

HEADACHE, COLD OR SOUR STOMACH, REGULATE YOUR BOWELS--10 CENTS

Sick headaches! Always trace them to lazy liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or a sick stomach. Poisonous, constipated matter, gases and bile generated in the bowels, instead of being carried out of the system, is reabsorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, sickening headache. Cascarets will remove the cause by stimulating the liver, making the bile and constipation poison move on and out of the bowels. One taken to-night straightens you out by morning—a 10-cent box will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular, and make you feel bright and cheerful for months. Children need Cascarets, too.

GAVE OLD RELIC TO SOCIETY

Martin Zorger Presented Old Sausage Grinder to City Association

Martin Zorger, dealer in second-hand goods on South Front street, has presented the Dauphin County Historical Society a valuable and interesting relic in the form of a meat grinder such as our grandfathers used at country butchery. The old instrument is said to be 100 years old and is in a good state of preservation. The frame or case enclosing the cylinder is hinged and is made of hard wood cut from the solid material. The revolving cylinder is also made of hard wood into which steel cutters are inserted in the form of screw or spiral. Steel cutters are also inserted inside the case which conform with those on the cylinder. The crank and handles are both made of wood, evidently in a country blacksmith shop.

DANDRUFFY HEADS BECOME HAIRLESS

Scalp Dries—Chokes Out the Hair and Prevents Its Growth

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will be silky, fluffy, lustrous, soft and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails. Adv.

ROTARIANS GUESTS AT THE BRELSFORD PLANT

Luncheon Served There, With Mr. Hibler as Host—Address Made by Dr. William C. Sigmund, of U. S. Agricultural Department

The members of the Harrisburg Rotary Club, many of them taking a guest with them, began to arrive at the plant of the Brelsford Packing & Storage Company, Seventh and North streets, at 6.45 o'clock yesterday afternoon. They were immediately shown to the second floor where meats of various kinds, carefully prepared for luncheon, were being served. There was an abundance of good things to eat, and with it an unlimited amount of excellent coffee.

DR. WILLIAM C. SIGMUND.

Addressed the Rotary Club at Meeting Held Last Evening

The cold-storage, home-dressed and western-dressed meat rooms were next visited, and from there the party went to the slaughter department, where three fancy young heifers, weighing from 400 to 450 each, were killed and dressed.

The meeting of the Rotary Club was then called to order by Mr. W. H. Es-sick, president; Howard C. Fry, secretary, being also present. After a number of the routine matters had been passed upon, Mr. Christ A. Hibler, the host, was called to the front, who, after extending expressions of pleasure at the large attendance of representative men, introduced Dr. William C. Sigmund, of the Bureau of Animal Industry of the United States Agricultural Department.

Dr. Sigmund revived the work of the Department and gave an exhaustive statement of the purposes of inspection, also the careful and complete methods used before and after slaughter, showing that the present inspection is satisfactory to the domestic as well as the foreign trade.

Numerous questions were asked of Dr. Sigmund in regard to the destruction of condemned animals, and unhealthful food. The various Acts of Congress in relation thereto were discussed and explained. The educational features of the meeting were very interesting and instructive. Inspected animals and passed food at this plant are marked No. 291, and the sanitary condition of every part of the establishment appealed to all the members of the Rotary Club and guests. Early election returns were announced and the meeting adjourned.

Those who desire a first class duel must be prepared to pay 2,000 francs—80 pounds—to the foe. But for that they are entitled to have umpires, a jury of honor, a famous swordsman as director of combat, and a reconciliation on the field of honor to the accompaniment of a brass band or stringed orchestra. The sanguine deputy estimates that such a tax, loyally imposed and exacted, will bring over 1,000,000 pounds a year to the exchequer.—London Globe.

Conflicting "What's the news in there?" a colleague asked of the advertising manager. "Matter enough. The fools have placed Mme. Soprano's testimonial for a cold cure on the same page with the announcement that she had a sore throat and couldn't sing."—Topeka Journal.

The Incentive Mrs. Brown (in kitchen, smilingly)—"M. Everything is so brightly shining. Olga! I fear you're spending too much time in cleaning."

FRANCE MAY TAX DUELS One of the newly elected Parisian deputies says he intends to propose in the French chamber the imposition of a tax on duels. His argument will be that duels are a form of advertisement and as such are liable to taxation as posters and prospectuses. He suggests that duels shall be divided into three classes—third, second and first, in ascending order of taxable magnitude. For a third class duel, with the ordinary four seconds, a couple of general practitioners and a scratch in the forearm, the tax will be 50 francs. The procs-verbaux, or official accounts of the duel, must be written on paper stamped with a six-penny stamp.

WAVE OF JOY SWEEPS OVER CAPITOL HILL

State Officeholders, Returning From Their Home Towns, Where They Went to Vote, Are Happy Over Result of the Election

A wave of joy swept over Capitol Hill to-day, and from the most rabid Republican partisan down to the humblest Bull Moose who happens to hold office everybody seemed happy.

Among the Capitol attaches who would have been likely to be ousted had there been a change in the political complexion of the State administration, and the utmost good feeling prevailed, and the congratulations floated through the corridors from the ground floor to the fifth stanza near the roof. It is a fact that the promise of the Democratic candidates that if they were elected they would "clean out the Capitol from garret to roof" had a good many of the attaches guessing and apprehensive of losing their jobs, and they were simply overjoyed at the turn affairs have taken.

None of the department heads except Adjutant General Stewart was at the Capitol. Governor Tener will return this evening, and the other heads will not get here before to-morrow.

Speaking of the result of the election the same opinion was voiced by deputy Auditor General Willock and Cashier Crichton, of the State Treasury, the two most prominent Bull Moosers on the Hill to-day. It was that the election yesterday in Pennsylvania was "the expression of the people of the United States against the administration of President Wilson."

Mr. Crichton intimated that he had seen the storm coming when he left home for Harrisburg yesterday and had told his Washington party friends in Tioga county to look out for it. Adjutant General Stewart, who campaigned for the Republican ticket, was in great good humor over the result. "The result in the entire country," said General Stewart, "but particularly in Pennsylvania, showed a lack of faith by the people of this country in the Democratic administration. It gave them the opportunity to correct the error of two years ago and they were quick to avail themselves of it, as they have done heretofore. Dr. Brumbaugh will make a splendid Governor, who will carry out his pledges and do what he promises."
