millersburg last week.

Miss Helen Daniel is visiting friends at Harrisburg for a few days.

Robert Deibler transacted business at Lock Haven on Friday.

DAUPHIN

Several Chestnut Parties Go to Peters' Mountain Saturday

Special Correspondence. Dauphin, Oct. 12.—Lewis J. Strickler, local ice dealer, entertained his customers at a chestnut party on Saturday afternoon on Peters' mountain.

Charles E. Lebo entertained his Sunday school class of the United Evangelical church at a chestnut hunt at the old Toll Gate, Peters' mountain, Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Sanford, of Washington, D. C., is the guest of her brother, Spencer G. Kinter.

Mrs. Emma Bonawitz and grandson, Samuel Hosenman, of West Nantuxook are visiting her niece, Mrs. William Stricker.

Harvest Home services were observed in the Lutheran church on Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Coffrode, Miss Cora Coffrode and their guest, Miss Bertha Coffrode, of Johnstown, were the guests of Mrs. C. C. Hoover, of Rockville, Friday.

Mrs. Lick Feaser has returned from a month's visit to her mother, Mrs. Nancy Berkley, at Schermer, Pa.

Mrs. J. B. McKissick, of Hershey, is the guest of Mrs. W. F. Reed.

THE HOUSE on Church street, opposite the school house, lot 36x12 1/2 ft., is for sale for $1,200. See H. C. PEDLOW, 110 S. Thirteenth street, Harrisburg.

MIDDLETOWN

Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society's Annual Convention

Special Correspondence. Middletown, Oct. 12.—The thirty-sixth annual convention of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the East Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran Church will meet in St. Peter's Lutheran church this week, October 14, 15 and 16. Following is the program:

Meeting of the executive committee 1 p. m. Wednesday in the church parlor; Wednesday 2.30, devotional and organization of the convention, Mrs. J. P. Hartman, Philadelphia; reception of credentials, roll call, greetings, hymns; "Our Literature," Mrs. Walter Austin;

"Our People's Hour," conducted by Miss Bessie Johnston, Martintown; theme, "Come, Take Up My Cross, Follow Me," children's work; "Come, (Who?) Children;" "Christ's Interest in Children;" (Why?) "Most Impressionable Age;" "Missionary Workers of To-morrow;" "Take Up My Cross;" (How?) "Working;" (Where?) "Mission Bands;" Sunday schools;

"What? Books, Booklets, Sewing, etc.;" Sister Carrie Glick, Harrisburg; conference, "Follow Me;" "Rich Results of Service;" Mrs. Deah, Easton conference, (2) Young People's Work; "Come, (Who?) "Young People;" (Why?) "Educational Value;" "Devotional Spiritual Life;" Philadelphia conference; "Take Up My Cross;" (How?) "Working;" (Where?) Young People's Societies, "Helpers' Circles;" "What? Person to Discuss;" "Will Tell What Own Society is Doing;" Philadelphia conference; "My Call to Service;" Miss Helen Breneman, Harrisburg conference; appointment of convention committees; hymn; adjournment.

Wednesday, 7.30 P. M.—Mrs. George Strickler, president; music, choir; opening service, the Rev. Fuller Bergstresser, offering; address, Miss Jessie Brewer, Indian; address, Mrs. J. P. Hartman, Philadelphia; 9 O'clock—Devotional service, Mrs. M. A. Fischer, Palmyra; 9.30 a. m., business session; hymn, roll call, minutes, reports of officers and standing committees as follows: President, corresponding secretary, secretary of Young People's Societies and Children's Bands, treasurer, vice presidents, literature, box work, historian, hospital supplies, department secretary, hospital supplies, minutes of last convention, annuity secretary; hymn; publications, "Lutheran Woman's Work;" "Lutheran Boys and Girls;" "Luther Church Work;" Miss Rebecca Gordon; prayer, hymn, benediction.

Thursday 2 P. M.—Opening service, Miss Rebecca Gordon, Lionville, Pa.; minutes; report of immigrant missionary, Miss Marie Stricker, Reading; Harrisburg; hymn; memorial service; Mrs. J. L. Stadelman; benediction; greeting from East Pennsylvania Synod, the Rev. Dr. Hanson, Harrisburg.

Thursday, 7.30 P. M.—Mrs. J. P. Hartman, president; music; opening service, the Rev. Fuller Bergstresser; offering; address, Miss Simpson, Africa; announcements, closing service.

Friday, 9 A. M.—Scripture and prayer, minutes, reports of convention committees, unfinished business, new business, appointment of standing committees, announcements, minutes, closing service.

The officers are as follows: President, Mrs. J. P. Hartman, Philadelphia; vice presidents, Miss L. G. Kraber, Philadelphia; Mrs. C. L. Fleck, Higgsville, Pa.; Mrs. D. A. Ebbm, Steelton; Mrs. George Strickler, Reading; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William Harker, Germantown, Philadelphia; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. P. Keller, Harrisburg; corresponding secretary of Young People's Societies and Children's Bands, Miss Bessie Johnston, Martintown; treasurer, Mrs. W. J. Miller, Philadelphia; historian, Mrs. J. L. Stadelman, Germantown, Pa.; chairman box work committee, Mrs. J. P. Keller, Harrisburg; chairman of literature committee, Mrs. W. Austin, Norwood, Pa.; home department secretary, Mrs. L. W. Bobst, Philadelphia; chairman of committee on supplies for the Guntur hospital, Mrs. M. A. Engleman, Philadelphia; magazine secretary, Miss Rebecca Gordon, Lionville, Pa.; immigrant missionary, Miss Marietta Staake, Philadelphia.

Fully 150 officers and delegates are expected and they will be taken care of by the members of the church who will lodge them and give them breakfast. Dinner and supper will be served in the Farmers' market house.

Jacob McCarty, A. H. Kreider, Paul Warton and Claude Garver motored to Philadelphia and witnessed the game between the Boston and Athletic teams.

David Garver, mail carrier, is ill at his home on Catherine street with appendicitis.

Bus Schwan is repairing the pavement of John Wagner at Ann and Wood streets.

Simon Blecher purchased from the car company the two houses on Wood street formerly owned by T. C. Smith and Mrs. Jennie Detweiler and will have them moved to Eagle Heights, C. S. Straus, of Reading, also purchased from the car company the double house at Wood and Water streets, formerly owned by Mrs. Baschore and will move the same to Eagle Heights. Amos Humberger purchased from the car company the Mish property, Nissley avenue and Main street, and will have the building moved to Spring street on the plot of ground where the old log house stands, which he will tear down.

The annual Fall Day exercises were held at the double houses of the Basechore estate which was purchased by John Beck. The same is now being moved across the motor trucks and will be taken back of the brick row.

Harvest Home and Old Folks' Day was observed in the M. E. church yesterday morning. The Rev. W. R. Ridinger preached a special sermon to the old folks. Each person over 50 years old was presented with a carnation.

In the evening the Rev. J. Gould Wickley, of Gettysburg college, preached the Harvest Home sermon.

James Fuhrman, of Enola, spent Saturday in town as the guest of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Mateer, of Coatesville, spent Saturday and Sunday at town as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Nissley, Catherine street.

Thieves stole ten bushels of potatoes from the corn crib on the Fisher farm on Friday night.

A number of members of Prince Edwin Lodge attended the services at the Masonic Home at Elizabethtown yesterday afternoon. The Rev. H. F. Hoover preached the sermon.

The sociable held by the members of the High school in the Farmers' market house on Saturday evening proved a success.

About fifty members of Brownstone Castle No. 456, K. G. E., attended services in St. Peter's Lutheran church yesterday morning. The Rev. Fuller Bergstresser delivered the sermon.

N. C. Fuhrman spent the day at Dauphin as the guest of relatives.

Mrs. John Hawk is visiting her daughter at Philadelphia.

William Myers, of Enola, spent Sunday in Rowan as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myers.

William Nitrauer and family and Mr. and Mrs. William Lynch and son, of Hignispire, spent Sunday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Walton and two children, of Palmyra, spent Sunday in town.

Harry Coyle, of Falmouth, spent Sunday in town.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Ditzler, of Harrisburg, spent yesterday in town.

The annual Rally Day exercises were held yesterday at the St. Peter's Lutheran Sunday school, with an attendance of 653. The following program was rendered: Singing, school; opening exercise; prayer, the Rev. Mr. Hooper; reading of lesson, school; class records; men's chorus; address of welcome, Helen Bachmover; singing; infant department; solo, Alice Covan; address, the Rev. J. Gould Wickley, Gettysburg College; solo, Carrie Hoffman; address, the Rev. Mr. Hooper; duet, Martha Jane Bergstresser and Ruth Bernier; exercise, primary department; reports; song, school; benediction, the Rev. Mr. Bergstresser.

Miss Bess Trump, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday in town as the guest of friends.

Miss Annie Fry, of Elizabethtown, spent yesterday in town as the guest of relatives.

LINGLESTOWN

Municipal Band, of Reading, Serenades Prominent Citizens

Special Correspondence. Linglestown, Oct. 12.—The Eldership of the Church of God convened in Lancaster October 6 and continued over Sunday, in consequence there being no church service in the Church of God yesterday.

The Rev. Clyde Lynch has been reappointed as pastor in the United Brethren church at this place.

A new blacksmith has succeeded John Ulrich.

Professor King was the week-end guest of his parents at Bainbridge.

The Municipal band, of Reading, who were attending the firemen's convention at Harrisburg, visited this town on Friday morning and gave the prominent citizens of town a serenade.

Master Paul Lenker, of Harrisburg, is spending some time with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cassel.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the U. B. church met at the home of Mrs. Annie Beck. At this meeting it was decided to hold women's day in the U. B. church on Sunday evening, October 25, in the interest of the mission.

The School Board of Lower Paxton met at Paxtonia last week to pay the teachers their first month payment.

Word was received here on Saturday of the death of Cornelius Reese, Jr., of Penbrook. Mr. Reese was a former resident of this community. His body will be interred in the family plot at Willow Grove cemetery to-morrow morning.

The Rev. George Sigler is attending the Church of God Eldership at Lancaster.

Mrs. Helen Franz and daughter, Anna, are spending this week with friends at Philadelphia.

Miss Evelyn Steigleman, of Harrisburg; Miss Edna Heagan, of New Jersey; the Misses Florence and Goldie Heilig, of Mount Joy, on Friday were the guests of Miss Ellen Bolton.

Jack Seltzer made a business trip to Reading last week.

Mrs. Valentine Fox and son, of Oberlin, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Harvey.

John Shuey entered the Harrisburg hospital last week where an operation was performed on him on Saturday for some serious internal trouble. Mrs. Mary Parling is spending some time the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Johnson, at Steelton.

The funeral services of Mrs. Peck, of Manada Gap, were held in the Church of God at this place on Sunday forenoon. Interment was made in the old Bethel grave yard.

Mrs. Matilda Shuey visited friends at Harrisburg and Penbrook last week.

HUMMELSTOWN

Brownstone Lodge F. & A. M. to Hold Banquet To-morrow Night

Special Correspondence. Hummelstown, Oct. 12.—The annual banquet of Brownstone Lodge No. 666, Free and Accepted Masons, will be held to-morrow evening in Ruff's Hall.

A number of the Civil war veterans residing in town will attend the reunion of the Central Pennsylvania G. A. A. Association to be held at Lebanon on Thursday.

Miss Mary Wall, of Harrisburg, visited her grandmother, Mrs. Jane Hummel, yesterday.

John S. Harvey, the florist, has built another large green house on his lot.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eschenor, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Snyder, South Water street.

The degree team of Camp No. 10714, Modern Woodmen of America, will to-morrow evening perform the initiatory work when a large class of candidates is admitted to membership in the Annville camp. A large number of members of the local camp will accompany the team to Lebanon. A special car will leave Centre Square at 7.15 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Lauck spent Sunday at Reading with Mr. Lauck's mother, who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Fox, of Harrisburg, visited Mr. Fox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Buser, of Hershey, and Mrs. Henry Hollingsworth of Gravel Hill, called on Mrs. H. Wells Buser yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Shope and children, of Penbrook, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Walters yesterday.

Mrs. Mary Ellinger, who has been ill for the past several months, is showing improving.

The Rev. Wilbur Allison, a senior student in Gettysburg Theological Seminary, conducted both the morning and evening services in Zion Lutheran church yesterday.

The blacksmith business conducted by Charles Shepler has been sold to Mr. Kimmel, of Lemoyne. Mr. Shepler will move to Palmyra.

Miss Helen Fox spent Saturday in Philadelphia and witnessed the second game of the world championship baseball series.

Morris Engle has purchased two lots on West High street from W. J. Basler. Mr. Engle will erect a dwelling house on the plot.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Krause and children, of Harrisburg, spent yesterday with Mrs. Krause's mother, Mrs. Emma Brinser.

Mrs. Katherine Stoner, of Zanesville, O., who has been spending several weeks at Camp Hill, visited friends in town Saturday. Mrs. Stoner left for her home in Zanesville yesterday.

Miss Flora Clay has returned to her home in Linglestown after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Harry Rieker.

Preparatory services will be held in the Reformed church on Friday evening. The Holy Communion will be observed at both the morning and evening services next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Reed, of Philadelphia, were guests of Mrs. Reed's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac B. Nissley, over Sunday.

The Forenoon Concert Company will give an entertainment in the Star Theatre on Thursday evening, October 20, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of Zion Lutheran church.

Mrs. W. B. Shope and children, Margaret and Howard, spent Saturday with friends in Harrisburg.

Reed Warner, of Philadelphia, visited his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Walmer, over Sunday.

Ross W. Nissley, of Elizabethtown, spent yesterday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Nissley.

NEW CUMBERLAND

Youngest Band Member Gets Shamrock's Gold Watch

Special Correspondence. New Cumberland, Oct. 12.—Edward Westonhaver, the youngest member of the New Cumberland band, aged 14 years, won the gold watch which was given away by the Shamrock Fire Company, of Harrisburg, last week. The New Cumberland band played for the Shamrock company.

H. A. Bixler is spending several days in Philadelphia, taking in the world's series.

Miss Oral L. Loude, a student at Shippensburg Normal School, is a guest of Miss Ethel Watts.

Miss Ida Kreiger entertained the Christian Endeavor Society of Trinity United Brethren church at her home at Bellavista last week.

Mrs. R. R. Reiff, son, Lloyd, and Mrs. H. F. Kohr visited friends in York last week and attended the fair.

Miss Sara Reiff and Miss Media Arnold, of Mt. Wolf, are visiting friends here.

Mrs. Elmer Clay and Miss Hattie Grass visited Mrs. John Markley at Clay last week.

Miss Nancy Campbell entertained a number of her Harrisburg friends at her home at Seven Maples Saturday.

Miss Flora Metleaf, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. William Straley, of Franklintown, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Straley several days.

Miss Edith Ross is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Charles Bond, in York.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Breneman and family, of York, are visiting Mrs. Elmer Clay and Mrs. Siple.

Miss Sara Rodes, of Mt. Wolf, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Steffie.

Alfred Bond and Nivin Price, of York, paid a brief visit here Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Walker and daughter, Beatrice, visited relatives in Adams county last week.

When word of the death of Mrs. Harriet Kaufman, of this place, was received here Saturday her many friends were very much grieved. Mrs. Kaufman, who was almost 82 years of age, spent nearly all of her life here. Her Christian example and noble character influenced many for good who came in touch with her. She was born and brought up on a farm near here, where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, reared a large family, of which she was the last member. She was a consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal church almost 50 years and at one time was superintendent of the primary school. On Tuesday she went to Steelton spend several days with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stonerifer, Main street. She was in her usual happy mood and was getting ready to go out with Mr. and Mrs. Stonerifer, when she was stricken with paralysis and died at 1 o'clock a. m. The body was brought to her home, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, in charge of the Rev. J. V. Adams, of Baughman Memorial Methodist church. Interment will be made at Mt. Olivet cemetery.

The address on his trip to the Holy Land by the Rev. Charles Fultz, of Washington, D. C., in Trinity U. B. church Sunday afternoon was excellent.

The Junior class of the New Cumberland High school took a hike to the mountain Saturday for chestnuts.

On Friday evening a committee of John W. Geary Camp, Sons of Veterans, will meet at the home of E. H. Fisher to make arrangements for holding a banquet.

Mrs. James Eby, Bridge street, was brought home from the Harrisburg hospital on Saturday. Several months ago Mrs. Eby and her husband went to an island near Halifax, when she was stricken with paralysis several weeks ago. She was removed to the Harrisburg hospital.

Mrs. and Mrs. Drawbaugh, of York county, spent several days with their daughter, Mrs. Jerre Spahr.

Miss Pauline Haverstock and brother, Elmer, of York, are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Haverstock.

Miss Zeigler, of York, spent Sunday with Miss Marjorie Melvor.

Mr. and Mrs. George Watkins spent Sunday with relatives at Middletown.

Miss Addie Guistwhite spent the week with friends in York.

Miss Mary Drayer and Michael Drayer went to Perry county to spend several days.

A regular monthly meeting of the Queen Esther Circle will be held this evening in the Sunday school room of the M. E. church.

Mrs. William Shaffner is spending a week at Bendersville.

MECHANICSBURG

Interesting Evangelistic Services in the Church of the Brethren

Special Correspondence. Mechanicsburg, Oct. 12.—Friday evening the Brotherhood of Trinity Lutheran church held a very successful and pleasant rally. The principal address of the evening was given by the Rev. A. R. Steek, D. D., of Carlisle.

The pulpits of several of the churches were filled yesterday by members of the United Brethren conference, now in session here.

The evangelistic services which are being held each evening in the Church of the Brethren are growing in interest. These services are conducted by Evangelist William Rupp, of Westminster, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Byers and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smith attended the funeral of their sister-in-law, Mrs. D. Smith, Friday in New Cumberland.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lambert and Miss Etta C. Russell, both of this place, were married by the Rev. W. J. Houck, of Carlisle, who is here attending the United Brethren conference.

Dr. J. H. Young, of New Cumberland, was among the visitors to the conference last week.

Mrs. Ida Bucher attended the Glad-felter-Sunday wedding in Middlesex on Thursday.

Miss Elsie Strong, of Shiremanstown, spent Friday in town.

H. H. Moyer has returned from a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Fred Gerber, in York.

Last evening the congregations of the Church of God and the Presbyterian church held a union service. The service was held in the Bethel of the Church of God, the sermon being preached by the Rev. George Fulton, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

On Saturday evening the Bible class of which the Rev. Mr. Castle is teacher, gave a banquet to the members of the conference.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Anna Lloyd, West Main street, entertained a party of little folks, friends of her granddaughter, Miss Winifred Smith, who celebrated her 7th birthday. Miss Winifred was the recipient of many pretty gifts and good wishes and all the little people had a royal good time.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lanzman, of Montgomery county, are guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Springer, East Coover street.

Mrs. O. Warner, of Reading, is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Mohler, West Main street.

Mervin Martin, of York, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Martin, South Washington street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hanzman, of Montgomery county, are guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Springer, East Coover street.

Miss Florence Underwood, who is teaching in Jersey City, spent Sunday and Columbus day at her home here.

Mrs. A. B. Mower, of Shepherdstown, was the guest of Mrs. John Mohler, South Arch street the past week.

Prof. A. J. Beitzel, of Harrisburg, was a visitor here last week. He is a usual interest. The original company which played so long at the Astor and Gaiety theatres in New York, is about to open a long run in Boston, but a cast of equal strength will present it here.

World's Series Reproduced. The world's series, as far as local fans are concerned, will be transferred from the Chestnut street hall to the Board of Trade auditorium to-day. This was made necessary in order to make room for the food show. Mr. Davis' big "wizard" board has proved a great source of entertainment to local baseball enthusiasts. The perfect mechanical arrangement of the board enables the fans to follow every move made in the actual game, and excitement runs high when some particularly brilliant play is depicted.

At the Orpheum. There's much to interest, plenty to admire, and loads to laugh at, in the bill of Keith hits that come to the Orpheum to-day. Advance interest certainly centers in Frederick Bowers, who is a favorite here, and who will likely have Harrisburg singing some new songs this week. There's also a good bit of interest connected with the appearance of the Bison City Four, who actually get here this week. Yes, these comedy trillers are here at last, after being lost on two different occasions, because they were abroad or out on the ocean somewhere with the enemy pursuing them, and they didn't get to Harrisburg to fulfill their engagement. They are not going to tell of their hard luck experiences, but they are so glad to get back that they will be funnier.

At the Colonial. Amusement seekers who visit the Colonial this week will notice considerable improvement in the vaudeville than ever in new comedy antics and will harmonize in their always capital style in a number of new songs. Another fine feature of the new offering is "The Mystic Bird," the most sensational find of the new season. Picture to your imagination a tiny canary bird, the ordinary little yellow fellow we see every day, and listen to him imitate the calls and songs of other birds upon request. Also hear him harmonizing and singing obligatos with the orchestra while it plays "Mendelssohn's Spring Song;" "The Glow Worm;" etc. A pretty stage setting, a wonderful violinist and "the mystic bird" combine into an attraction that is at once interesting and artistic. The Nelson Wahlen Troupe will please with spectacular as well as expert hoop rolling and diabolo throwing and comedy, song and novelty are happily blended in the remaining attractions to be presented by the Novelty Clintons; Mr. and Mrs. Cappel and Pauli and Boyne. The usual interesting moving picture will be included in the performance also, and latest baseball news will be announced between acts.

At the Colonial. Amusement seekers who visit the Colonial this week will notice considerable improvement in the vaudeville than ever in new comedy antics and will harmonize in their always capital style in a number of new songs. Another fine feature of the new offering is "The Mystic Bird," the most sensational find of the new season. Picture to your imagination a tiny canary bird, the ordinary little yellow fellow we see every day, and listen to him imitate the calls and songs of other birds upon request. Also hear him harmonizing and singing obligatos with the orchestra while it plays "Mendelssohn's Spring Song;" "The Glow Worm;" etc. A pretty stage setting, a wonderful violinist and "the mystic bird" combine into an attraction that is at once interesting and artistic. The Nelson Wahlen Troupe will please with spectacular as well as expert hoop rolling and diabolo throwing and comedy, song and novelty are happily blended in the remaining attractions to be presented by the Novelty Clintons; Mr. and Mrs. Cappel and Pauli and Boyne. The usual interesting moving picture will be included in the performance also, and latest baseball news will be announced between acts.

At the Colonial. Amusement seekers who visit the Colonial this week will notice considerable improvement in the vaudeville than ever in new comedy antics and will harmonize in their always capital style in a number of new songs. Another fine feature of the new offering is "The Mystic Bird," the most sensational find of the new season. Picture to your imagination a tiny canary bird, the ordinary little yellow fellow we see every day, and listen to him imitate the calls and songs of other birds upon request. Also hear him harmonizing and singing obligatos with the orchestra while it plays "Mendelssohn's Spring Song;" "The Glow Worm;" etc. A pretty stage setting, a wonderful violinist and "the mystic bird" combine into an attraction that is at once interesting and artistic. The Nelson Wahlen Troupe will please with spectacular as well as expert hoop rolling and diabolo throwing and comedy, song and novelty are happily blended in the remaining attractions to be presented by the Novelty Clintons; Mr. and Mrs. Cappel and Pauli and Boyne. The usual interesting moving picture will be included in the performance also, and latest baseball news will be announced between acts.

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC

This afternoon and evening, "Everywoman."

To-morrow evening Wednesday afternoon and evening, "The Traffic."

Thursday evening, "Help Wanted." Friday afternoon and evening, Burlesque.

Saturday afternoon and evening, "Seven Keys to Baldpate."

ORPHEUM

Every afternoon and evening, high class vaudeville.

COLONIAL

Daily continuous vaudeville and pictures.

"Everywoman"

Henry W. Savage brings his colossal production of the dramatic spectacle, "Everywoman," to the Majestic this afternoon and evening. This novel play has proven to be the sensation of the entire country for nearly four years. The same splendid production which was offered in New York for nearly two years is to be shown here without any abridgement. The company is an enormous one, containing over one hundred people. It is accompanied by a special symphony orchestra. This is the only "Everywoman" company touring America and is considered