

ASTHMA AND HAY FEVER A GUARANTEED RELIEF

"I have arranged with George A. Gorgas, 16 North Third street and Pennsylvania Railroad Station, that every sufferer from Asthma, Hay Fever or Bronchial Asthma in Harrisburg can try my treatment entirely at my risk, Dr. Randolph Schiffman announces. He says: "Buy a 50-cent package of my Asthmador or Asthmador Cigarettes, try it, and if it does not afford you immediate relief, or if you do not find it the best remedy you have ever used, take it back to George A. Gorgas and he will return your money, cheerfully and without any question whatever. After seeing the grateful relief it has afforded in hundreds of cases, which had been considered incurable, and which had been given up in despair, I know what it will do. I am so sure that it will do the same with others that I am not afraid to guarantee it will relieve instantaneously. The druggists handling Asthmador will return your money if you say so. You are to be the sole judge and under this positive guarantee, absolutely no risk is run in buying Asthmador."

Persons living elsewhere will be supplied under the same guarantee by their local druggist if direct by Dr. R. Schiffman, St. Paul, Minn.

GERMANS CHEER CZAR ON FIELD HOSPITAL VISIT

Petrograd, Nov. 17.—During a fortnight's sojourn with his armies in the field, the Czar spoke to thousands of wounded soldiers in the field hospitals. His Majesty also visited many wounded Germans and Austrians, addressing kindly words to them. In one ward, entirely occupied by wounded Germans, the men, who were unable to rise, spontaneously greeted the Czar with a three-fold "Heil."

In connection with the imperial tour at the front, one characteristic episode may be noted. The Czar inquired about the identity and destination of a column passing the imperial train, and was told it was composed of officers and men who had recovered from wounds and were returning to their respective regiments.

Several mines had been taken to pieces successfully before the accident occurred. Between 30 and 40 mines were seen in the Sheldt near Flushing Saturday. Some were destroyed, the Dutch officials say, by torpedo boats and others were washed ashore.

GERMANS UNDER TERRIFIC STRAIN

Are Beginning to Show Effects of the Past Month's Struggle in Flanders

ALLIES' SUCCESS PREDICTED SOON

Staff Officer of Anglo-French Forces Says That Within Another Month Germans Will Be Driven From the Soil of France

Paris, Nov. 17, 7 A. M.—The Germans, in the opinion of officers at the front, are beginning to show signs of the terrific strain they have undergone for a month past in Flanders and these officers expect that General Joffre's plan of holding the line and permitting the German host to wear itself out in vain but costly assaults will soon bear fruit.

A staff officer, writing from the battle line, even goes so far as to predict that within another month the allies will be in a position to drive the enemy from French soil. The writer, however, admits that he is by nature an optimist.

Details of Dixmude Fighting Some details of the taking of Dixmude, which the Germans still hold, but which thus far has brought them no advantage, have reached here. The capture of the town it appears was due to a mistake on the part of a French detachment.

When the fighting started the Belgians were entrenched north of the city, protecting the Keyen road. To their right, turned toward the east in the direction of Essen were the Senegalese riflemen. To the south the French bluejackets occupied the most exposed position on the Clerken road.

The enemy opened a terrific bombardment at 5 a. m. on Tuesday last during which the admiral who was in command of the sailors and who was making a reconnaissance, just missed being hit by the fragment of a shell.

Fighting on the Trenches The men waited patiently in the trenches. Toward 1 p. m. the cannonading slackened and the dense columns of German infantry opened fire on the trenches. One column threatened to turn the Belgians, who overpowered by numbers retired on the outskirts of the city.

They were followed by the Senegalese who thought that an order for a general retreat had been given. This movement uncovered the blue jackets who, however, continued to hold their ground.

While part of the enemy advanced on Dixmude by the Essen and Keyen roads left open to them, the rest came at double quick for the sailors. Faced with the Russian guard they were in danger of being surrounded. Undaunted, however, they dashed with the bayonet upon the Germans but were overwhelmed by numbers and beaten back to the trenches. Asked to surrender they replied in the words credited to General Cambronne at Waterloo when in similar circumstances he said: "The guard dies but never surrenders."

Allies Obligated to Retire

For several hours they held off the German who were four times as numerous, charging their ranks every time they came too near.

Towards evening they were obliged to retire since their only means of retreat, the bridge connecting the city with the country, was about destroyed. They crossed the bridge under an avalanche of bullets with such magnificent heroism that the Prussians officers afterward greatly expressed their admiration.

Successes of Russians AS SEEN THROUGH LENS OF CZAR'S GENERAL STAFF

Petrograd, Nov. 16.—A statement received from the general staff to-day says:

"After our successful fighting in October along the roads to Warsaw and Ivangorod the enemy began retreating toward his frontier, destroying the roads and railroads. He set on fire the railroad stations and freight sheds, tore up switches and destroyed the reservoirs and water pipes. At some points on the railroad he blew up the rails and their fastenings, thus rendering necessary the use of new rails when repairing the tracks.

"In addition, all bridges and aqueducts, even the smallest, were damaged as to make a passage impossible. The telegraph poles were felled, wires cut and insulators destroyed. All this damage impeded our advance and aided the enemy on the left bank of the Vistula to get near his territory.

"Taking advantage of this and their complete railway system, the Germans rapidly began to send their troops to the north in order to accumulate important forces against our wing. Their concentration in that region was covered by a large body of cavalry brought from the west and partly supported by the Austrian cavalry.

"Towards the middle of November the German offensive was renewed between the Vistula and Wartbe rivers. This resulted in fighting which is still going on on the front of Plock, Lentchitsa and Oureioff.

"In eastern Prussia, the enemy tried to stall upon the, the enemy tried by means of separate bodies of troops to adopt the offensive, but he failed and retreated.

"In the region of Soldau and Neidenburg the battle continues. We maintain our offensive toward Cracow and the front of Galicia.

"The attempts of the Austrians to make a stand on our road have been vain. In the fighting of November 13 we captured 10 officers and about 1,000 soldiers."

CHILD GETS SICK CROSS, FEVERISH IF CONSTIPATED

"California Syrup of Figs" Can't Harm Tender Stomach or Bowels

A laxative to-day saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste. Liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Adv.

CRACOW BURNING, RESIDENTS IN FLIGHT, ROME REPORTS

Rome, Nov. 17.—The "Giornale d'Italia" publishes a dispatch from Venice, which says that news has been received there that Cracow, the capital of Galicia, is burning, and that its inhabitants are fleeing.

Cracow, situated at the confluence of the Rudowa and the Vistula, is an Austrian fortress of the first class, with a population of 100,000 and a garrison of 6,000 men. It was destroyed by the Mongolians in 1241, but was rebuilt by German colonists in 1257. In 1220 it was chosen by Ladislaus Lokietek as the coronation town and residence of the Polish Kings. The town's decline came with the transfer of the royal residence to Warsaw in 1610. In the final partition of Poland in 1795 Cracow fell to Austria.

AUSTRIANS STOP RUSSIANS FROM OCCUPYING TRENCHES

London, Nov. 17, 3:27 A. M.—A dispatch to the Reuters Telegram Company from Vienna by way of Amsterdam gives an official communication issued by the Austrian general staff regarding the operations in the southern theatre of war. It says:

"Our victorious troops did not allow the enemy to occupy the previously prepared trenches in and near the village of Valieno. Fighting by the rear guard only took place near Valieno and the enemy was thrown back after a short resistance. Some prisoners were taken.

"Our troops have reached Kalutha and have occupied Valievo and Obranovaev."

YOUTH PLANNED SUICIDE

Had Three Bottles of Laudanum in Pockets When Searched by Police

Waynesboro, Nov. 17.—Several men and a youth were arrested, Saturday night, by the police for being drunk and disorderly on the streets.

The youth had three bottles of laudanum in his pocket. Two were 2-ounce phials and one held one ounce. They were obtained at three different stores.

The youth, who lives in South Waynesboro, struggled hard to keep Patrolman Rentzel from taking the laudanum from him in the lockup.

After he had been overmastered and the bottles were in the patrolman's possession, he said:

"I was going to drink all that stuff and then when I was found here the blame would have been put on you."

Football Player Is Improving

Carlisle, Nov. 17.—"Gus" Welch, quarterback for the Carlisle Indians, who was injured in the game against Notre Dame at Chicago Saturday and who lay unconscious in the Mercy Hospital in the western city for several hours had a restful day yesterday and physicians say his condition is improving. In addition to the fractured cheek bone, there is a possible fracture of the base of the skull. This was the first game in which Welch had played this year being too busily occupied in coaching Conway to play himself.

Killed Deer in Garden

Gettysburg, Nov. 17.—When a four-prong, 125 pound buck invaded the garden of his father in Menallen township yesterday morning Mervin Rice, of Bendersville, ran into the house, got a gun and with one load brought down the antlered creature. To reach the Rice place the deer had to travel for about two miles from the mountains, a part of the time running across open fields.

The shooting occurred during a butchering which Isaiah Rice was having at his farm two miles west of Bendersville. Mervin Rice, of that town, had gone out to the homestead to help with the work and they had just finished the slaughter of five hogs when one of the men, looking up, saw the buck coming full tilt toward the garden.

Tax on Insurance

Carlisle, Nov. 17.—Carlisle to-day got its first taste of what the new "War" tax of the administration will mean when the local Fire Insurance and Brokers' Association received notification that after December 1, what is known officially as the Emergency Relief Stamp Tax, will be charged on all fire insurance policies both renewals and new.

This tax is one-half of one per cent. on each dollar of insurance. This tax will be charged the assured in addition to the regular premium. The effect of the new law can be best seen when it is estimated that for every $1,000 of insurance, $5 addition will be charged.

Dr. Mudge Chosen Pastor

Chambersburg, Nov. 17.—At the congregational meeting in the Falling Spring church Sunday evening the Rev. William L. Mudge, of Lewistown, was unanimously chosen pastor to succeed the Rev. Dr. John Allan Blair, who retired in April last.

The salary of the Rev. Mr. Mudge was fixed the same as that of Dr. Blair, $2,400 per annum. With this he is given the manse, in the Chambers pines near the church, free, kept in constant good repair, and a six weeks' vacation during the months of July and August. The expense of the new pastor's removal to Chambersburg will be borne by the congregation.

Wilson Girls at Musicals

Chambersburg, Nov. 17.—Wilson College and a large delegation of its friends from town enjoyed a delightful musical Saturday evening, when the inimitable David Bigham gave his song recital. Frequent hearty applause attested the enthusiasm with which his audience received Mr. Bigham's program. The program was of wide range and presented various types of music, including the heavier music of "The Grenadiers" and the lighter ballad style of "Who Is Sylvia." Mr. Bigham is instinctively dramatic and his identification of himself with the roles of his songs was natural and interpretative. His comments on the program were helpful in their suggestiveness. Mr. Bigham's personality and his splendid performance created a sympathetic audience which responded unflinchingly to the chord he emphasized in the individual songs.

FIGHTING OF FOREST FIRES

Automobiles Furnish Quickest and Cheapest Transportation for Crews to Battle With Flames

Washington, D. C., Nov. 17.—Experiences with forest fires on the national forest this year show that automobiles, where they can be used, furnish the quickest and cheapest transportation for crews of fire fighters. Motor rates are higher than those for teams for the actual time employed, but the total cost per distance traveled and in wages paid to men in getting to fires is much less. The time-saving is self-evident; trips which ordinarily require two days' time by team have been made by automobile in a few hours.

The town forest of Baden-Baden, Germany, yields an annual profit of $5.25 per acre, or a total net profit of nearly $67,500.

Outside of its use for fence posts, black locust finds its principal utilization in insulator pins and brackets for telegraph and telephone lines.

One hundred shade trees will be planted by the Massachusetts forestry association in cities or towns of for population classes which win prize contests for excellence in street tree planting.

GOATS AND SHEEP AFFECTED

Disease of Unknown Character Fatal to Mountain Animals

Washington, D. C., Nov. 17.—The Department of Agriculture has undertaken the investigation of a serious disease which is affecting the Rocky Mountain bighorn sheep and the mountain goats and is reported as existing on the Lemhi national forest in Idaho. The forest officers think that it is the same disease that caused the mountain sheep to die in great numbers during 1882-3. The nature of the disease is not known, though it results fatally and sheep affected with it seem to have rough and mangy coats and are very much emaciated. Three bureaus of the department are engaged in the study—the biological survey, bureau of animal industry and the forest service. A competent veterinarian has already gone to Idaho to start the work.
