COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Ladies! Try This! Darkens Beautifully and Nobody Can Tell—Brings Back Its Gloss and Thickness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness.

SHRINKAGE IN PIG IRON PRODUCTION CONTINUES

Export Trade in Wire Products Still Good—Horse Shoe Works Will Run Full Until February on European Orders

New York, Nov. 5.—"The Iron Age" says that taking the election results as in no small measure a popular expression on the existing tariff law, the steel trade finds encouragement in them.

Shrinkage in production continues, and November output will show a slight decline from October. Some of the smaller steel companies in the Central West have reduced salaries as well as the wages of mill workers and some Pennsylvania companies have similar reductions under consideration.

Our pig iron statistics show how the industry has been receding. In October production was 1,783,945 tons, or 57,578 tons a day, against 1,882,577 tons in September, or 62,753 tons a day.

Many steel works furnaces have been blown out and the recent increases in pig iron stocks of the steel companies are likely to add more furnaces to the idle list.

The low state of consumers' stocks of finished material, of which one indication is the sustained volume of small lot buying from jobbers' warehouses, shows that new orders to the mills are under the rate of the country's real consumption and point to larger operations not far ahead.

The present paradox of generally sustained prices and pitifully small demand may be followed by that of yielding prices and larger buying.

Steel pipe manufacturers have made a reduction in black and galvanized standard pipe. Discounts were lengthened one point which would be close to 2 1/2 per cent.

Export trade in wire products is still good and there is fresh inquiry for barb wire. Horse shoe works will be able to run full until February on European orders.

A Southern company has taken 7,000 tons of billets for England, and more than half of it has been shipped.

Partly through attractive offers of Southern iron, foundries are taking more interest in contracts for 1915.

In Eastern Pennsylvania there has been a better business in low phosphorus pig iron, but the price has gone off, with the appearance of a new competitor in the field, being close to $20, Philadelphia.

And Here Is Another Amusing Yarn Attributed to the Great Lincoln Fund

Many and various are the amusing stories attributed to Abraham Lincoln, and, like all good story-tellers, he became the butt of many funny yarns himself.

In the noise and confusion Lincoln did not exactly understand him, but with his usual desire to make everybody welcome, he turned to his secretary, who stood near, and said:

"Here, Mr. Hay, I want you to meet Major Shurtz."

It was some time before Mr. Lincoln could be made to understand that the man did not claim to be Major Shurtz, but that he had said, "I made your shirts," which sounds very much the same.

It was Lincoln who said that the most important book in the library is the Bible. Lincoln was a great student, and much of his learning came from what we term "every day" books.

GAS FROM COKE IN MILLS

Carnegie Company Applies Most Important Device

Pittsburgh, Nov. 5.—As a result of successful experiments, the Carnegie Steel Company announced here yesterday that a plan had been perfected for using the waste gas from coke ovens in the big open hearth furnaces, and that three of the latter were now supplied with fuel that had formerly been wantonly wasted.

Hundreds of dollars daily will be saved at the plant here by the use of the waste gas, which is conveyed to three furnaces through sewer-like channels. Heretofore it has been necessary to make gas for furnace fuel, the natural gas supply being insufficient.

Billions of feet of gas are wasted yearly in the coke ovens in this district, but waste gas may now be piped to steel furnaces and used for fuel under the Carnegie company's system.

One Way to View It

Queen Victoria made a visit to the Trossachs in 1859. On the road between Callender and Kilmnog the Laird of Lony displayed a number of banners bearing words of welcome. But on the return to Callender the mottoes were indescribable through the backs of the banners. Some one suggested that with a little extra expenditure "Welcome, Victoria," might have been inscribed on both sides.

Corrected

RARE BOOKS SOLD AT AUCTION

Choice Items From Two Collections Bring Good Prices

New York, Nov. 5.—Books from the collection formed by the late Albert Stickney, of this city, were sold by the Anderson Auction Company yesterday.

A copy of the first issue of the scarce John Stockdale edition of "The Fables of Aesop," London, 1793, was sold to J. C. McCoy for $48. The original Kamashastran Society's edition of the "Arabian Nights," 1852 and 1853, went to M. M. Breslow for $125. William Benedict paid $205 for a fine copy of the first octavo edition of John J. Audubon's "Birds of America," New York, 1849, and 1840 and 1844.

Gabriel Weiss obtained for $376, a large paper copy of the Riverside Press edition of Charles Dickens's works, and for $50, "The Romances of Dumas," with plates on Japan paper.

"WHITECAPPERS" THREATEN

Issue Demands for Reduced Texas Cotton Acreage

Terrell, Tex., Nov. 5.—Monroe Drew, editor of the Kaufman "Herald," received a notice signed "Captain No. 4, Whitecappers," which he was ordered to publish in his paper under penalty of having his office burned.

The notice demanded that all farmers reduce cotton acreage two-thirds, under threat of punishment. Drew gave the notice to officers.

J. C. Ernest, a farmer, received a letter from alleged "Whitecappers" demanding that he reduce his cotton acreage.

HAYRIDE BREAKS A NECK

Load Tips Over With Farm Employee on Top

Bryn Mawr, Pa., Nov. 5.—Thrown violently to the ground when a large hay wagon on which he was riding overturned yesterday, Patrick McCallion, an employe of Rudolph Mills, at Bryn Mawr, was killed when his neck broke.

McCallion was seated on top of the huge load of hay when the wagon, making a turn out Bryn Mawr avenue, struck a curb. The vehicle and its load were so topheavy that they plunged over.

SPARES MOTHER OF EIGHT

Train Hurts Her Down High Embankment Unhurt

Shenandoah, Pa., Nov. 5.—While Mrs. Sophia Schmelick, a mother of eight children, was attempting to cross the Lehigh Valley tracks yesterday, she was struck by a fast freight and hurled down a 25-foot embankment, and, strange to say, after a little rest, was able to walk home, only slightly injured.

How she escaped death both times is mystifying.

Household Economy

How to Have the Best Cough Remedy and Save $2 by Making It at Home

Cough medicines, as a rule contain a large quantity of plain syrup. A pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good syrup as money can buy.

Then get your druggist 2 1/2 ounces Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with sugar syrup. This gives you, at a cost of only 54 cents, a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $3.50—a clear saving of nearly $2. Full directions with Pinex. It keeps perfectly and tastes good.

It takes hold of the usual cough or chest cold at once and conquers it in 24 hours. Splendid for whooping cough, bronchitis and winter coughs.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes the inflamed membranes in the case of a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with guaiacol, and has been used for generations to heal inflamed membranes of the throat and chest.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.
