COLLECTORS NOW READY TO RECEIVE SPECIAL TAX

H. A. Vollmer Is Division Deputy Receiver for Dauphin, Perry and Snyder Counties—Penalty Is Imposed for Neglect

The special taxes imposed by the act of Congress of October 22, 1914, became due on the first day of November. These taxes will be aid for eight months, from November 1, 1914, to June 30, 1915, on account of fiscal year ending June 30.

Collector of Internal Revenue Kirkendall has instructed his field deputies to make a thorough canvass of their divisions and secure from each person liable to the tax a sworn return on special form 11A. The collector desires to call attention to the law which requires all persons liable to the special tax to make a return within the month that their liability occurred, that is, the month of November.

Failing to make such return in time renders the person liable to an additional tax of fifty per cent, and to a specific penalty of not more than $500. Therefore, taxpayers, if not called upon in person, should write to their division deputy or to Fred C. Kirkendall, collector, Lancaster, Pa., asking for a blank form 11A. Collector Kirkendall desires that no one should have to pay the penalty for neglect, but the law is mandatory and the penalty will have to be collected if incurred. The division deputy for Dauphin, Perry and Snyder counties is H. A. Vollmer, Postoffice building, Room 20, who will furnish all applicants with form 11A.

The special taxes imposed are: Brokers, 330; pawnbrokers, 550; commercial brokers, 250; custom house brokers, 150; theatre managers, concert halls, $25 to $100 (according to seating capacity); other public exhibitions or shows, $10; each bowling alley and billiard table, $5; commission merchants, $20; dealers in manufactured tobacco whose sales exceed $200 per year, $4.80; dealers in leaf tobacco, $6 to $24; manufacturers of tobacco, $6 to $24.95; manufacturers of cigars, $3 to $24.95; manufacturers of cigarettes, $12 to $24.95.

TRAIN MANGLES TWO GIRLS

On the Tracks After a Dance, They Are Run Down
 Mahanoy City, Pa., Nov. 11.—Run down by a fast freight east of the station here before daylight, Miss Annie DeNatis, aged 18 years, was killed, and Miss Julia Nish, 32, so badly crushed that her recovery at the hospital is doubtful.

The girls lived in Gilberton, and, missing the last trolley car after attending a dance here Monday night, went to the station to wait for the "sleeper." They strolled on the track, and their mangled bodies were found by Patrick Murphy.

MORPHINE SAVES CASH

Burglars Evidently "Doped" as They Try to Plunder
 Chester, Pa., Nov. 11.—"It was morphine that saved my money," said William C. Kelly, whose drug store was robbed yesterday, the second time within a week.

He found two men lying on the floor when he opened his store; thought they were intoxicated, and ejected them. Later he discovered that cigars, cigarettes and alcoholic supplies were missing.

Looking for his money bag, which he kept secreted in a drawer that contained a supply of morphine, he found it near where the two men had been overcome by the morphine.
