THE EXHIBITION SPACE TOO SMALL

Eighty-two Companies Will Be Represented at Welfare and Efficiency Show

FROM SHOVELS TO MOTOR CARS

Both Halls Over Chestnut Street Market House Will Be Filled—Much Moving Machinery Will Be Shown by Firms From All Parts of Country

Eighty-two companies will have space in the Chestnut street auditorium during the week of November 16, a part of the exhibit, an important attendant feature of the welfare and efficiency which will be held in this city at that time. Harrisburg is unfortunate in not having a larger hall but with considerable planning the two halls over the Chestnut street market house were made to do.

The products which these companies will bring to Harrisburg are some of the latest and best safety appliances, sanitary equipment, and the latest and best devices for the more efficient and economical administration of the factory, office and home. The best industrial concerns all over the country will be represented.

There will be plenty of moving exhibits and an automobile division has been added and the director of exhibits claims that he will have anything from shovels to the latest in motor car design on hand. A small charge of ten cents will be made.

The Engineers' Society has charge of the exhibits for the Department of Labor and Industry, the committee on exhibits consisting of J. V. W. Reynolds, Robert H. Irons and Paul Gendell. A list of the exhibitors together with what they will exhibit follows:

FIRST STREET DEMONSTRATION OF STOUGH CAMPAIGN TO-NIGHT

Professor D. L. Spooner, Who Will Lead Parade of Young People to Tabernacle
The first street demonstration in connection with the Stough evangelistic campaign will be made to-night at 7 o'clock, when thousands of young people representing the young people's societies of local churches will gather at the Market Square Presbyterian church and march, headed by the West End band and accompanying the instrumental music with their voices, to the tabernacle, where seats are to be reserved for them. The route will be down Market and up Fourth. The singing will be led by Professor D. L. Spooner, musical director of the Stough party, whose control of the voices in the tabernacle chorus has excited much admiration during the week he has been here.
