BUSINESS BEFORE AND AFTER ELECTION

It is illuminating to note how some of the newspapers that a few brief days ago, before election, were insisting that the business of the country is headed straight for the rocks of destruction, have suddenly begun emphasizing the fact that nothing of the sort is true.

It is encouraging and gratifying, in a way, to see such journals joining now in the movement to increase confidence in the financial and industrial institutions of the country in order to help business, the underlying conditions of which have all along been sound.

Indeed the newspapers that were throwing cold water on business activities during the recent political campaign were doing so at big risk to their own interests. Business men do not relish having handicaps placed on their activities to aid a political cause.

Thoughtful readers, however, will have difficulty in figuring out the consistency of those journals which before election said the tariff was ruining the nation and which now are saying that business is picking up everywhere, true as the latter assertion is. For it must be remembered that we have the same tariff now as before election and the Democratic party, which is responsible for that tariff, still is in control of both the branches of Congress and has no intention of repealing the tariff law.

ANOTHER THEORY ON DIVORCE

The divorce evil, as it has come to be called, has been accounted for in many ways. It has been attributed to a hundred and one conditions, and all sorts of changes have been recommended that the divorce courts may become less industrious.

No harm is done by advancing numerous supposed reasons for the growing demand for divorces in so many states of the Union. Some of the theories may some time aid in getting at the root of the matter and consequently in reducing the number of separations of married couples.

frequently families move the larger would the young people's circles of acquaintance become, giving them greater opportunity to choose companions of the opposite sex,—life companions if matters reach a sufficiently serious stage,—from among a larger number of possibilities.

The theory that the increase of divorces is due to families moving around from place to place too often to allow the young people to form prolonged friendships, may be fundamentally a true one.

It is a hard season for tigers,—both of the Tammany and Princeton varieties.

It is remarkable how much more the tariff handicaps business before election than afterward.

Sympathy for the Belgian sufferers reaches the American heart, but, what is more practical, it also reaches the American pocketbook.

Charles F. Murphy, the boss of Tammany Hall, who is in Hot Springs, resting after the drubbing his organization got in the recent election in New York state, declined an invitation to preach last night to a colored congregation at the famous Virginia resort.

TOLD IN LIGHTER VEIN

Diogenes, at length convinced of the uselessness of his lantern, went on his search without it. He returned triumphant.

"Eureka!" he shouted. "I have found honest men by the score!"

MILLIONS IN IT

George W. Perkins, discussing in New York the iniquitous war prices, said: "France, under the heel of an invading army, did not raise the prices of her bread, her wheat, her milk or other necessities a single cent.

WONDERFUL RESEMBLANCE

A young woman was recently introduced to a voluble old lady as "sister to So-and-So, the artist." Instantly the old lady exclaimed: "I should have known the relationship, my dear, by the semblance. Why, it is perfectly startling. I never saw two faces more exactly alike in contour and—"

AMBIGUOUS

Uncle Sol threw aside the letter he was reading and uttered an exclamation of impatience. "Doggone!" he cried, "why can't people be more explicit?"

EXTRAVAGANT

Clerk—"Mr. Goldbug, as I am to marry, I would like more salary." Boss—"How much more do you want?" Clerk—"Ten dollars a week."

WINTER AS AN ALLY

"Whose ally will winter be?" demands an armchair strategist. Our guess is the coal man.—Boston Transcript.

SECOND TO A BIRD

He came home and found his young wife in tears. "What do you think has happened?" she cried. "I left the cage open and our canary has flown away."

STUDYING HISTORY

"My dear, you ought to pass up frivolous things and take an interest in deep subjects. Take history, for instance. Here is an interesting item. Gessler, the tyrant, put up a hat for the Swiss to salute."

COLOUR DOESN'T MATTER

Here's a health to the lass with the merry black eyes! Here's a health to the lass with the blue ones. —William Winter.

NOT ALWAYS SO

She—"We women have to stand a lot." He—"Not in the street car if you're pretty."—Boston Transcript.

NATURAL MISTAKE

"Mrs. Lotarot, won't you draw some pictures for me?" "Why, my dear child, I can't draw." "Yes, you can; father says you're a designing woman." —Buffalo Express.

Tongue-End Topics

He Found the Doctor

A foreigner whose infant son is receiving treatment at the county hospital, under Dr. Hyman B. Wiener, one of the county physicians, went out in search of the doctor,—instead of going direct to the hospital—to get information concerning the condition of the baby.

"Here is doctor. You the man I want. I knew I'd find you."

He then explained that he had been looking for a little man who is stout and wears spectacles. The foreigner learned the baby is on a fair way to recovery.

Deer Plentiful This Year

Deer in the country to the south of Harrisburg are said to be plentiful this year. Up at the Mount Alto sanatorium, just within sight of the buildings, is a section of State forestry land that has been reforested with young pine trees.

Buck Leaps Across Road

On his way home through the South mountains the other evening State Forestry Commissioner Conklin was proceeding slowly by automobile along the road above Mount Holly, looking at the forest fires on the hillside.

Flynn Is "Father of House"

Representative John M. Flynn, of Elk county, has again been re-elected to a seat in the House, and this re-election makes him the "Father of the House," he having seen the longest continuous service.

TECH EASILY WINS FROM ALLENTOWN HIGH 48 TO 0

Maroon and Grey Attacked So Fast That Offense Was Bowed—Beck Made Two Long Runs Around End for Scores

The game Saturday on Island Park between Technical High school and Allentown High was easily won by the local team with a score of 48 to 0.

After the first quarter of the game Tech scored so fast that Allentown was at times bewildered.

Hartman, Allentown's plucky centre, was hurt early in the game. Allentown was compelled to substitute Walter, a green man, for Hartman.

Beck, as usual had the spotlight focused on him during most of the game.

Touchdowns, Beck, 3; Beach, Harris, 2. Goals from touchdowns, Kutz, 6. Quarters, two of 10 minutes, one of ten minutes and one of 8. Referee, Cook, Dickinson; umpire, Cannon, Lehigh; head linesman, Moffitt, Penn State.

Substitutions, Tech: Phillipelli for Beck, Snyder for Gless, McKay for Kutz, Leh for Fitzpatrick; Allentown, Walter for Hartman, Cohen for Snyder, Rummel for Emerson.

Ruth Roye

At Orpheum, Is a "Genius of Ragtime" This Week

RUTH ROYE

Where is the man, woman or child who doesn't enjoy the happy swing of ragtime?

There's a little girl at the Orpheum theatre this week who has such a clever way of singing the popular songs of the day that her managers have every confidence that she will help to give the vaudeville house one of the biggest weeks of its season.

Miss Roye isn't exactly the headliner at the Orpheum this week because there's a musical comedy act there called "The Lawn Party" that occupies the distinguished position of top-liner, and there's a big troupe of Arabs there too, but Ruth says she's going to give each of these big acts a run for their money and she'll make the town give her credit for being the headliner anyway.

A girl who can so endear herself to the hearts of vaudeville fans that she remains in one theatre for a whole week ought to be able to make folks sit up and listen all right, and that's what Ruth proposes to do in Harrisburg.

Two Cars in One

In the Chalmers Coupelet you really get two cars for the price of one—in service, in comfort, in style.

With top up, you have an exclusive, enclosed two-passenger car—ideal for business or pleasure during the bad weather months.

With top folded down, you have a stylish, snappy roadster—seating two comfortably and capable of carrying three.

The Chalmers Coupelet represents a distinctive advance in automobile body building. Ingenious in design, it is at the same time beautiful in lines and elegant in finish and appointments.

The body is of the genuine streamline type with graceful sweeping curves from radiator to rear deck.

The folding top is of the finest leather. It retains its good looks and will not crack nor sag.

The interior of the Coupelet is beautifully upholstered in leather with handsome trimmings and top lining of imported cloth.

Mechanically, the Coupelet assures you perfect satisfaction. The chassis is that of the famous Chalmers "Light Six" which has already made good in the hands of over 4,000 owners.

For power, flexibility, smoothness and speed, the Chalmers "Light Six" is not equalled by any car at anywhere near its price.

Come and see the Chalmers Coupelet and convince yourself of its wonderful value.
