C. A. WILHELM, 50 YEARS AN ODD FELLOW, IS HONORED

He Is Guest at a Surprise Banquet at Which a Beautiful Gold Veteran Jewel Is Presented to Him by Members of His Order

In the Commonwealth Hotel last evening occurred one of the pleasantest events in Odd Fellow circles which has ever taken place in this city, and, incidentally, the first of its kind in this vicinity—the presentation of a "Fifty-Year Veteran Jewel" to Charles A. Wilhelm, of Harrisburg, by a number of his Odd Fellow friends. Seventy-one such "Jewels" only had previously been bestowed.

Mr. Wilhelm, who for many years has been well-known and active among railroad men, firemen and in political circles, became an Odd Fellow July 12, 1864, and since that date has been one of the most active Odd Fellows in this city. He has filled many important positions in the order. He is a past officer of both State Capitol Lodge, No. 70, and Dauphin Encampment, No. 19, and has had the honor of representing these organizations in their respective territories.

CHARLES A. WILHELM Odd Fellows Honor Him After Fifty Years Membership in Order

Grand bodies. At present he is representative to the Grand Encampment, which meets next week in Pottstown, and he also is a member of an important Grand Lodge committee.

The presentation of the "Jewel," which is the official decoration of the order for members holding membership continuously for fifty years, was preceded by a banquet in Mr. Wilhelm's honor. Both the banquet and the presentation were surprises to him. The event was attended by about thirty prominent local Odd Fellows. The presentation speech was made by Judge S. J. M. McCarroll. Judge George Kunkel, candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court, also made an address. Past Grand Master C. W. Myers presided as toastmaster.

Judge McCarroll briefly outlined Mr. Wilhelm's record as an Odd Fellow and in closing produced the "Jewel," which, until that time, had not been referred to. Upon receiving the token Mr. Wilhelm was almost overcome by the surprise and his consequent emotion. He responded briefly. Judge Kunkel commended Mr. Wilhelm as an exemplary citizen in all walks of life, and eulogized the order and its principles of "Friendship, Love and Truth," and announced the undivided opinion of his court as stated by his associate, Judge McCarroll, that Mr. Wilhelm's record was one worthy of emulation.

Frank B. Wickersham, Assistant District Attorney, and Dennis O'Connell followed with formal addresses, after which every Odd Fellow present spoke informally.

Son of Former President and Mrs. William Taft and Miss Martha, Daughter of the late Lloyd Bowers, Married at Noon

By Associated Press.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The wedding to-day of Robert A. Taft, son of former President and Mrs. William Howard Taft, and Miss Martha A. Bowers, daughter of the late Lloyd W. Bowers, Solicitor General during a part of the Taft administration, was of absorbing interest to official and diplomatic society.

The former President and Mrs. Taft had arrived in Washington for the marriage, with Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Taft, Horace Taft, Miss Louise Taft, Charles P. Taft, Jr., and Mrs. John Hays Hammond.

The ceremony was performed at St. John's Episcopal church at noon, the Rev. Roland Cotton Smith officiating. A license had been obtained by young Mr. Taft in person.

The marriage to-day is the culmination of a romance dating back several years. Miss Bowers and Miss Helen Taft became intimate friends during the Taft administration. An attachment soon sprang up between the former and young Robert Taft and they were seen frequently in each others' company.

When the former President and Mrs. Taft reached their rooms at a leading hotel they found them filled with flowers from the White House conservatories and personal friends. President Wilson sent American beauty roses and chrysanthemums with greetings to Mrs. Taft. Mr. and Mrs. Taft will be in Washington until next Friday.

It was Mrs. Taft's first visit to Washington since her departure from the White House at the end of Mr. Taft's term.

Mr. Taft will preside at the convention of the American Bar Association Tuesday.

Mr. Taft stated to-day that he had no engagement to go to the White House, but hoped to stay on President Wilson during his trip here.

Fur Trimming a Strong Feature on Fall Suits—Military Effects in Millinery

New York, Oct. 17.

Fuller skirts have arrived! Many of the dressmakers modify them by having an underskirt beneath which is as tight as of yore, others are side pleated, having yoke effects at the top to lessen the fullness around the waist.

Coats are made with skirts which are pleated or cut circular, reaching often to the bottom of the dresses. A stunning model in seal brown duvetyne is trimmed with silk cord embroidery. The coat is long in front with a wide belt, or yoke, from which the skirt is hung. The skirt is pleated at the back and draped up at the sides. In the back the coat reaches quite below the knees.

In one of the Paris shops a wonderful smart wrap was shown of heavy, long-haired, cream-colored plush with a lining of brilliant brocade crepe. A
