CIVIC CLUB'S FIRST MEET

First Fall Gathering Will Be Held Monday Afternoon in New Y. W. C. A. Building

The first fall meeting of the Civic Club of Harrisburg will be held next Monday afternoon at 3.30 in the auditorium of the new Y. W. C. A. building. Notices for these club meetings are not sent out, members being notified of the first meeting through the daily papers, and for future meetings having the year book for reference.

The chairman of the year book committee announces that the books will be ready for distribution on Monday afternoon, and it is hoped that all members will be there in order to receive them.

Members will be privileged to bring guests to the meeting Monday. Mrs. Edwin S. Herman, chairman of the home garden work, will make her statement regarding the 542 gardens that were entered for competition. The names of the prize winners will also be announced at this meeting. Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones, delegate to the biennial and also to the State Federation of Women's Clubs held this week in Pittsburgh, will give an informal talk on the matter of interest at both places.

NURSE TO WED CLERGYMAN

After Wedding Next Year Will Go to China as Missionaries

Lebanon, Oct. 16.—A romance that started through mutual activity in church work will culminate the latter part of next year, when, prior to sailing for China to devote their lives to missionary work, Miss Martha Peiffer, daughter of David C. Peiffer, of this city, a trained nurse, and the Rev. D. R. Kaufman, of Richland, this county, will be united in marriage. It is also expected that the wedding will occur on the same day they set sail for far-away China.

Miss Peiffer was graduated as a nurse from the Good Samaritan hospital, this city, in 1912. The Rev. Mr. Kaufman is a lifelong resident of Richland and is a graduate of Albright College, Myerstown, this county. The couple are now preparing themselves for their life work in Dr. White's Bible School in New York City.

MAID OF HONOR ENTERTAINS

Miss Pakradooni Gave a Luncheon For Members of Bridal Party Last Night

Miss Syra Pakradooni, who will be maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Helen Hill Shaver and G. Douglas Andrews, next week, gave a luncheon to the members of the bridal party at the home of Miss Shaver, 1238 Walnut street, last evening.

The table decorations were softly shaded candelabra with shades in the various rainbow hues while twisted ribbons of the same pretty colors fell from the chandeliers over the table to each place where they were caught under the guest favors, flower shaped cups filled with bon-bons.

The guests were Miss Frances Corbett, Miss Sara Vance, Miss Emma Graupner, Miss Margaret Stevens, of Reading; Miss Elsie Spayd, Miss Mame Ebert, of Hamburg; Mrs. C. H. Shaver, Miss Helen Shaver and Miss Pakradooni.

DETACHMENTS OF AMERICAN RED CROSS ARRIVE IN VIENNA

Venice, Oct. 15, via Paris, Oct. 16, 3.20 A. M.—Two detachments of American Red Cross arrived in Vienna Wednesday, one proceeded to Jungary and the other to the hospital in the suburbs of Vienna.

A drastic imperial decree has been issued in Vienna giving wide powers to the Austrian authorities to insure the provisioning of the people at reasonable prices. Severe penalties are to be imposed on those overcharging for food including $1,000 fine and imprisonment for six months. Many branches of the retail trade in Vienna are at a standstill.

When You Hear That Dinner Bell

Does Your Mind Go Back to the Days When You Could Eat Like a Farm Hand?

The memory of an appetite is a woe! The loss of stomach power—the ability to eat—the yearning after good old-fashioned food—that condition is pitiful. Why can't you realize what thousands of others have demonstrated?

First Man—"I'm as hungry as a bear." Second Man—"Wait 'til I get a plateful of good old corned beef and cabbage."

Look at the above illustration. Most every one remembers such a scene. Fancy yourself wild for food now. Fancy yourself able to eat as one of these men can eat.

Use a little common sense and look at your stomach trouble in a practical manner. Something has gone wrong with your digestive apparatus. Set your body machinery aright. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are Nature's own way to digesting food. By eating one of these tablets after each meal you digest that meal. Digesting that meal means easing the work of the stomach, intestines, liver and pancreas and storing up new materials for digesting future meals.

Eat what you will and when you will but always carry a little Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet in your pocket. In a short time you will be surprised at the gladness with which you look on food.

Go to your druggist anywhere and buy a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets this very day.

To anyone wishing a free trial of these tablets please address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich., and a small sample package will be mailed free.

several days' trip to Washington, Baltimore, Wilmington, Philadelphia and Camden.

Miss Florence Gates, of Goldsboro, is the guest of Mrs. John Gates in Paxtang for a week.

William Kennedy, 456 South Thirteenth street, has returned home from Philadelphia.

Harry Zeigler, South Fourth street, has returned home from Goldsboro, where he attended the funeral of his father.

Mrs. John Delaney, of Bloomsburg, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Bowman, 805 North Second street.

Miss May Good, of New York, is visiting Mrs. C. A. Cooper, 1432 Regina street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sharon McDonald, 1200 North Fifteenth street, left today for a visit to Pittsburgh and other points in the western part of the State.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Porter, of Champaign, Ill., are guests at the home of the former's brother, Charles Porter, 1502 North Sixth street.

Miss Jessie Kishpaugh, 409 South Sixteenth street, has returned home after visiting Mrs. John P. Hoverter, at Philadelphia.

Mrs. Sarah Leib, 713 North Second street, is visiting her son, William S. Leib, at Hazleton.

Supper by Ladies' Aid Society A supper will be served by the Ladies' Aid Society of Immanuel Presbyterian church, Sixteenth and Juniper streets, in the basement of the church to-morrow evening from 6 to 8 o'clock. Chicken, biscuits, vegetables and fruit salads will be on sale.

Pray for Success of Campaign The meeting resolved itself into a prayer meeting and more than thirty volunteer prayers were offered asking for the success of the revival.

At a meeting of the music committee last night, in the campaign headquarters, the music for the tabernacle chorus was arranged. The enrollment of the choir is progressing most satisfactorily, it was reported. More than 1,200 persons already have volunteered to sing and about 100 musicians have enrolled for the orchestra.

Any person, irrespective of church affiliations, desiring to assist in the choir or in the orchestra to be used during the tabernacle meetings can enroll with any member of the music committee from a co-operating church or can report at the Sunday school chapel of Grace Methodist Episcopal church, which is located on State street near Third street to-morrow evening at 7.30 o'clock, if desiring to play in the orchestra, or at 8 o'clock if wishing to sing in the choir. Rehearsals will be held at those hours.

The music committee desires that all persons wishing either to sing in the chorus or play in the orchestra will attend the preliminary meetings regularly. Prompt action should be taken in order to be sure of getting a place in the choir.

Religious Census Plans A meeting of the committee and the volunteer workers will be held in the Grace M. E. church, State street, near Third, on Thursday evening, October 22, at 7.30 o'clock, for the purpose of distributing the work. It is urged that all workers arrange to attend this meeting for instruction.

The taking of the census will start at 3.30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, October 25. If sufficient workers volunteer their

HALL TOO SMALL FOR FOOD SHOW

Need Exhibition Hall Here With Greater Space on the Ground Floor

RAIN DOES NOT STOP BIG CROWD

Many Questions Fired at Exhibitors by Hundreds of Visitors—Baskets of Food to Be Given Away This Evening—Another Concert Scheduled

The man behind the information desk at a railroad station has nothing on the demonstrators back of the booths at the pure food exhibit in the Chestnut street auditorium for questions are hurled like bullets from a machine gun and the manufacturers are glad to answer them because it shows that the people are taking an interest in pure food manufacture and want to know all there is to know about it.

The attendance at the show continues to grow each night. Despite the inclement weather last night there was a crowd as great as on any previous night. The added attraction of a concert by the Uplegrove orchestra brought many persons who stayed throughout the evening. It was feared for a while that the show would suffer on account of the rain. The concert will be given again this evening.

The show promises to go above any similar exhibit in the city in point of attendance and it only shows to managers according to Carl K. Deen that the city is in need of an exhibition hall where exhibitions can be placed on the ground floor. The present exhibit is about the limit of any thing that the city can stand for and plans to make a bigger show next year can hardly be made.

It is practically impossible to install heavy machinery as there is no practical method of getting them onto the second floor. If the show could be placed on a first floor it is likely that actual manufacturing would be shown. The persons now in the show realize what it means and in order to be early next year they are now engaging space, so as not to be left out.

To-night ten baskets of groceries valued at $7 will be given away at 9.30 o'clock at the show to the holders of lucky numbers.

Florama Is like the name, Flavor and Aroma; is the right coffee for you. The world's best mountain-grown coffee.

sent 1,500 persons. The total capacity of the building will be 7,500.

Last night, a call from the executive committee, about 800 persons, all belonging to the various committees connected with the campaign, were present at an enthusiastic meeting held in the Pine Street Presbyterian church. E. Z. Gross, former Mayor of Harrisburg; Miss Colt, of the Stough party, and W. W. Shannon addressed the committee of the whole. Mr. Shannon said:

"Some persons try to discourage this evangelistic movement by saying it is only a wave of emotionalism that will subside as soon as the evangelist leaves the city, and that people are not sincerely transformed when they hit the sawdust trail; but I know that such is not the case. From personal experience and observation I can truthfully say that a very large percentage of the converts remain permanently in their transformed state."

MEDICAL AUTHORITY SLAMS COFFEE USE Says Its All Right as a Medicine But Not as a Food—Contains Destructive Drug Caffeine

"Tea and coffee are not in any sense food, therefore cannot add constructive tissues to our bodies," declares Dr. Joseph M. Aikin, of Omaha, Neb. "This is not the worst of it," says Dr. Aikin. "Any substance that is not wholly a food, or that contains destructive in excess of constructive elements for tissue building, is harmful."

"The caffeine and thein in coffee and tea are cerebral stimulants, the tannic acid is an astringent, affecting especially the muscular fibers in the intestinal walls. They are useful as medicine, but not as food. Tea and coffee inebriety is increasing more rapidly than our native born population."

NOTE—Children not only desire but often need a warm nourishing table drink as much as their parents. Consequently with the banishment of the coffee pot from the family table INSTANT POSTUM finds ready favor. This delicious food drink is absolutely pure and free from the coffee drug "caffeine."

services, the entire census can be taken in one hour. It is planned to start the workers from the churches in their respective districts at a given signal, the work to start in every section of the city at the same time.

The Stevens Memorial M. E. church took a similar census of the Allison Hill district last year and found hundreds of families not connected with any church. Mr. Boswell, chairman of the census committee, who had charge of the census taken by the Stevens Memorial church, states that statistics show that at least one-third of the entire population of the United States is totally indifferent to church work. He also states that it is his opinion that at least one-third of the population of the city of Harrisburg never enter the church doors.

SALTING SAVES TIMBER Instances Which Show How It Acts as a Preservative

It was found in replacing a recently-burned railroad trestle along the north shore of Great Salt Lake, Utah, that the piles were sound after forty-three years of service. These were of local pine and fir, but were found to have been impregnated with lake salt.

The result of this investigation is what started the United States Forest Service on its recent examinations of the use of salts as a preservative of timber. At another point on the lake some 18-inch piles, 29 years old, have been similarly preserved with salt, which has penetrated to the center. Timbers in the Southern Pacific railroad trestles across the lake, placed in 1902, appear as good as when driven and have been preserved above the water line by salt spray dashed upon them. The first transcontinental telegraph line, which was built before the first railroad, extended west from Salt Lake City through the then prosperous mining camps of Eureka, Austin and others.

When the railroad was built the telegraph line was transferred to this right of way, and the old poles were sawed off at the ground. A recent examination of the butts left in the ground has been preserved above the water line by salt spray dashed upon them.
