

NEWS OF STEELTON

ALL BUT ONE COUNCILMAN VOTE TO RETAIN JONES

Action of the Steelton Council in Reinstating Suspended Policeman Is Taken Despite the Opposition of Burgess Wigfield

Borough Council put one over on Burgess Wigfield last evening, when, with but one dissenting voice, it was decided to retain Patrolman Jones, who was suspended in July by the Burgess, reinstated in August by the Police committee of Council, given a two weeks' vacation a short time ago and will now be back on the job.

The causes assigned by Burgess Wigfield when he first suspended the policeman were insubordination and appearing for duty while under the influence of liquor. After the Police committee of Council had given the suspended bluecoat a hearing it reinstated him. The matter was finally brought to the attention of Council and it was decided by that body, after an opinion from Borough Solicitor Wickenshaw, that the first proceedings were unlawful and ordered another investigation made by the Police committee. The action taken last night was upon the report of the findings of the committee at its last examination.

Last night Chairman Nalley, of the Police committee, ventured his opinion that James Gordon and William Liekman, two of the witnesses, were prejudiced against the patrolman, that a foreign witness was excused when the events on which he testified occurred and that another witness furnished testimony that had no bearing on the case. He also criticized the methods used by the Burgess in gathering evidence against Jones. The foreigner, who was said to have been excused, was the bridegroom at a wedding during the celebration of which some of the offenses were said to have been committed.

During this celebration, Chairman Nalley said, there were more intoxicants than were sold in any hotel in the borough in two weeks. The "refreshments," he said, included 15 barrels of beer, eight cases of bottled beer and $38.50 worth of whiskey.

Councilman Wagenbach asked why there were four policemen at the wed- dinglebration and why it was necessary for any of them to go into the cellar. "Something is not quite right," he said.

A vote on the motion of Chairman Nalley to retain the patrolman was taken, and the only dissenting vote audible was that of Councilman Reisch.

Following the vote Burgess Wigfield, given the privilege of the floor, de- clared:

"I want efficiency and the taxpayers want efficiency in the police force, and I never thought that I would have to fight so hard to get it. I want to say that I am going to control the police department and have efficiency if it is the last thing I do on earth."

In his report last evening Fire Chief Shupp recommended that some arrangement should be made with the commissioners of Swatara township to pay the local fire department for its services in giving fire protection to the township districts adjoining the borough. The sense of his communication was that, although the local firemen have always been willing to fight fires in the township districts, they have received no assistance from the township and, on the contrary, have been hindered in their operations.

In recent years the local department has handled several big fires on Mohr street, in Swatara township, and at one of these fires it was necessary for the firemen to turn a stream into the crowd to prevent the onlookers from standing on the hose and hampering them. A copy of the part of the fire chief's report bearing on the matter will be sent to the township commission.

The ordinance establishing a grade on Reading street between Pine street and Adams street was passed on second reading. The traffic ordinance and the ordinance providing for the removal of snow were reported still in the hands of committees. The proposed changes in the system on street lighting were not taken up last evening.

Councilman Henderson reported that the street paving had been about completed and that a few details yet remained to be added. The work has proven satisfactory and will be accepted when these details are finished.

The Perils of Pauline—Ninth Episode

Harry has had such a strenuous time keeping Pauline from meeting with an accident that he has made her promise to be good till the end of the year. She fully intends to keep her promise but it seems impossible. When some friends come to visit her Harry asks to propose something harmless. In talking it over Pauline gets the idea that she would like to be a moving picture artist. She goes to Pathé Frères and finds that Chief Director Gasnier is about to start a new photo play called "Paradise Lost." The hair-raising experiences which befell Pauline are thrillingly portrayed in motion pictures at the Standard Theatre to-night.

Miss Wilcox, the visiting nurse employed by the Steelton Civic Club, will be in her office from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. from 12:30 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.

COMMON PLEAS COURT

Judge Albert W. Johnson, of Union County, Presiding

Lebanon, Nov. 10.—Judge Albert W. Johnson, President Judge of the courts of Union county, came here yesterday from his home in Lewisburg and is especially presiding at the special term of November common pleas court in the trial of the suit of ejectment brought by Eliza Uriah, of Myerstown, this county, against the Calcite Quarry Company. Originally Mrs. Uriah executed to John A. Bollman and Joseph Reinhard, of this city, a 10-year lease on a limestone quarry tract of about 20 acres in Jackson township. About the same time the Calcite Quarry Company took over an adjoining quarry tract and later Bollman and Reinhard assigned their lease to the Calcite company. Mrs. Uriah claims the Calcite company has forfeited all its rights by reason of its failure to operate the quarry. The company contends that it has, since the assignment of the lease, considered the two quarries to be one operation, which has worked regularly. Before his elevation to the bench Judge Henry had drawn up the original Uriah lease.

COUNCIL AND MAYOR CONFER

Chief Zimmerman Advocates Special

Policemen at Places of Amusements

Lebanon, Nov. 10.—Councilman and

Mayor John P. Longenecker and Police Chief John G. Zimmerman yesterday discussed the need of special policemen in this city. It was advocated by Chief Zimmerman that special policemen be placed on duty at all places of amusement and pointed to the fact that in the majority of cities po-troopers are stationed at theatre entrances and in some places are on duty

in dance halls.

It is the idea of Chief Zimmerman

to regulate fare dancing in a manner

similar to that employed in a number of cities where the plan has worked out successfully. This would mean that girls under a certain age would not be allowed in a dance hall and that dancing

would be regulated.

SHOOTS AT GIRL KILLS SELF

Rejected Suitor Misses Mark Till He

Turns Pistol

New York, Nov. 10.—Because Ida

Schlaifer, 22 years old, refused to accept his attentions, John Marty, 31 years old, 14 Eckert avenue, Newark, N. J., fired three shots at her last evening near her home at Wheeler Point road and Bay avenue. None of the bullets struck her and she escaped.

Believing he had wounded the girl,

Marty shot himself to death. Marty was employed as a clerk in the Lehigh

Valley transfer.
