Special Correspondence:

Mechanicsburg, Nov. 16.—As per anouncement the Teachers' local institute, composed of the boroughs of Camp

Hill, Lemoyne, Mechanicsburg, New

Cumberland, Shiremanstown, West

Fairview and Wormleysburg and the townships of East Pennsboro, Hampden,

Lower Allen, Silver Spring and Upper

Allen was held in the High school building. The institute was presided over by County Superintendent Prof. J. K.

Green. The executive committee was composed of the following: Professors

Ralph Jacoby, W. H. Hench, John Hetrick and W. C. Bowman.

The institute opened with devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. J. J.

Resh, of the Methodist church. George

M. Messinger was elected secretary.

The first topic discussed was, "Arranging a School Program." S. C. Miller discussed the theoretical side and Clarence Weigle discussed it from a practical standpoint.

The next topic was "Why Is English the Poorest Taught Branch in Our Schools?" "The causes," was assigned to G. A. Berkheimer, who was not present, and "The Remedies," which was assigned to W. C. Bowman, was discussed by him.

The last topic of the forenoon was

"Social Needs of the Pupil," (a) "In School," Elizabeth Stephenson, (b)

"Out of School," D. A. Hamacher. All of the questions were very generally discussed. Music was furnished during the session by the Mechanicsburg High school under the direction of Miss Bush, teacher of vocal music in the Mechanicsburg schools.

The afternoon session opened with music by the High school and several selections on the High school Victoria.

The first topic of the afternoon was

"A Well Disciplined School," (a) announcements by Prof. Green and a few remarks by him the institute adjourned.
