URGE UNION TO HELP TEACHERS

Speakers Advise County School Directors to Co-operate in Getting Laws Passed

165 ATTEND FROM COUNTY

Instructors Told to Join State Organizations as a Means of Obtaining Beneficial Legislative Enactments—Shambaugh Is Endorsed

About 165 school directors enrolled at this morning's meeting of the School Directors' Association of Dauphin county held in the caucus room of the House of Representatives.

Several talks were given to try and get the directors to influence the teachers to become members either of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association or the Teachers' League so as to be able to have bills presented before the Legislature and have some chance of having these bills passed. It was also intimated that the officials of these two associations are trying to affect an amalgamation so as to be able to make a more concentrated effort to have passed bills which will benefit the teachers.

Professor Shambaugh, County Superintendent, made an earnest plea to the directors for their co-operation. Professor Mairs gave a talk on "Centralization of County Schools." He showed that while less than 50 per cent. of the population of the United States live in the country, more than 85 per cent. of the children attend county schools. He also showed that more than 75 per cent. of the Presidents of the United States, Governors of the various States, Cabinet members, Senators, Congressmen and railroad presidents had received their education in the country schools. This, he said, goes to show that the country schools should be the very best in the land. "Democracy and Education" was the topic on which Dr. Barbour spoke.

The following delegates were elected to attend the next meeting of State School Directors' Association: John H. Lehr, Lykens; S. S. Pick, Millersburg; E. C. Rutherford, Paxtang; John P. Eberole, Lower Swatara township, and C. G. Miller, of Penbrook. The following alternate delegates were selected: Robert A. Shultz, Swatara township; Charles Grubb, Washington township; George Hoeker, South Hanover township; E. C. Martin, Londonderry township; and David Erb, of Lower Swatara township.

It was decided to hold the next meeting of the Dauphin County Association in Hershey. William H. Neil, of Steelton, was elected treasurer of the association to succeed J. A. Ebersole who this morning tendered his resignation. A. W. Snavely, of Hershey, was selected to audit the books.

It was also suggested that the delegates be instructed to try to interest the State Association and have it make a strong effort to have more money appropriated for the benefit of the Dauphin county schools.

A committee presented resolutions suggesting that all teachers at once affiliate themselves with the Pennsylvania State Association. They also offered to Professor Shambaugh the united support of the directors.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for Croup. Croup scares you. The loud hoarse croupy cough, choking and gasping for breath, labored breathing, call for immediate relief. The very first doses of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound will master the croup. It cuts the thick mucus, clears away the phlegm and opens up and eases the air passages.

REPUBLICANS EAT TURKEY PROVIDED BY DEMOCRAT

paying it in superb style. The dinner took place at Cold Spring cottage, along the Yellow Breeches creek near Williams' Grove, and Mrs. McClure had a dinner prepared that was fit for the gods. But there were more than fifteen present—not thirty, just guests. There were at least forty and Mr. Tate was inclined to believe the wily Senator had worked in a few "ringers." He remarked, as the guests partook of the feast, that if it had been deferred much longer he would have been compelled to hire a hall to accommodate the Senator's friends.

Mr. Tate presided and at one end of the table sat Judge Kunkel, with Judge McCarroll at the opposite end. "Above the salt" sat Senator William E. Crow, Republican State chairman; W. Harry Baker, Secretary of the Senate and secretary of the Republican State Committee; Senator Beidelman, Charles E. Covert, Herman L. Kephart, chief clerk of the Senate; Harry C. Ross, Charles S. Boll, Carl Dean, Frank A. Smith, Republican State committeeman; Freeman L. Gerberich, M. Harvey Taylor, City Commissioner of Parks and Public Property; William Metzger, Joseph L. Shearer, Henry W. Gough, County Controller, and many other friends of the host and the Senator.

There were numerous "few remarks" made during the dinner, set speeches being tabooed, and there was story and wit and repartee, and a general good time was had.

The Republican State Committee officials returned home last night. Before the party dispersed it was unanimously voted that Senator Beidelman shall, with the proceeds of two of his wagers with Mr. Tate, give a sauerkraut supper in the near future, at which the guests assembled around the board last evening will be present.

PEEVISH, CONSTIPATED CHILDREN LOVE "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS"

Harmless "Fruit Laxative" Cleanses Stomach, Liver and Bowels

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has stomach ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in just a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless fruit laxative; they love its delicious taste and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages, and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC To-night, Fannie Ward in "Madam President."

Saturday afternoon and evening, "September Morn."

Friday, November 20, Rose Stahl in "A Perfect Lady."

ORPHEUM Every afternoon and evening, high class vaudeville.

COLONIAL Daily continuous vaudeville and pictures.

Fannie Ward Miss Fannie Ward, who will be seen as the star of the French farce comedy, "Madam President," at the Majestic this evening, was one of the Americans abroad who hastened home when the first intimations of the great European war sounded. Miss Ward spends her summer abroad; she owns a handsome home in London at 3 Berkeley Square, the fashionable Mayfair district. When news came that preparations were being made to care for the wounded from the front Miss Ward cabled to the Admiralty in London offering her home for use as a hospital for the wounded and convalescing soldiers. Her offer was accepted and her stylish house now is in the hands of the Government.

This play was a big hit last season in New York City. It also has been successfully presented in Paris, Berlin, Vienna, Milan and London. Miss Ward will be seen here in the original New York production and practically the same supporting cast, which includes Harry J. Ashford, John W. Dean, Amy Lee, Frank Dawson, Jack J. Horwitz, George Brennan, Charles Latte, William Lewis, Reynolds Sweetland, Harriet Trench, Alice Kelly, Emily Hampton and Helen Buckley. Adv.

"September Morn" "September Morn" has found her way to the stage. Mr. Phillips has been given an important trial, found guilty in the first degree and sentenced to star in the new musical frivolity for a long term.

"September Morn," which comes to the Majestic Saturday matinee and night, is in three acts, with songs, mirth, melody, happiness and joy, presented by Rowland Clifford's big musical comedy company. There is a big chorus of dancing and singing girls, prettily costumed and attractively coached in many dashing ensembles. Arthur Gillespie wrote the book and lyrics; music by Aubrey Stauffer and the dances, tangos, etc., were invented by Virgil Bennett and the well-known director, Frank Tannehill, Jr., staged the production.

"September Morn" had a most profitable run at the LaSalle Opera House, Chicago, last season. Adv.

At the Orpheum The news of the Orpheum's great bill has spread all over town. Not only because it seems to be the chief topic of the week, but the season's biggest audiences are viewing the array of talent. With three acts running neck and neck for headline honors, the contest is an interesting one and up to the present time it's a pretty hard matter to judge the winner. Admirers of Ruth Royce, the genius of ragtime, proclaim the big honors for her. And Ruth's applause which brings the little lady on for the last song she has in her repertoire and then about a half a dozen bows is the tale of her success. And then there are those who are a little more partial to the clever juvenile musical comedy, "The Lawn Party," with about the merriest and most clever youngsters ever seen at the Orpheum. Their fun, frolic and song is splendid.

Conlin Steel Trio are also running close for favoritism. The trio is clever as ever and in their new act they are equally as popular if not more so than when they were here before. The excellence of the bill, however, is not wrapped up in these three acts, but extends from the opening act down to the close. There are reasons for the popularity of the current offering. Next week Nat Wills, the comedian of international fame, will be the big headliner.

At the Colonial The fine vaudeville bill that will be uncovered at the Colonial to-day will have a special added attraction to morrow night, when the management will introduce a surprise comedy show. No further details of this special performance has been announced, although the management says it is a laughing surprise of the first water. This surprise feature will last about twenty minutes and will be a part of both of the evening shows. "The House That Jack Built," the most pretentious musical comedy ever shown at the "Busy Corner," heads the offering for the last half of the week. (Other names of the same offering will include the Devon Sisters, Ford Watts and Hayes, and Harry and Augusta Turpin. Adv.)

At the Photoplay "The Midnight Ride of Paul Revere" has been pictured by the Edison Company and is shown to-day at the Photoplay. Two acts which every man, woman and child should see. "Whatsoever a Woman Soweth," a 2-act Essayney feature, will also be shown. Adv.

Mock Trial Monday Evening Washington Camp, No. 718, P. O. S. of A., will hold a mock trial in its hall, Market street, Monday evening, November 16, the proceeds to be devoted to the benefit of the degree team. The case on trial will be Astorbill vs. Astorbill, in divorce.

NEWS OF STEELTON

KIESTER AND STEES EACH KILLED A BUCK THIS WEEK

Members of Steelton Club Will Enjoy a Venison Supper in December From Two Animals Slain Near Fayetteville

Bartram Shelley, a member of the Steelton Club, who returned last evening from an auto trip to the club's deer camp near Fayetteville, brought the first authentic news to the borough of the success of the local club members in bagging two deer this week.

One of the bucks killed had seven prongs while the other had but four. The names of the successful shots were given as Walter Kiester and Frank Stees. The four-prong buck was killed Tuesday morning and the seven-prong buck was laid low yesterday morning.

Although the local hunters have been on deer hunts about six years this is the first time that more than one buck was killed in any one year. On the return of the hunters the slain animals will be placed in cold storage until in December when the club members will have their annual venison supper.

Mrs. Rebecca Stutzman, for many years a resident of Highspire, died in the Winchester, Va., hospital yesterday morning at 7 o'clock from injuries received early last week when she was thrown out of a wagon by a runaway horse.

Mrs. Stutzman was making an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. Annie Samsel, who resides at Stephens City, Va. Mrs. Sadie McDonald, of Connellsville, a sister of Mrs. Stutzman, was also visiting at the Samsel home. Early last week Mrs. Samsel, accompanied by her mother and Mrs. McDonald, started for the orchard in a one-horse wagon, intending to get a load of apples.

On the road the horse became frightened and unmanageable and in some manner the three women were thrown out of the vehicle. Mrs. Stutzman suffered a broken hip and internal injuries, which caused death yesterday. Mrs. McDonald sustained a sprained shoulder and painful bruises, but was not seriously hurt. Mrs. Samsel had her left arm badly sprained and was painfully bruised.

Mrs. Stutzman is survived by the following: Her husband, James; four sons, Edward, of Reading; John, Steelton; Jacob, Highspire, and Harry, Swatara township; five daughters, Mrs. Annie Samsel, Stephens City, Va.; Mrs. Mary Diffenderfer, Highspire; Mrs. Emma Kurtz, Myerstown; Mrs. Grace Myers, Middletown, and Mrs. Edith Garman, Palmyra; five sisters, Mrs. James D. Stewart, in the Pittsburgh district; Mrs. Sadie McDonald, Connellsville; Mrs. Mary McDonald, New Alexandria, Pa.; Mrs. Emma Barr, Gaithersburg, Md., and Mrs. Annie S. Muench, Pottsville, and two brothers, John S. Whitman, Steelton, and Harry Whitman, Highspire.

The body arrived in Harrisburg from Winchester to-day at 11:30 a. m. and was taken to her late home on Second street, Highspire, by H. Wilt's Sons. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

HAVE YOU CATARRH?

It's a Dangerous Disease—Hymeli Is the Effective Remedy

Catarrh, which is indicated by sniffing, frequent colds and crusts in the nose is a serious disease and if not checked surely spreads to the delicate lining of the air passages, and frequently destroys the hearing.

To cure catarrh you must have something that will quickly reach the diseased tissues, kill the germs, and drive out the poison.

Hymeli is just such a remedy. Being a mixture of antiseptic oils that you breathe through a small inhaler its health-restoring medication cannot help going direct to the raw and inflamed lining of the nose and throat, quickly relieving that choked-up feeling, stopping the unclean discharges, and healing the sore spots—you breathe freely. Even the worst cases respond at once.

There is nothing for the treatment of catarrh ills that is easier, more pleasant or so satisfying as Hymeli. H. C. Kennedy sells it on the "No-cure-no-pay" plan. Adv.
