Son Injured; Pather Sues
Charles H. Aerie, Sr., has brought suit against Fred W. Darrow to recover $6,500 which he claims is due as remuneration for injuries sustained by his son, Charles, 4 years old, who, he alleges, was run over by Darrow's team and badly injured. Aerie claims $1,500 is due the boy and he should have $5,000 for the loss of his son's services. The father claims that the lad is permanently injured and that he, therefore, will be deprived of the regular financial income which would be forthcoming had the boy not been physically incapacitated. cally incapacitated.

the Japanese had 200 killed and 878 wounded.

The official communication issued by the government to-day states that the bombardment of Tsing-Tau continues. It also states aeroplanes are dropping bombs and circulars into the besieged port. The circulars warn the inhabitants not to participate in the military operations in any way.

The Japanese general staff explains that the assault on the main position are Tsing Tau, the Hitis, Bismarck and Moltke forts, must be deferred until after the capture of the five forts south of Haipo river, where, behind strong defenses, the German artillery and infantry are making a determined stand.

These five forts are 240 feet from the Japanese trenchs.
