

JAPANESE TORPEDO BOAT WAS SUNK; MANY OF THE EMDEN'S CREW PERISHED

Tokio, Nov. 11, 2 P. M.—Official announcement is made that torpedo boat No. 33 of the Japanese navy was sunk by a mine early to-day at the mouth of the Kiao Chow bay while dragging for mines. A majority of the crew was rescued.

Other torpedo boats made an attempt to tow No. 33 into shallow water but failed. Six men on board No. 33 were killed or wounded and three are missing.

Many of the men aboard the German cruiser Emden which was beached and burned on Cocos Island, in the Indian ocean, after a fight with the Australian cruiser Sydney, were killed or wounded in the battle, according to announcement made here to-day.

London, Nov. 11, 10.15 A. M.—The Central News has received a dispatch from its correspondent at Melbourne saying that the gunnery of the German cruiser Emden was good in the beginning of the fight off Cocos Island with the Australian cruiser Sydney, but deteriorated later. The German boat had two funnels shot away and caught fire astern within an hour after the beginning of the engagement. She is now ashore and continues to burn.

SEVERAL ENTRENCHED POSTS OF THE SERBIANS TAKEN

Berlin, Nov. 11.—By Wireless—An official communication issued in Vienna is as follows:

Fighting at the foot of the mountains on the line from Shabatz to Lesnizza, in Serbia, continued into the night and several Serbian entrenched positions were taken. The Austrians continued their advance east of Lesnizza, Krowpani and Ljubovka where the rear guards of the enemy repeatedly were driven back. Many prisoners and one big gun were captured.

Vienna, Nov. 10, Via Amsterdam and London, Nov. 11, 7.15 A. M.—An official communication issued by army headquarters to-day regarding the fighting with the Serbians says:

Severe fighting at the foot of a mountain on the line from Shabatz to Lesnizza continued all day yesterday. Some strongly fortified positions were stormed.

South of Plannina our troops further advanced in the district east of Lesnizza, Krowpani and Ljubovka. Some heavy skirmishes took place with the rear guard of the enemy which was repulsed at all points. Numerous prisoners and some heavy guns were taken.

ATHENS HEARS THAT TURKEY MAY CEASE HOSTILITIES

London, Nov. 11, 3.09 A. M.—A dispatch from Athens to the "Post" says: "According to dispatches received here Turkey is much depressed by the damage already inflicted by Russia and by the unpromising nature of the present situation. She is already repenting her rash adventure and may refrain from further military action."

The general Balkan situation is still obscure with Bulgaria as the key to the situation. Nothing definite is yet known as to the proposed Balkan understanding which, it is admitted in well informed circles, is on the verge of conclusion.

TURKS DEFEAT RUSSIANS ON EGYPTIAN FRONTIER

Berlin, Nov. 11, by Wireless.—The Turks are meeting with much success in their operations on the Caucasus on the Egyptian frontier, according to official announcement made by the Turkish government and given out in Berlin. They have occupied Sheikra fort at El-Arish, Egypt, and taken four field guns from the enemy. The Russians in the Caucasus have been forced to retire to their second lines of defense.

El-Arish is on the Mediterranean near the boundary of Egypt and Palestine. It is of importance as a point of water supply.

FLAMES DESTROY FOOD MEANT FOR THE BELGIANS

London, Nov. 11, 8.50 A. M.—An Amsterdam dispatch to Reuter's Telegram Company says:

Dutchmen returning from Antwerp report that the distress there is very great and that the depots of the American committee for the relief of the Belgians are besieged from 8 o'clock in the morning until 2 o'clock the next morning by the multitude of starving Belgians.

A fire occurred Monday in the railway station at Antwerp destroying forty wagons with provisions and fodder.

ANTI-GERMAN UPRISING IN TURKEY IS REPORTED

London, Nov. 11, 12.04 P. M.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Athens says:

It is learned that a conspiracy has broken out in Constantinople against the Germans and Young Turks. The chief conspirators were arrested and shot.

The population of the Ottoman capital becoming very excited as a result of the Turkish defeats on Sunday visited resentment on a number of German non-commissioned officers whom they attacked.

Say British Had Dum Dums Berlin, Nov. 11, by Wireless.—Lieutenant General Hellingrath, inspector of German military roads with headquarters at Cambrai, in Northern France, is making public exhibitions of dum dum bullets alleged to have been found on British prisoners and also of British rifles equipped with a contrivance to cut off and perforate the points of bullets. The above information was given out officially to the press in Berlin to-day.

LATE WAR NEWS SUMMARY

Continued from First Page. nounced also that they had occupied a fortified position at El-Arish, Egypt, a point on the Mediterranean near boundary of Egypt and Palestine.

Heavy fighting continues on Serbian soil. The Austrian government said that its forces had made several important advances, repulsing the enemy and capturing many prisoners.

Japan is celebrating the fall of Tsing-Tau with an enormous demonstration in Tokio. In recognition of the heroic defense of the Germans, the governor of Tsing-Tau was permitted to retain his sword and maintain a soldiers' honors.

BERLIN REPORTS DEFEAT OF A RUSSIAN BATTALION

Berlin, Nov. 11, by Wireless—Included in the information given out to the press from official quarters is the following:

The rout of a Russian battalion 33 miles northeast of Kalizna in Russian Poland by a detachment of German cavalry appears to have been thorough and while this engagement is without great importance, it shows the offensive spirit of the German troops.

No other news has been received from the eastern arena.

Special dispatches received from Cernowitz, in Bukovina, report important movement of Russian troops and taking place in Bessarabia and East Galicia, apparently inspired by the campaign against Turkey. The Vienna "Freundenblatt" has published a dispatch from Cernowitz saying that the Russians on November 9, threw shells into that city but their batteries speedily were silenced.

An advance guard skirmish before Cernowitz ended in a Russian retreat.

The Turkish government declares with emphasis that the report in the Paris "Temps" of rioting on the part of Turkish Armenians is a flat lie.

It is reported here from Athens that Bulgaria has refused to adopt the anti-Turkish attitude suggested by the Triple Entente Powers in return for the promise of the addition of Adrianople to Bulgarian territory.

SIBERIAN REINFORCEMENTS DEFEAT THE GERMANS

London, Nov. 11, 3 A. M.—Telegraphing from Petrograd to the "Morning Post's" correspondent says:

The Russians are by no means satisfied by their recent victories. In certain quarters the opinion is expressed that the German armies ought never to have been allowed to leave Russia.

At the war council where the plans were laid down, distinguished councilors argued in favor of allowing the Germans to cross the Vistula even if Warsaw had to be abandoned, stating that not one German would then succeed in returning.

From a military point of view their contention was justified, but they were overruled by political arguments and it was decided Warsaw was not to be sacrificed.

The surprising arrival of heavy Siberian reinforcements at Warsaw in the nick of time was part of the strategic scheme, the object being to catch the Germans unawares. Germany's finest forces were there, among them royal princes who brought gala uniforms to celebrate the capture of Warsaw at a ball to which invitations had already been issued. The Siberians had heavy artillery outranging that of the Germans which completely routed the Germans.

Emden's Commander Captured

London, Nov. 11, 2.14 P. M.—Captain Von Muller of the German cruiser Emden which was attacked by the Australian cruiser Sydney and driven ashore in the Cocos Islands where she burned, and Prince Franz Joseph, of Hohenzollern, one of his officers, are prisoners of war and neither is wounded, according to an announcement by the Admiralty this afternoon.

The Admiralty adds that the losses on the Emden are unofficially reported as 200 killed and 30 wounded.

Germans Sending Cavalry East

London, Nov. 11, 4.10 A. M.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Reuter's Telegram Company says that the Dutch newspapers confirm the statement that Germany is transferring cavalry and artillery from the western to the eastern frontier.

An aviator threw bombs at Blankenberghe Monday, according to the same dispatch, with the intention of dispersing the German troops marching to Bruges. One fell in the town and killed a boy.

Germans Die of Disease in Prison

Berlin, Nov. 11, by Wireless.—One of the German prisoners of war in England has written a letter to the Frankfurter Zeitung in which he declares that, as a result of bad treatment, bad food, housing in cold barracks, 46 out of 700 German prisoners died within one week of pneumonia and typhoid fever. There were no wounded men among these prisoners.

Turks Seriously Handicapped

Petrograd, via London, Nov. 11, 4.49 A. M.—The "Army Gazette" states that aboard the three Turkish transports which the Russian fleet sank at Sunguladak, were troops, artillery, aeroplanes, automobiles and uniforms for 60,000 men. This loss, it is stated, must seriously affect the operations of the Turkish army in the district.

Germany Not Holding Up Food

Washington, Nov. 11.—Secretary Bryan announced today, after a conference with Count Von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, that there had been no change in the plan originally approved by the German government for the transportation of relief supplies to Belgium.

Celebrate Golden Wedding

Shamokin, Nov. 11.—One hundred guests last night celebrated the golden wedding anniversary of William Hutchinson and wife. A number of offerings were presented, followed by a banquet. Mr. Hutchinson, a former coal mine superintendent for the Mineral Railroad and Mining Company here, and Miss Margaret Minor, of Pottsville, were married November 19, 1864, since which time they have resided principally here.

Suffers Stroke at Work

Michael Bitner, 323 Granite street, a machinist in the Lucknow shops of the Pennsylvania railroad, suffered a stroke of apoplexy while at work yesterday afternoon. He was admitted to the Harrisburg hospital.

WAITING FOR ZEE ZEE CO. DIVIDENDS

Continued from First Page. year and it was while they were there that the hotel men were induced to a share of the stock.

Bought Stock for $12.50 The stock certificate bears No. 3208, is printed in black ink and has a gold sunburst for a background. The incorporation seal, issued in Delaware in 1912, also is in gold. At the bottom of the certificate is this:

"Shares $10 each." Mr. P. O. Horting said this morning that he paid $12.50 for a share on December 26, 1913, one year after the concern was chartered.

"Three fellows selling this stock," said Mr. Horting, pointing to his gilded certificate, "came to the hotel about a year ago and remained here five weeks. We bought that stock on the representation that the company was doing a good business and that a dividend would certainly be paid within six months or a year. We have heard nothing about any dividend."

"Five weeks after those fellows left here a big fellow dropped in, explained that he had learned that I was a stockholder and offered me 500 shares of this same stock at a 'sacrifice' of $10 each. He went on to say that the stock was given to him as collateral security for a note and added that although he knew the stock was very valuable and selling at $2.50 above par, he would be willing to sell it at $8 a share. We did not take his stock."

"It was further represented to us that this company was equipped to manufacture and sell tires for less than the market value of standard tires, and we bought four. That deal was made under the guarantee that if any or all of the tires blew out before driving 3,500 miles they would be replaced."

"I don't think we had gone more than 1,200 miles until one of the tires blew out. It was a bad break, and I wrote to the alleged Philadelphia office of the firm, Thirty-third and Walnut streets, demanding a new tire. It was told that the tire evidently had struck a rock. I was told that the tire would not be replaced and as I had already shipped the bad one to Philadelphia, I asked to have it returned. I never again saw the tire."

Stock Offer at $1 a Share Mr. Horting said he first exhibited the damaged tire to local dealers and all declared that it was manufactured from "bad and rotten" material. The original local representative of the Zee Zee company long since has given up the agency. To-day he said:

"I don't care to have my name mentioned in connection with that matter. My business will not permit it. I quit the company's employ as soon as I learned that there was dissatisfaction among customers."

One of the Harrisburg stockholders this morning said he learned, since his stock purchase of a New Jersey firm that manufactures cheap tires, "bearing any name or brand" the agent desires.

Mr. Horting said he once thought of calling on the Philadelphia representatives of the firm while on a visit to the Quaker City, although he changed his mind when he arrived in front of the building, which he said, is a small two-story affair.

While in the last ten days, one of the stockholders to-day declared, he was offered Zee Zee stock at $1 a share.

U. S. IS READY TO QUIT VERA CRUZ

Continued from First Page. withdraw the American forces, especially in view of the fact that a conflict with the Carranza troops in this vicinity might raise further embarrassing and delicate questions for the United States.

The American troops will be withdrawn on the ground that Aguascalientes convention ordered Carranza to issue the decree which he has now proclaimed and all factions are agreed to support the conditions set forth by the United States as a prerequisite to evacuation.

The impression prevails in many quarters that the United States will await the determination of who is the executive of Mexico—General Carranza or General Gutierrez—before delivering the funds.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Administration officials eagerly awaited news today of the sequel to the expiration of the Aguascalientes ultimatum which ordered General Carranza to surrender executive power in Mexico to Enalio Gutierrez. The ultimatum expired last night and while official news was lacking, Mexico City dispatches said it was reported Villa's advance guard was marching southward on its way to the capital.

If fighting occurred it was the first clash between those troops and the army of General Pablo Gonzales, who is loyal to Carranza, and probably took place at Queretaro. Carranza's dispatches added, had deposed generals commanding 50,000 men because they refused to nullify their agreement to abide by the Aguascalientes decision.

CARRANZA YIELDS TO U. S.

Directors Boyer and Bretz Make Awards to Grammar School Pupils Prizes aggregating $25 were distributed yesterday afternoon by President Harry A. Boyer and Director Harry M. Bretz, of the School Board, to the six successful competitors in the "Edison Day" prize essay contest, which closed on October 21. More than 500 youngsters, girls and boys of the grammar schools of the city, participated. The prizes of $10, $5 and four of $2.50 were offered by the Harrisburg Light and Power Company when the School Board decided to pay a tribute to Thomas A. Edison, the electrical inventor, by arranging the contest. October 21 marked the thirty-fifth anniversary of the perfecting by Edison of the first incandescent electric light.

In presenting the prizes President Boyer and Director Bretz both referred to the splendid work of the children and the lessons it taught. In concluding they paid a tribute to the local electric light company, which offered the cash prizes to further interest in the competition.

President Boyer presented the prizes to Misses Ethel Peace, $10, Melrose; Katherine Hoopes, Lincoln, $5; Ruth Strickler, Woodward, $2.50, while Mr. Bretz awarded the $2.50 prizes to Miss Virginia Downes, of the Cameron, and Fernie E. Sanford and Hugh D. Wells, of the Rely building.

Advertising always pays unless you want the world to know that you have been eating garlic.

School Directors to Meet Here D. D. Hammelbaugh, secretary of the Harrisburg School Board, is preparing for a meeting of the State School Directors' Association to be held here, February 4 and 5. Meetings will be held in the two high school buildings.

CITY COULD BE WORSE--DR. STOUGH

Continued from First Page. Brother Yates, I wish you'd find out who that co-operating minister is and tell him to get out. I don't want any such co-operating ministers.

"I never knock a preacher, understand, who disagrees with me, but I'm going after the ones who start a fight with me. Any two by four peanut preacher who starts anything with me will be sorry. Such a minister has insulted everybody who attends these meetings. You have a right to disagree with me, you preachers, but when you fight against me you oppose the great campaign of God in Harrisburg. A preacher like that is of no account anyway. I'm sorry I wasted so much breath on him."

"Here is a letter contributed to the Star-Independent by an attorney," went on the evangelist producing a clipping, "which accuses me of saying that every parent should go home and lick his innocent child. I never said you should beat innocent children. That attorney didn't get enough likings when he was a kid."

But, One Church for Dance "I am speaking to-night," said the evangelist in beginning his sermon "on the text, 'Neither be partakers of other people's sins.' I want to suggest various ways in which it is entirely possible for you people here to be partakers of other people's sins."

"It is a hard thing to-day to get Christian people to come out fairly and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't anything to say against dancing, and that's the Mormon Church. Yet it is hard to get preachers to come out squarely against the dance. Heavily and squarely against the things opposed by their church laws. They won't come out against the dance, for one thing, and I'll have more to say about that later. Yet, I tell you, there isn't a protestant evangelical church, or the Catholic church either, for that matter, that hasn't placed some time or other a law in their books or disciplines against dancing. That all happened long before the bunny hug, the grizzly bear and the hesitation came along. There is only one church that hasn't