DESCRIBES ATTACKS BY GERMANS ON THE YSER: FLOODS IMPEDE FIGHT

London, Nov. 13, 3.30 A. M.—The "Times" Flanders correspondent, describing the German attack at Dixmude, says:

There were only two points, Dixmude and Nieupoort, where the Germans could assume the offensive on the Yser, all the front between being impossible for fighting on account of the flood. The force concentrating between Dixmude and Thourout was chosen for the attack.

"In the morning the German batteries opened a heavy fire on the French positions and kept it up through most of the day. This cannonade was the prelude to a violent infantry attack on the outskirts of Dixmude. The attack was made with great gallantry and very heavy fighting took place.

"The Germans came in overwhelming numbers and toward evening the allies were compelled to retire. They fell back into the town, destroying the two bridges in their retreat. The Germans thus won the bridge head.

"Next morning strong reinforcements were brought up by both sides and fighting continued in and about the town. The course of the afternoon a force of Germans succeeded in penetrating into the town and a desperate struggle went on in the streets.

"The capture of Dixmude or a part of it would be no advantage to the Germans. The town is almost entirely surrounded by water."

The correspondent of the "Daily Mail," telegraphing under date of Wednesday says that the German position at Dixmude is very insecure and that they probably will be driven out again.

SAY ARMENIANS ARE PLAYING IN THE RUSSIA-TURKISH WAY

Petrograd, Nov. 13, via London, 2.50 P. M.—Reports reaching the Russian capital from the Turkish border attach increasing importance to the report that the Armenians are playing in the Russia-Turkish way.

In several towns occupied by the Russians the Armenian students have shown themselves ready to join the invading army, and explained that they had prepared themselves for the Russian approach by constant drilling and by gathering arms secretly. All along the line of march, according to these dispatches, the Armenian peasants are receiving the Russian troops with enthusiasm and giving them provisions freely.

Why He Had to Surrender
Tokio, Nov. 13.—Meyer Waldeck, who was in command of the German forces at Tsing-Tau, according to a dispatch from Tsing-Tau to the "Asahi," has sent a telegram to Emperor William saying he was compelled to surrender on account of lack of ammunition and the heavy damage inflicted by the enemy on his forts.

Roberts Going to France
London, Nov. 13.—Field Marshal Lord Roberts of Kandahar is going to France. The official announcement making this fact public says the famous general is going into the war zone "to see the Indian troops." Lord Roberts was born in Cawnpore, India, eighty-two years ago.

BAD COLD? GET RELIEF AT ONCE WITHOUT QUININE

"Pape's Cold Compound" Ends Severe Colds or Grippe in Few Hours

You can end gripe and break up a severe cold either in head, chest, body or limbs, by taking a dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until three doses are taken. It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dizziness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head—nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine.

UPTURNED ENDS OF KAISER'S MOUSTACHE ARE CUT OFF

London, Nov. 13.—A dispatch to the "Standard" from Copenhagen says:

The Kaiser has clipped off the upturned ends of his moustache. This startling change in the monarch's appearance has been observed during the last day or two, when the emperor was passing through central Germany on the way to inspect a large number of recruits completing their military training. The loss of his aggressively erect moustache robs William II. of much of his former almost ferocious martial appearance.

"When it was observed some time after the beginning of the war that the Kaiser's hair had turned white, no one paid much attention to that change but the removal of the ends of his moustache has impressed the public imagination."

KAISER OFFERS HIS MARBLE PALACE IN CORFU FOR SALE

Geneva, Via Paris, Nov. 12, 11.59 P. M.—Emperor William is offering his marble palace, the Villa of Achilleion, in Corfu, for sale. It was built in 1890-91 for the Empress Elizabeth of Austria at a cost of $5,000,000 and has since been improved. A syndicate of German and Swiss hotel men wished to buy Achilleion a few years ago, but they were outbid by the Emperor.

The Emperor's decision to sell the palace, it is stated, is the result of the uncertain attitude of Greece toward Germany and Austria. It is said he fears confiscation of the palace if Greece joins the allies. A Swiss syndicate has been given an option on the place at a low price.

There are five capital offenses under British law—murder, high treason, piracy, arson in the port of London and attempts to destroy public arsenals.

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

When Cross, Feverish and Sick Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Children love this "fruit-laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

CONFERENCE BEING HELD IN SIBERIA CONCERNS MONGOLIA

Pekin, China, Nov. 13.—There is now in session at Kiakhta, Siberia, a conference concerning the present situation of Mongolia at which the three interested powers are represented each by a delegate. The Chinese delegate is said to be maintaining an uncompromising attitude.

There have been rumors in Peking emanating from German sources, that Chinese troops in Mongolia were moving toward the Russian border and an effort has been made to connect this activity with the deadlock of the conference. Inquiries, however, have brought denials from the Chinese authorities of this military activity, and the reports are elsewhere discredited.

Lebanon Charities for War and Home

Lebanon, Nov. 13.—Lebanon will do its share toward the relief of the suffering and destitute in war stricken Europe and will not neglect home charities. This was assured when an emergency relief committee was organized yesterday by the members of a number of prominent organizations of this city. The Lebanon Branch Needlework Guild of America, Daughters of the American Revolution, Woman's Club, Associated Charities and Visiting Nurse Association were represented at the meeting. The meeting was called by Mrs. Horace Brock, of Mt. Lebanon. The committee will open local headquarters next Monday.

THIRD PHASE OF WAR LOOKED FOR

Conviction Grows in Paris That German Offensive Is Drawing to a Close

BENDING OF THE LINES OF ALLIES

Present Violent Effort of the Germans in Ypres Region Did Not Succeed However, in Breaking the Enemy's Front

Paris, Nov. 13, 7 A. M.—The conviction is growing here that the period of the German strategic offensive is drawing to a close and that the war on both the western and eastern fronts is about to enter its third phase.

The present violent effort in the Ypres region it may have succeeded in bending the allies' line in a few places, has not yet, according to either French or German reports, succeeded in breaking it, and it seems impossible that the attempt can be repeated under the same conditions. Even success at this point might prove merely momentary like that at St. Mihiel on the Meuse six weeks ago.

But General Joffre, the French commander-in-chief, is fully alive to the importance of this position, and according to an officer just returned from Ypres, that eventually has been prepared for. At Ypres and its environs, although the artillery of the Germans is formidable, that of the allies is still more so and causes fearful carnage in the enemy's trenches. The fight in this region is largely an artillery duel with the infantry remaining in the trenches, being only approached the enemy by boring tunnels, which are converted into trenches by piercing the roof.

However, important the operations in Flanders may be, they are now overshadowed both in extent and the influence they may have on the war as a whole by the eastern campaign.

Russia's Effectiveness Looked For
Colonel Feyler, editor of the "Swiss Military Review," and one of the best known military specialists declares that "Russia is now about to bring to bear all her effectiveness, and if it is realized that she intervenes at a moment when in Flanders German levies of the third line, young soldiers with six weeks' training are being brought into action, the full significance of the operations on the eastern front will be recognized."

Austro-German Armies Advancing
"Three Austro-German armies," he continues, "are advancing toward the angles of Thorn and Cracow. The Russian commander seems to be accentuating the defense in the latter direction. If he succeeds the results will be far reaching. The Austrian army will be cut off from the Germans and forced to accept battle with their backs against the Carpathians."

"In addition there is prospect of a battle in the center of the line from Posen to Breslau toward which the German army of Silesia seems to be directed in retreat and at a more or less early date West Prussia will be threatened by way of Thorn."

ADMIT LUCK IN TURKEYS

Only One Farmer An Exception to the Rule in Montgomery County

Pottstown, Nov. 13.—Farmers and dealers in this section have broken all records by confiding the cheering news that the past summer was a favorable one for the raising of turkeys. The birds are selling at 22 cents a pound, live weight, and the Thanksgiving live weight, and the Thanksgiving live weight, unless some of the usual calamities to the turkey crop very conveniently happen along, will be around 28 cents, dressed.

However, since the above optimistic review was made Jonas Ludwig, near Swamp, comes to the front with the doleful tale that 175 out of his flock of 200 nearly full grown turkeys have succumbed to some disease.

RECOUNT AIDS DEMOCRAT

Husting Now 1,109 Ahead for Wisconsin Senate Seat

Milwaukee, Nov. 13.—Paul O. Hustling, Democrat, gained 220 votes in the recount in Pepin county of the vote for United States Senator, it was officially made known yesterday. He now has a net advantage over Governor F. E. McGovern, Republican, of 1,109 votes. This includes revised returns from fifty-two counties and the changes necessitated by the recount in Superior and Fond du Lac and by the official canvass reported by the city of Milwaukee.

Governor McGovern has made on the recount net gains of 92. Nineteen counties still are to report officially at Madison.

Daughters of Confederacy Elect Savannah, Ga., Nov. 13.—Mrs. Daisy McLaurin Stevens, of Brandon, Miss., was re-elected president general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at the general convention yesterday.

Caught In Mine Mixer
Mahanoy City, Nov. 13.—Crawling into a concrete mixer to clean it at Lawrence colliery, Michael Sudnick had a thrilling escape when somebody started the machine and he was whirled around and around. When rescued, nearly all of his clothing had been torn from his body. He was badly bruised.

One Miner Killed, One Dying
Shamokin, Nov. 13.—Michael Shiko was killed by a fall of coal at the Alaska colliery yesterday, while Frank Riegel was fatally injured from the same cause at the Gimlet mine, as was Anthony Yerk, at the Cameron mine.

GERMANS ATTACK YPRES, WHICH IS REPORTED AFIRE

Belgium, Nov. 13.—Germans made a violent attack on Ypres, according to the official reports from Berlin and Paris, while other despatches say the town is in flames. The French declare the attack was checked, while the Germans admit their progress is slow, but say they have captured more than five hundred French, colored and English prisoners and several machine guns.

BURNING OF THE NEW ZEPPELIN SHED AT DUSSELDORF

HOW THE GIANT FLAME, 500 FEET HIGH, LEAPT UP AFTER THE BOMB HAD EXPLODED IN THE SHED

The above illustration, drawn by G. H. Davis, special artist for this newspaper, the New York Herald and the London Sphere, shows the daring exploit of Lieutenant Marix, the British aviator who partially destroyed the Zepppelin shed at Dusseldorf. "When close to this gigantic structure the daring aviator suddenly put the nose of his machine down, and, though under fire from rifles and high angle artillery, made a daring spiral dive to within 500 feet of the roof of the shed; here he dropped his bombs. So fast was his dive that it is certain his speed reached more than 140 miles an hour, and at this impetus he turned and shot upward—his mission accomplished—with the velocity of a rocket, and managed to get clear away, observing as he went that a great gust of flaming gas had leaped up from the rent roof of the shed to a height of nearly 500 feet, proving that the Zepppelin inside had met its fate. He then turned back toward Antwerp, but when ten miles away the 80-horse power Gnome engine ceased to revolve, he was rescued by a Belgian car and got safely into Antwerp. Since the visit of the aeroplane the nerves of the inhabitants have been so badly shaken that the general in command had to issue a communique rebuking the inhabitants and advising them not to become so agitated when the enemy came.
