The Most Important Showing of Suits for Misses and Women That We Have Ever Assembled Is Now On Sale for the First Time

The Dives, Pomeroy and Stewart Suit Department is the inexhaustible style source of hundreds of women and misses at this particular period of the year when it is a matter of great importance to consider the correctness of the garments that are to be worn through the Winter months. The department's initiative in showing the newest and most characteristic styles as soon as they are created is recognized by practically every well-dressed woman, and the exceptional skill that is noticeable in every model is a matter of daily comment.

The store has never before been so well prepared to satisfy the style judgment of each individual woman as it is this season. A greater number of exclusive garments is being exhibited than we have ever shown in one season heretofore, and in each group can be seen liberal evidences of the handwork of true artists.

Scores of New Models at $16.50 to $40.00 Are in This Week's Showing

New redingote styles, in wide wale cheviot and serge with a trimming of broad bands of velvet and velvet covered buttons, or with a broad girde of self material. One of the styles has a wide revers with a high standing velvet collar. The skirts are made with yoke front and back and straight line effects. The colors are tete de negre, navy blue, green and black, $16.50.

The jauntiest styles to be found anywhere for misses and small women are shown at $20.00. The coats are short or long and the materials are rich qualities of gabardine, poplin or serge. The coat of one style has a unique trimming of self material at the waist line and the skirt is embellished with rows of self covered buttons.

New styles in chiffon broadcloth and gabardine with trimming of velvet or of velvet and silk braid. A coat of one style shows a gathered back with a trimming of broadcloth buttons and a broad belt of satin running through straps of broadcloth. These garments are unmatched at $22.50.

and on shorter models, the use of cords and tassels is made with good effect. The shades are Russian green, plum, wine, navy blue, tete de negre and black.

Two very attractive styles that are recent additions to the stock are of gabardine with trimming of silk braid or velvet covered buttons. The coats are one half lined with Skinner's satin and the collars of velvet and cloth copy those shown in high priced garments, $18.50.

Another style at $18.50 is made with a cross over belt of same material and is stitched on the collar and sleeves with contrasting shades of broadcloth. Another style in the redingote follows strictly tailored lines with only a touch of trimming of bone buttons.

The range of styles at $22.50 represents the most important style gathering that we have ever assembled. The showing embraces short coats, coats in the medium length and redingotes, and the materials include lovely imported qualities of gabardine, poplin, novelty weaves and chiffon broadcloth. Crushed plush forms an important part in the trimming of the garments at this price

The styles at $27.00, $30.00, $35.00, $37.50 and $39.50 are made up of copies of French models that have recently been brought to this country through sketches. At this range there is a broad use of fur, crushed plush and rich chiffon velvet.

One style at $30.00 is of fine quality velvet with a coat 40 inches in length; the collar and cuffs are trimmed with crushed plush, and a girde of soft silk with a tie front forms an important factor in the style.
