TAKING OF OSTEND IS EXPECTED SOON

Reports Early This Morning State Germans Are Within 10 Miles of the City

HAVE OCCUPIED BLAKENBERGHE

Londoners Now Express the Opinion That the Taking of the Popular Seaside Resort Will Occur Within Next Twenty-Four Hours

London, Oct. 16, 10:15 A. M.—As was the case just a week ago at Antwerp, so it was today with Ostend. That is to say its occupation by a German army is momentarily expected.

The latest news available in London early today said the Germans were within ten miles of the city, having occupied Blakenberghe, a small town on the Belgian coast about ten miles northeast of Ostend and connected there with by steam tramways.

Last of Refugees From Ostend

The last of the refugees have come from Ostend and steamer service between that city and England has been suspended until further notice.

RENEWS LOCAL OPTION PLEDGE

McCormick Declares Himself For the Equalization of Taxes in the State —Richard B. Quay Makes a Frosh Attack on Methods of Film

(Special to the Star-Independent.) New Castle, Pa., Oct. 16.—Martin G. Brumbaugh, spoke yesterday in Mercer and Lawrence, two of the most independent counties of the State.

"If I am elected Governor and these things come, as they must, to be passed upon by the Legislature, I stand here to say to you that I will not only sign such laws, but I will be in the fight to make them become laws."

Having made this definite statement of purpose, Dr. Brumbaugh spoke of the "safety legend," asserting that the first obligation of administration of high office was the building up of a strong people, including his education and their homes, of their education and their worship.

"I have declared in my primary platform and have spoken all over the Commonwealth for the local option law in Pennsylvania, but there are a few people who seem to think that I have not made myself plain on that question. I am almost constrained to ask them, 'Shall I spell it for you? Surely a generation spent in training others to speak the English language, I should know how to make my thoughts clear on any issue like that.'

Leaves Germans Without Flank The arrival of the Germans near Ostend, however, straightens out their line in Belgium so it runs almost due south, connecting with their forces in France, and being jammed up to the coast at the north leaves the German's flank to turn it will be necessary for the allies to break the line somewhere, and the fiercest fighting to effect this is likely to continue along the Belgian frontier.

All England is buzzing now with talk of the spy menace, the papers editorially and otherwise dwelling on the presence of Germans at the hotels and urging closer restrictions. What is said to be a spy dressed in Belgian uniform, has been arrested among the refugees arriving from Belgium.

Strict Censorship of Letters A royal proclamation just issued forbids the transit, except by post which is subject to the censor's scrutiny, of any letters or written message to any person of any nationality carrying on business in the enemy's country. It is further ruled that any person landing or embarking in the United Kingdom must declare whether he is carrying any letter or message. Officers are empowered to search the luggage of a suspect and seize any letter, if they are doubtful as to its character and submit the same to the military censor.

Taking the unreconcilable dispatches arriving in London from Petrograd, Berlin and Vienna as a basis of information, it is almost impossible to determine with any accuracy the situation in the eastern theatre of the war. The main armies of the contending forces, the Russians on one side and the Austrians on the other, are in close touch over an immense front which evidently will gradually extend from the Baltic to the Carpathians.

In spite of the claims of victory here and defeat there, there is reason to believe that, generally speaking, the fighting so far has been confined to cavalry engagements and that a general action has not yet begun.

The Canadian troops recently disembarked in England were today distributed to military camps. All appear to be in fine fettle and are anxious to get to the front.

Say Austrians Are Using Dum Dums Petrograd, Oct. 16.—The general staff of Kiev has given out a statement alleging that dum dum bullets are being used by Austrian troops. Eight cases of these bullets have been secured in the theatre of war.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Out Your Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days.

From Greenville the campaign party went to Sharpsville, and thence to Farrell, where he spoke to a good sized group of workmen at 5:30. He was introduced by Senator Benjamin Jarrett, a former Roosevelt man.

Other points made by Dr. Brumbaugh are as follows: "Only State Without a Debt They tell us that Pennsylvania sometimes won't behave herself as she should, and that she has been extravagant and badly managed.

They tell us that Pennsylvania sometimes won't behave herself as she should, and that she has been extravagant and badly managed. The truth of the matter is it is the only Commonwealth in the Union that is out of debt.
