TECH ONLY SCHOLASTIC ELEVEN TO PLAY AT HOME

Lebanon Game on Island Park Grounds Fills in While Other Teams Are Away From Home—Academy at Lancaster

SCHOLASTIC SCHEDULE

Lebanon High school vs. Tech on Island Park grounds. (Game called at 3 o'clock).
Highspire A. C. vs. Tech Scrubs on Island Park grounds. (Game called at 2 o'clock).
Central High school vs. New Bloomfield Academy, for New Bloomfield.
Steelton High school vs. Williamsport High, at Williamsport.
Harrisburg Academy vs. Franklin and Marshall Academy, at Lancaster.
With all of the scholastic teams but Tech away from the city to-morrow, the Maroon and Grey will have the only call on the football fans in this city, meeting the Lebanon High school team on the Island Park grounds of the Harrisburg Tri-State team. The scrubs will meet the Highspire A. C. in a double attraction.
Tech is likely to have an easy time winning over Lebanon as that eleven has shown but little except a victory over Steelton which now looks like a mistake. Beck and Beach are liable to be out of the game. New plays will be given a try-out.
Central High has shown but little speed since the Steelton game. Coach Smith allowing the players to rest up on account of injuries. The New Bloomfield Academy team does not promise to put up much of a game and Central High will go away with a goodly portion of the scrubs.
While the local teams have easy propositions, Steelton will have one of its hardest games in Williamsport at Williamsport. Coach Taggart has been drilling the squad hard since the Central High game for the Red and White struggle and expects a victory over a team which has a reputation for speed and weight this season.
More than fifty students of the Harrisburg Academy will accompany their team to Lancaster to-morrow afternoon for the hardest game of the season with the Franklin and Marshall Academy. Coach Tate and three other members of the faculty will accompany the party. A long signal drill this afternoon ended practice for this game.

JACK JOHNSON AGREES TO FIGHT JESS WILLARD

Colored Champion Wants $30,000 and Fifty Per Cent. of the Moving Picture Money and is Ready to Sign Articles Immediately

New York, Oct. 30.—Jack Johnson has agreed to fight Jess Willard for the heavyweight championship of the world. Or to be more exact, Jack will fight for $20,000 cash and a goodly percentage of the moving pictures, in return for which he will give Jess ample opportunity to endeavor to annex the title which Johnson now holds.
Tom Jones, who is in this city with Ad Wolgast and is a member of the syndicate which is backing Willard, last night received the following cablegram from Johnson:
"Ready to sign immediately. Come on over. Be sure to get here before the nineteenth. Want $30,000 and 50 per cent. of the pictures. Will fight on a telegraph wire."
After exhibiting the cablegram Jones said:
"Either Jack Curley or I will sail for London early next week. Johnson is at St. Mary's Parish, Paddington, London, and will wait there until the nineteenth, when he has some contracts to fulfill.
"So far as we are concerned the match is on. We've been corresponding with Johnson, and his cablegram is final consent to the match. We expect to hold the contest at Juarez, Mexico, which is just across the border line from El Paso, Tex. How soon the match will be held it is as yet impossible to say, but Johnson is in pretty good condition, and unless he is tied up with theatrical contracts on the other side the contest will be held this winter.
"Curley is in Kansas City just now, but may be back on Saturday. I'll be right over following with confidence. You see, he realizes now what he lost when he lost the title, and this will be his last chance to regain it. Only last night Ad was planning what he'll do when the theatrical managers come after him.
"No more stage stuff for me," he said. "When I grab that title again I'm going to profit by my past experiences, and it'll be a long time before I'll lose it again. And when I do I'll lose it fairly, not on a fluke."

LARRY DOYLE, THE GIANT CAPTAIN, SERIOUSLY HURT

New York Captain Has Water on Shoulder as a Result of Auto Smash in 1914 on Eve of Big Series With the Athletics

The most welcome news that the Little Napoleon could possibly have received fell unexpectedly yesterday in reference to Larry Doyle, the Giant captain. It was discovered that Captain Larry was suffering from water on the shoulder. A sack of liquid formed under the throwing arm of this aid as a result of an automobile accident which partly incapacitated the field leader in the world's series against the Athletics in 1913.
Doyle had been handicapped for more than a year by an ailment of which he was ignorant. His arm seemed tied; he could not throw with the customary freedom. He seemed shoulder bound at bat. After the recent post-season series games against the New York Americans Larry consulted a specialist. It was found that a sack of water had gathered under his right armpit.
"Water on the shoulder," the doctors diagnosed the case. They set about immediately to effect a remedy. Doyle's shoulder had been kneaded and baked and subjected to stringent treatment. Fortunately the seriousness of the case was discovered in time. The attending physicians declared that if the captain of the Giants had allowed his injury to remain unattended for another six months cirrhosis would have set in, with subsequent permanent disability.
Doyle's injury dates from the eve of the 1913 world's series between the Giants and Athletics, when he was seriously injured on Pelham Parkway while driving his own car. Never after did he attain his accustomed proficiency in field or at the bat. He was forced to "push" the ball across the diamond, while he "uppercut" at the sphere while at bat.

THE AMES FAMILY HELPS PRINCETON'S ATHLETICS

Progeny of Famous "Snake" Ames, of 1886, Developing a Zig-Zag Flight Which Made His Father Famous As Halfback

The remarkable game, both as player and field general, put up by K. L. Ames, Jr., of Princeton, on Saturday last against Dartmouth, calls attention to the fact that the second generation of Princeton's most famous football stars are in college at Princeton and that they are promising to equal or to exceed their famous fathers. Ames is the son of the famous "Snake" Ames, who for four years, 1886 to 1890, frequently carried Princeton to victory on diamond, field and track. He was considered then, and by many still believed, to be the greatest dodging back ever produced. His peculiar zig-zag flight through an opposing eleven early earned for him the nickname of "Snake." His track performances were in the dashes, and he was one of the first college men to touch ten seconds for the hundred and 22 seconds for the 220-yard dash. Upon the diamond he was equally brilliant, pitching many a victorious game for Princeton. After leaving college he still continued to shine as an athlete, being one of the best amateur golfers in the country to-day.

QUESTION OF BIDDER

The Man Who Offers Most Money Gets Walter Johnson
Port Smith, Ark., Oct. 30.—"It's all a case of bidding. The team that has the best proposition with the most money will get my services."
This was the frank statement of Walter Johnson, pitcher of the Washington Americans, when he denied yesterday that he had signed a contract to play with the St. Louis Federals.
Johnson said he has had a conference with Fielder Jones, of the St. Louis team, at Johnson's home, Coffeyville, Kan., Wednesday night, and that Jones had accompanied him as far as Sallisaw, Okla., on the trip to Fort Smith. Johnson refused to discuss the matter further.
Johnson came here with a group of professionals to take part in a series of exhibition games.
It is stated here that Manager Jones has set $20,000 as the salary limit, beyond which he will not go to get Johnson.

Are Your SHOE Bills Too High? You Save A Dollar on Every Pair of

The "SAVE-A-DOLLAR" Newark Shoe

If you will just consider for a moment why a dealer must charge you $3.50 for a pair of shoes, and realize that a certain part of that represents his profit, you would understand why we, as the MAKERS, can SAVE YOU AT LEAST ONE DOLLAR on every pair of shoes you buy.

In the NEWARK Shoe at $2.50 you get a thoroughly skilfully hunched, smartly styled shoe, with $3.50 value so pronounced that no argument is necessary to make you see that you are really saving at least a dollar on every pair.

ness of great importance would be up for discussion.
The call for the meeting was sent yesterday by E. B. Johnson, president of the American League, who refused to indicate what the important matters to be discussed were.
As the meeting will be just before the annual meeting of the minor leagues in Omaha, it was reported the majors would delve into the troubles of the little fellows and attempt to find means to assist them.
Johnson declared no peace proposition would be submitted to the Federals, ridiculed the report that Walter Johnson, of Washington, had signed with the St. Louis Federals, and said it would be impossible for Roger Bresnahan to take over an association team in Ohio.
"I have just read some correspondence dealing with Bresnahan's status," he said, "and, as this player is under contract with the Chicago club, he has no right to talk terms with the Brooklyn Federals, nor to attempt to purchase the Toledo Association franchise."
