INFLAMED PIMPLES ITCHED AND BURNED

Very Hard and Sore. Thought Face Would Be Disfigured for Life. Hated to Go in Public. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

718 N. 42nd St., Philadelphia, Pa.—"At first my skin broke out in very fine pimples. They were inflamed and very red and they itched and burned me so very bad that I would scratch them until they bled. Whenever the blood from the pimples would touch a larger pimple would come and it would be very hard and sore. I thought my face would be disfigured for life. Instead of going away, more came which would gather and have a black tip on them. This made my face very bad looking and it itched all the time so I could not sleep. I hated to go out in public. I used Cuticura and it made my face worse than it was. I used another remedy for nearly a year but they would break out twice as bad. I was worried nearly sick. Then I got Cuticura Soap and Ointment and inside of two weeks you could hardly tell that I ever had skin disease. The first night I found great relief. From that night on I never went to bed without washing my face with the Cuticura Soap and putting the Cuticura Ointment on my face. Also on my arms and neck which had become affected. Now my skin is just as clear as it can be. Cuticura Soap and Ointment cured me." (Signed) Miss Vera B. Waddy, Jan. 28, 1914.

Pittman, N. J., Nov. 16.—When Mrs. James Gordon, whose family has just moved here from Indiana, went to the telephone to answer a call from a local expressman who reported the arrival of the Gordons' dog from the western State, she was interrupted by a scratching at the back door. As she opened the door the dog came bounding into the room. He had broken out of his crate in front of the express office, more than a mile from the Gordon home, while the expressman was telephoning. A Matter of Feet

"If one did not know better," remarked an observant man, "he would be inclined to believe an aviator is akin to a centipede. Not long ago I was telling a friend that a certain airman had dropped forty-five feet. 'Yes?' he asked. 'And how many has he left?'"—New York Tribune.
