MECHANICSBURG

The Rev. J. J. Resh Delivered an Able Sermon Last Evening

Special Correspondence

Mechanicsburg, Oct. 29.—According to announcement, the Palmer-McCormick party arrived here about noon.

They were accompanied by a number of the members of the Democratic Club, of Harrisburg. Mr. McCormick has a host of personal friends in this place and, irrespective of party, they joined in giving him a welcome.

On account of Halloween falling on Saturday this year and the "witching hours" encroaching on Sunday, the Halloween parties planned by our young people will be held on Friday evening.

The sermon in the Methodist church last evening was by the pastor, the Rev. J. J. Resh. A very inspiring testimony service followed. There have been several conversions.

Miss Grace Yordi has returned from Franklin, where she completed an engagement as pianist.

Mr. and Mrs. George Coover and daughters, Miss Minerva and Miss Lulu, attended the Gehr-Webbert wedding in Churchtown on Tuesday. Miss Minerva played the wedding march and Miss Lulu was ring-bearer. Mrs. Coover is a sister of the bride.

Word was received by Charles Herman yesterday that his brother, Addison, had died suddenly in Newcastle, where he went last Sunday evening from this place. His home was in Carlisle, but he spent considerable time in this place. His body will be taken to Carlisle for burial.

Mrs. H. B. Markley left on Tuesday for a visit to friends in Ottawa, Canada.

Mrs. Sarah Dornbach spent yesterday with relatives in Harrisburg.

Mrs. John B. Statler, of Middletown, is the guest of Mrs. Kate Reiter, South Market street.

Stop Those Early Bronchial Coughs They hang on all winter if not checked, and pave the way for serious throat and lung diseases. Get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and take it freely. Stops coughs and colds, heals raw inflamed throat, loosens the phlegm and is mildly laxative. Charles T. Miller, Ed. Enquirer, Canton, Ind., had bronchial trouble, got very hoarse, coughed constantly from a tickling throat. He used only Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Was entirely relieved. Wants others to know of Foley's Honey and Tar. George A. Gargas, 16 North Third street and P. R. R. Station. adv.

A Late Book Mrs. Hoyt who became the possessor of a fortune by the death of an aunt, did not like to admit her ignorance of any subject.

One afternoon she had a call from a prominent society woman, and the conversation turned upon books. "Have you read Shakespeare's works?" asked the caller. "Oh, yes, indeed," replied Mrs. Hoyt, "all of them—that is," she added hastily, "unless he has written something very lately."—National Monthly.
