

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys If Bladder Bothers You—Drink Lots of Water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts, or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

SHE GOT HER DIAMOND RING

Unusual Way in Which Lost Jewel Was Recovered

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 30.—Captain Liago, of the Venice police department; Mrs. L. O. Matthews, of Venice; Fay Williams, who keeps a fish stand at Playa del Rey, and perhaps some others swear to this story:

Mrs. Matthews says that while she was fishing from the Venice pier recently a $350 diamond ring fell from her finger into the water. Her tears added to the salt water already in the ocean, and divers exhausted themselves trying to recover her jewelry, but all in vain.

Fay Williams swears to this part: While preparing a large fish for sale at his stand since Mrs. Matthews was out fishing, he found a diamond ring. He heard of Mrs. Matthews' loss. He notified the Venice police department. Captain Liago swears to this part: The ring, no worse for its 2-mile trip from Venice to Playa del Rey in the esophagus of a fish, was turned over to him. He notified Mrs. Matthews. She identified the ring and it was returned to her.

WOUNDED FARMER RECOVERING

Was Mysteriously Shot Two Weeks Ago in Lebanon

Lebanon, Oct. 30.—Irvin Shelly, the young Lebanon county farmer who was shot in a mysterious manner at a house on Water street, this city, two weeks ago and who later accused a woman of having made an assault upon him, has almost recovered his normal condition at the Good Samaritan hospital, where he has been under treatment since the shooting occurred. He is expected to leave the hospital in a few days.

The wounded man has not repeated his charge against the woman, and it is not likely that any prosecution will be brought against the woman.

WALCOTT DEATH ACCIDENTAL

Coroner's Jury Finds Lawyer Fell From Window in Mishap

New York, Oct. 30.—A coroner's jury has found that Philip K. Walcott, of the law firm of Hawkins, Deland & Longfellow, met his death through an accident on October 6, when he fell from a window on the thirteenth floor of 20 Exchange Place.

Mr. Deland testified that Mr. Walcott had no reason whatever to take his life. A salute fired from government Island, it was said, attracted the young lawyer to the window. An accident insurance company introduced a witness who said she saw Mr. Walcott jump, but it was brought out that she was below the window and her statement was disregarded by the jury.

Auto Kills Girardville Man

Shenandoah, Pa., Oct. 30.—Thomas Mulhearn, a prominent citizen of Girardville, was run down by an automobile, owned by Daniel Fitzgibbons, a wealthy retired business man of this city, yesterday afternoon, and died last night in the hospital at Fountain Springs. The chauffeur surrendered to the authorities last night, and was released to await action by the District Attorney.

Chief Mission Fund Abroad

Alentown, Pa., Oct. 30.—At the closing session of the twenty-sixth annual convention of the Women's Missionary Society of Eastern Synod of the Reformed Church, Mrs. L. Anewalt, treasurer of the General Synod Society, reported the receipts for the triennium, $83,011.89. To foreign mission work $40,269.21 was paid, and for home missions $34,663.37.

DON'T NEGLECT YOUR STOMACH

If It's Upset Mi-o-na Puts It Right and Ends Distress.

If you are one of the thousands who cannot eat a simple meal without its lying in the stomach like lead, fermenting and causing painful distress, sourness and gas, do not delay but get at once some Mi-o-na—a simple prescription to be had at any druggist's—that quickly and effectively ends indigestion and corrects bad stomachs.

You must not allow your upset stomach to go from bad to worse for there will surely be longer periods of food fermentation causing greater agony, more gas, sick headache, unrefreshing sleep, "blue spells" and nervousness. A few Mi-o-na tablets are just what you need. Use them freely at the first sign of distress. Mi-o-na not only quickly ends the misery, but helps to soothe the liver and strengthen the stomach—then your food is properly digested.

Mi-o-na is not only inexpensive but H. C. Kennedy sells it with agreement to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

INDIANA PRODUCES COKE IN 1913 WORTH $13,182,136

State Assuming Importance as a Coke Manufacturer Since Completion of Plant at Gary by the United States Steel Corporation

Washington, D. C., Oct. 30.—The principal mineral products of Indiana are coal, clay wares, cement, and stone, the aggregate value of these four substances in 1913 exceeding 90 per cent. of the total value of the output of the mines and quarries, according to a statement just issued by the United States Geological Survey. In 1913 the total value of the mineral production of Indiana was $4,607,864. This total the coal mines contributed $1,901,881, the Portland cement plants $10,218,867, the clay products $8,498,646, and the stone quarries $4,676,689. In 1912 the mineral output of the State was valued at $42,239,193, compared with which the production in 1913 shows an increase of $4,368,671, or over 10 per cent. These values do not include that of the pig iron produced in the State, which in 1912 exceeded $17,000,000 and in 1913 was over $20,000,000, nor do they include the value of the coke produced, which in 1913 amounted to nearly $13,200,000. These two items make the sum total over $80,000,000. In the production of coal, which is the principal mineral product of the State, Indiana ranks seventh, with an output in 1913 amounting to 17,165,671 short tons, valued at $19,001,881, compared with 15,285,718 short tons, valued at $17,480,456, in 1912. The coal-producing counties are all in the southwestern part of the State and embrace an area of approximately 6,500 square miles.

With an increased production of 9,634,582 barrels, valued at $7,237,591, in 1912 to 10,218,867 barrels, valued at $10,218,867, in 1913, the Portland cement industry became second among Indiana's activities in mineral production. In 1912 the clay-working industries held second place, with products valued at $7,935,251. In 1913 the value of the clay products were $8,498,646. The principal clay products are drain tile, building brick, and vitrified brick. The under clay of the coal beds furnishes an excellent base for encaustic tile and for the manufacture of fire brick.

The value of the quarry products decreased from $5,091,924 in 1912 to $4,676,689 in 1913. Since the completion of its plant of 560 retort coke ovens at Gary by the United States Steel Corporation, Indiana has assumed importance as a manufacturer of coke and has advanced from the relatively low place of seventeenth in 1910 to third in 1912 and 1913. In addition to the plant at Gary there are 100 retort ovens at Indianapolis, 50 of which were completed in 1913, 22 at Muncie, and 66 at Indiana Harbor. Another plant of 41 ovens is under construction at Indianapolis. The production of coke in Indiana in 1913 amounted to 2,727,025 short tons, valued at $13,182,136, an increase from 2,616,339 short tons, valued at $12,528,655, in 1912.

The value of the natural gas produced in Indiana decreased from $1,014,295 in 1912 to $948,278 in 1913. The production of petroleum decreased from 970,009 barrels to 956,095 barrels, while the value increased from $885,975 to $1,279,226. Sand and gravel pits yielded a product valued at $1,175,370 in 1912 and $1,260,672 in 1913. The other primary mineral products of the State are lime, natural pigments, mineral waters, oilstones, pyrite, sandstone brick, and sulphuric acid.

WILL VOTE ON COTTON CROP

Texas Electors to Pass on Proposed Restriction of Yield

Austin, Tex., Oct. 30.—An arrangement to obtain an expression of opinion from Texas voters on November 3 on the advisability of reducing cotton acreage was announced here yesterday.

Election officers in about fifty Texas counties have promised to arrange for such voting. In other counties the proposal arrived too late for action.

Justice Himself Arrested

Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 30.—Robert McCormick, Justice of the Peace of North Union township, is in jail here on several charges of disturbing the peace and theft. McCormick's own constable will be used as a witness against him.

Dogs Kill a Young Buck

Williamsport, Pa., Oct. 30.—A young buck weighing about 100 pounds was found dead near the farm of C. E. Young, on the Sylvan Dell road, just east of the city, yesterday afternoon, having been killed by dogs.

Stops Hospital Taggers

Seranton, Pa., Oct. 30.—Mayor E. B. Jerny yesterday afternoon refused to permit a band of girl "taggers" to sell tags on the city streets for the benefit of the Midvalley hospital, which is an annual event for the hospital, which depends on the proceeds for most of its working funds.

Despondent, Kills Himself

Allentown, Pa., Oct. 30.—Thomas F. Osman, father of seven children, and a thread mill operative out of work, ended his life yesterday in a cornfield in the suburbs. He blew out his brains with a revolver and had poison in his clothes.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

If Peevish, Feverish and Sick, Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign his little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company," adv.

GREW SUBSTITUTE CLAWS

Something Nearly as Good on Stumps of Amputated Legs

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 30.—This story comes from Cathart, Snohomish county, and is vouched for by Robert D. Jones, of that place. While mowing hay last June, Abe Brugger, a Cathart rancher, surprised a mother pheasant and her brood in the tall grass. One of the flock was overtaken by the mower, which amputated both of its legs. It escaped to an alder thicket.

While hunting recently Brugger winged a pheasant. When he recovered the bird both of its legs were missing, a fact which recalled the accident of the early summer. The bird had become full grown, was in perfect condition, plump and, in fact, larger than the average of this year's birds taken in the locality.

The wounds had completely healed and nature, in the process of healing, had developed a substitute for claws in the form of hard scales at the extremities.

DEDICATE A MONUMENT

3,000 Miners Take Part in Demonstration at Minessville

Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 30.—A parade of 3,000 mine workers and the dedication of a marble shaft, which will commemorate the long strike of 1902 and the men who were killed and injured during the riots at that time, was the feature of Mitchell Day celebration at Minessville yesterday. Every colliery in the region was idle in honor of the occasion.

Orators at the dedication ceremonies were State President J. H. Maurer, of Federation of Labor; National Executive Board Member Martin A. Nash, of the United Mine Workers; District Vice President John Strambo, District Organizer Henry Ladinsky and District Board Member George Lutvnu.

HOBO HOW TURNED DOWN

Refused Audience With Mayor, Who Adds Caustic Comment

Chicago, Oct. 30.—Mayor Carter H. Harrison announced yesterday that he would decline to receive James Eds How, known as the "Millionaire Hobo," and a delegation of unemployed which How proposed to bring to the City Hall.

The Mayor criticized newspapers for giving publicity to such movements, asserting that he was convinced that men loudest in this form of demonstration "wouldn't go to work unless there was a man with a rifle standing over them."

"I have no sympathy with delegations of that sort," Mayor Harrison said. "Such persons live on publicity alone. They thrive on it, and if they didn't get it they might have to go to work. Every similar movement leads more men to believe that the world owes them a living. Publication given stories about a mass meeting of unemployed bring more of this class into the city."

RECTOR EMERITUS, 78, WEDS

Philadelphia, Oct. 30.—There were twelve witnesses at the marriage yesterday of the Rev. Dr. J. De Wolf Perry, rector emeritus of Calvary Episcopal church, Germantown, Pa., and Miss Marian Frazer Harris, 48, daughter of Mrs. Joseph S. Harris.

A daughter of the bridegroom, Mrs. M. Thurber, of Boston, attended the ceremony. The Right Rev. J. De Wolf Perry, Jr., Bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Rhode Island, a son, was not present. It was said he was unable to attend. Bishop Rhinelander officiated.

TO PRESERVE OLD FRIGATE

Constellation May Be Kept Permanently at Washington

Washington, Oct. 30.—The old frigate Constellation, which dates back to the War of 1812, arrived in Washington to-day and was exhibited to the public at the navy yard. The Constellation came from Baltimore, where it was on exhibition in connection with the Star-Spangled Banner centenary celebration held in that city last month.

Playmates Scream and Driver of Cart Gets Away

New York, Oct. 30.—With several other small children, Helen Jacketstad, 4, was playing in front of her home, 420 East 148th street, last night, when a horse drawing an open cart came jogging along.

Helen ran in front of the horse and was knocked down, the cart wheels passing over her neck, killing her instantly. The driver, the police say, made no effort to stop, but continued on his way, though Helen's playmates screamed for him to stop. A description of the horse and wagon was given the police and a general alarm sent out for the driver.
