

BRUMBAUGH WINNER BY 135,000; PENROSE'S LEAD ABOUT 180,000; KUNKEL IS LEADING LATE TO-DAY

A. S. Kreider Elected Congressman From This District With Almost 10,000 to Spare---Swartz and Wildman Win for Assemblymen From City, and Nissley and Young From the County---McCormick, in His Home City and County, Runs Behind Rival

Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, Republican, was elected Governor of Pennsylvania yesterday over Vance C. McCormick, of this city, Democratic and Washington party candidate. Brumbaugh's indicated lead, with returns incomplete, is about 135,000.

Senator Boies Penrose, Republican, was elected over Palmer, Democrat, and Pinchot, Washington party, leading Palmer by about 180,000. Pinchot appears to have run slightly below Palmer.

Mr. McCormick ran behind Brumbaugh in McCormick's own city, Harrisburg, and in his home county of Dauphin.

Members of the committee in this city in charge of the campaign of Judge George Kunkel, of Harrisburg, for Judge of the Supreme Court, said this afternoon that they are convinced he has won. They refused to give out any definite figures but said they had received returns from all except 12 counties of the state and that Kunkel is leading.

The general impression is that Kunkel will beat Frazer by a safe but small majority. A report given out earlier in the day by the Kunkel committee that he would win by 50,000 was regarded late this afternoon as placing the majority too high.

Trexler appears to have beaten Clark for Superior Court.

Frank B. McClain, Republican, was elected Lieutenant Governor, and Henry Houck, Republican, was re-elected Secretary of Internal Affairs. The four Republican Congressmen-at-Large were elected.

Aaron Kreider was re-elected to Congress in this district comprising Dauphin, Lebanon and Cumberland counties.

Swartz and Wildman, Republicans, easily won as candidates for Assemblymen from the city of Harrisburg, defeating their nearest opponents, Lybarger and Marshall, Democrats, by several thousands.

In the Dauphin County district outside of the city, Nissley and Young, Republicans, beat Martin and Lenker, who ran on the fusion ticket of the Democratic and Washington parties.

The Republicans of Pennsylvania gained in the number of Representatives to the National House, and gained many state Assemblymen and state Senators.

Vance C. McCormick, former mayor of Harrisburg and one time Yale football captain, was defeated in the race for the Governorship of this state, partly by the aid of the voters of his home city and his home county.

McCormick polled 10,083 in the entire Dauphin county as compared with 34,605 votes cast for Brumbaugh, the latter's majority in the county being 4,522. McCormick got 5,145 in this city to Brumbaugh's 7,458, the latter's majority being 2,313. McCormick got 4,938 in the county outside of the city, to Brumbaugh's 7,147, a Brumbaugh majority of 2,209.

The Harrisburg candidate carried his own precinct, the first of the Fourth ward, by 2 votes over his Republican rival. The ward as a whole went against McCormick, however, by 61 votes. Brumbaugh carried more precincts in this city than did McCormick.

Pinchot ran ahead of Palmer for Senator in Dauphin county, polling 6,341 votes to Palmer's 6,005. Penrose carried Dauphin county, rolling up 12,045.

Judge Kunkel got a wonderful vote in Dauphin county, beating his opponent by a majority of 20,167. Kunkel's total was 21,433 in the county to Frazer's 1,266.

Aaron S. Kreider, for Congress, got 13,654 votes in Dauphin county to 6,490 for Kaufman and 3,598 for Dr. J. H. Kreider. A Kreider plurality was 7,164 in this county. He led by about 2,000 in Lebanon county and by about 600 in Cumberland county, giving him the whole district by almost 10,000.

Swartz led the candidates for Assemblyman from this city, scoring 6,397. Wildman, who also was elected, got 5,704. Their nearest rival was Lybarger, who polled 4,036, and next came Marshall, who polled 2,851.

J. C. Nissley, with 6,428, and W. S. Young, with 6,284, won the Assembly places from the county, outside the city. Martin got 5,503 votes and Lenker 5,477.

Dr. Brumbaugh issued the following statement in Philadelphia:

"I am greatly pleased with the sweeping victory. It reflects the people's confidence in the principles of the Republican party. Personally I am deeply gratified that the voters have taken me at my word and I now reiterate every pre-election promise and pledge that I made in my platform and on the stump. I am perfectly satisfied with the verdict of the people."

Vance C. McCormick, defeated candidate for Governor, issued the following statement early to-day:

"I have made the best fight in my power for what I believed was the good of Pennsylvania, but the party in power was made to bear the blame of business conditions due to the European war. This combined with the organized opposition of the liquor interests defeated me."

"It was a combination of booze and sanctimonious hypocrisy that defeated the Democratic party in Pennsylvania yesterday," said Fourth Assistant Postmaster General James L. Blaklee, at Democratic State Committee Headquarters to-day. Mr. Blaklee had just been in communication with Democratic leaders in the Seventeenth Congressional district and claimed that Congressman Frank L. Dershem, Democrat, had defeated Ben K. Focht, the Republican candidate.

"We are in good humor," said Mr. Blaklee. "We were licked and we do not think that any blame can be attached to anybody for failure to do their duty. We are in good humor, and the Democratic vote in this State met our expectations."

Secretary VanDyke and Mr. Blaklee were holding the fort at Democratic State headquarters this morning, State Chairman Morris having taken an early train for his Philadelphia home, and Candidate Vance C. McCormick being at home "taking a rest," as it was explained.

No action has been taken by the State committee on the alleged violations of election laws on the part of the opposition, and until definite information is received the matter will rest.

Results in Pennsylvania
By Associated Press.
Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—The Republican plurality in Pennsylvania for all State candidates continued to increase

LEADING CANDIDATES WHO WON IN STATE

BOIES PENROSE, REELECTED UNITED STATES SENATOR

DR. MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH, GOVERNOR-ELECT

DEMOCRATS HOLD GRIP ON CONGRESS

Returns, However, Indicate Big Losses in Both the Branches in Washington

WHITMAN WINS: 150,000 AHEAD

'Uncle Joe' Cannon Is Elected to Congress From His Illinois District—Progressives Bumped Everywhere Except in California

By Associated Press.

New York, Nov. 4.—The Democratic party, through yesterday's elections, apparently retains control of both branches of Congress, although gains made by the Republicans in the lower house threaten to reduce the Democratic majority to a minimum.

This is the outstanding feature of yesterday's general election, aside from which the general significant development was the dwindling away of the strength of the Progressive party. The returns from every section of the country indicate that the Progressives, who cast a larger vote than the Republicans in 1912, have been absorbed in large part by the G. O. P. In almost every case there was a decisive falling off in the Progressive vote, with the conspicuous exception of California, which apparently has re-elected Hiram Johnson, its Progressive Governor.

Republican gains were made in every section of the country and leaders of that party asserted that the tariff issue has been instrumental in bringing about that result. Some of the more optimistic of the leaders asserted early to-day that there was a chance that the Democratic majority in the House of Representatives would be overturned, but there appeared to be small prospects of such an outcome.

The result of State elections was less definite. In a number of cases Democratic administrations were overturned, but these were offset by instances in which the reverse was the case. Republican leaders were elated.

Continued on Fifth Page.

Allegheny Against Kunkel
Pittsburgh, Nov. 4.—Five hundred and ninety districts in Allegheny county gave Frazer 81,501; Kunkel, 9,550; Clark, 23,883; Trexler, 55,663.

PROGRESSIVE VOTE DROPS

Reduction in Practically Every State From Its Strength Exhibited Two Years Ago

By Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Election returns show that the Progressive vote dropped in practically every State from its strength of two years ago. This was pointed out to-day as being shown in a number of States by the election of former Republican members of Congress who were defeated previously because of the large Progressive vote. Such men included Cannon and McKinley in Illinois, Longworth in Ohio and Hill in Connecticut.

According to to-day's returns, the Progressives showed most strength in Kansas and California. In Pennsylvania and Illinois the vote did not come up to predictions.

There was a general sentiment among Democratic leaders who have previously counted on the Progressive vote to pay little attention to it in the future and carry on an out and out fight on the Republicans.

Three States in West Go Dry

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Three Western States were aligned in the "dry" column yesterday, according to latest returns. Oregon, Arizona and Colorado voted for Statewide prohibition by close margins, say anti-liquor people. In addition, the claim was made by anti-saloon workers here that the majority of Illinois legislators are "dry" in sentiment. Ohio, however, went overwhelmingly against prohibition, as did California and Washington.

Setback for Woman Suffrage

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Woman suffrage suffered a setback in the election yesterday, six States voting against granting the franchise to women and women candidates undergoing defeat at the polls. In Illinois, the number of votes cast by that sex fell off greatly. Ohio, Missouri, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska and Nevada voted against granting votes to women.

Phelan Wins in California

Washington, Nov. 4.—Democratic national committee headquarters informed President Wilson early to-day its advisers showed the election of James D. Phelan, Democrat, to the Senate from California and the re-election of Senators Shively and Thomas Democrats, of Indiana and Colorado.

Newlands' Seat in Danger
Carson, Nov. 4.—Samuel Platt, Republican, for United States Senator, continued to increase his lead over Francis G. Newlands, Democrat, in the returns to-day from yesterday's election in Nevada. Fifty-eight precincts out of 240 in the State gave Platt 3,179; Newlands 2,861.

BARGAIN PICKING CONTEST RESULTS

Spirited Response to Call for Opinions of Best Offers on Educational Page

MANY MEN AND WOMEN COMPETE

Winners Selected by Judges This Week Are Charles W. Young, Mrs. E. B. Sprow and Anna S. Cubbison—Letters Published

The results of the Star-Independent bargain picking contest to-day take their place with the returns of the State election, in calling for their share of public attention. The voting in the bargain contest has been spirited, many men and women responding to the call in last Wednesday's issue to select what they considered the best offer on the "Bargain and Educational Page."

The judges have selected the following winners this week: Charles W. Young, 578 Showers avenue, first prize of $3; Mrs. E. B. Sprow, Highspire, second prize of $2, and Anna S. Cubbison, 109 Hoerner street, third prize of $1. The winning letters follow:

First Prize Winner

Bargain Editor:
Dear Sir—After reading every bar-

Continued on Ninth Page.

WANTS EXTRA TRAFFIC COP

Bowman Has Plan to Put One at Thirtieth and Market

City Commissioner Harry Bowman presented a property holder's petition in the meeting of the City Commissioners this afternoon requesting that a traffic policeman be stationed at Thirtieth and Market streets. This would mean the appointment of an extra policeman and Commissioner Bowman said he would introduce legislation carrying the salary of this extra man in the annual budget.

A bill carrying an appropriation of $3,000 out of the $25,000 bridge loan recently legalized, was presented by Commissioner Lynch for small concrete bridges over the Paxton creek at Mulberry, Walnut, Reily and Cumberland streets.

A. KREIDER WINS BY 10,000

Re-elected to Congress in This District—Dauphin County Gives Him 7,164 Plurality

By Associated Press.

Aaron S. Kreider's plurality in this district which includes Dauphin, Lebanon and Cumberland counties, will be in the neighborhood of 10,000. Estimated pluralities in Cumberland give him a lead of 600, and in Lebanon a lead of 2,000 over the next highest man, D. L. Kaufman, Democrat.

The Republican candidate's plurality in Dauphin county is 7,164.

MCCORMICK A GOOD LOSER

"You Bet, I'm Ready to Fight Again," He Says in Cheery Greeting

Vance C. McCormick, the defeated candidate for Governor, is not in the least cast down over his defeat. He was at his office shortly before noon to-day, and had a cheery word for all. It was evident that he is not in the least affected by the result so far as his cheery good nature is concerned.

"I am feeling first rate," was Mr. McCormick's answer to the Star-Independent reporter's greeting.

"Are you ready for another fight?" "You bet, (most emphatically said); they can't down us that way."

In addition to the statement he gave out last night, Mr. McCormick to-day sent a congratulatory message to his successful opponent, Dr. Brumbaugh, which read:

"I want to send you my sincere congratulations."

Mr. McCormick, after the very strenuous life he has been leading on the stump since last March, during which he visited every county in the State, traveled thousands of miles, met thousands of voters and shook thousands of hands, will take a rest for a while, but his manner indicates that he is as full of vigor as ever.

The Result in Indiana
Indianapolis, Nov. 4.—Incomplete returns early to-day in Indiana indicate the re-election of United States Senator B. F. Shively by a plurality of about 20,000 and of the entire Democratic State ticket, headed by Homer L. Cook for Secretary of State. The Progressive ran a poor third. Indiana's solid Democratic Congressional delegation was broken, the Republicans winning two districts with two doubtful.

WAR SCENES SHIFT FROM LAND TO SEA

Daring Exploits of Kaiser's Warships Now Attracting Attention of Germany's Foes

DASH CLOSE TO ENGLISH COAST

Turkey's Battleships Reported to Have Sunk the Russian Battleship Sinop—Turkish Ambassador to France Asks for His Passports

London, Nov. 4, 10.10 A. M.—With the pressure of the Franco-Belgian sea coast relieved, interest in London has again been diverted from land operations to naval movements.

The daring dash of a German squadron to within ten miles of the north-east coast of England indicates that the prolonged inactivity of the larger units of the German fleet has been broken by a raid on the coast of England, but much satisfaction is expressed that the cruiser Halcyon, by the clever seamanship of her commander, escaped from a tight corner practically uninjured.

The retiring German squadron dropped floating mines in its track, and this delayed pursuit. These tactics are exciting some criticism here but experts realize that the mines in question were probably of a type recognized as legitimate by the Hague convention.

Amsterdam, Nov. 4, Via London, 11.40 A. M.—The "Vossische Zeitung" publishes a dispatch from Sofia saying Turkish warships have sunk the Russian battleship Sinop.

Paris, Nov. 4, 3.10 P. M.—Rifaat Pasha, the Turkish Ambassador to France, according to the Havas News Agency, asked for his passports, which were handed to him at Bordeaux this morning.

GERMANS REPORTED TO HAVE SUNK AN AUSTRIAN CRUISER

Tokio, Nov. 4, 3.30 P. M.—In a statement issued here to-day the Navy Department says it believes that the Germans at Tsing-Tau have sunk the Austrian cruiser Kaiserine Elizabeth, which took refuge in that harbor soon after Japan declared war on Germany. It is also thought the Germans have destroyed the floating docks.

JAPS TAKE 26 GERMAN GUNS, 800 PRISONERS, IS REPORT

Tokio, Japan, Nov. 4, 7.30 P. M.—A dispatch received here from Tsing-Tau, in Shantung province, China, says the Japanese forces before Tsing-Tau, the fortified position of the German territory of Kiaochow, have destroyed 26 German guns and captured 800 prisoners.

The Japanese artillery is now attacking the German trenches and the wire entanglements before them.

Call For Bank Statements
Washington, Nov. 4.—The Comptroller of the Currency to-day issued a call for the condition of all national banks at the close of business Saturday, October 31.