

OUCH! LUMBAGO! RUB PAINS FROM SORE LAME BACK

Rub Backache Away With Small Trial Bottle of Old "St. Jacob's Oil"

Back hurt you? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now listen! That's lumbago, sciatica or maybe from a strain, and you'll get relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacob's Oil." Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on your back and out comes the pain. It is harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC Friday evening, Rose Stahl in "A Perfect Lady." Monday, matinee and night, Nov. 23, "The Shepherd of the Hills."

ORPHEUM Every afternoon and evening, high class vaudeville.

COLONIAL Daily continuous vaudeville and pictures.

Rose Stahl in "A Perfect Lady"

For an engagement of one night the Henry B. Harris estate will present Rose Stahl in her new comedy, "A Perfect Lady," at the Majestic on Friday evening. "A Perfect Lady" is a comedy in four acts from the pens of Channing Pollock and Renold Wolf. It is the first play which these authors have written together, although they have collaborated on a number of musical comedy books, notably "The Red Widow," "The Beauty Shop" and "My Best Girl." It is said that in her new character creation Miss Stahl has found a role well fitted to those talents for comedy which have made her name famous throughout the land. The play is particularly notable for its bright dialogue and there is an opportunity for the members of the company to distinguish themselves. The estate of Henry B. Harris has selected with particular care and each of the numerous characters will be in competent hands. From a scenic standpoint it is said that "A Perfect Lady" is the most elaborate production in which Miss Stahl has ever appeared and every detail has been given the closest attention.

"The Shepherd of the Hills"

The most popular American novel, "The Shepherd of the Hills," has been made into a play by its author, Harold Bell Wright, with the assistance of Elsbury W. Reynolds. This will be good news to the millions of Mr. Wright's admirers. For every one who has read this popular story will be glad to see "Sammy Lane," "Preaching" Bill," "Young Matt," "Dad Gowitt" and all the people of the "Mutton Hollow" take life and appear behind the footlights.

"The Shepherd of the Hills" will have its local premiere at the Majestic next Monday.

At the Orpheum

The rarest comedy dish of the Orpheum's whole career is being served up this week. Nat M. Willis, the "king of tramps," traces most of the plot and then the choice hits that garnish attention to the choice hits that garnish the dish. In other words, Nat M. Willis, who is a whole show of laughs in himself, is supported by a bill of rare excellence and most of these attractions are of the mirth-producing type. Mr. Willis, while new to local vaudevillians, has many followers here, who saw him in other productions, and yesterday one of the season's biggest matinee audiences turned out to give him the proper reception. Nat strolled out before the footlights, gave a broad smile, made a funny facial expression with a twist of his elongated tongue, and the audience responded warmly. The comedian proceeded to tickle the risible of the audience with his brightjokes, delivered in his own clever manner, and then he sang some parodies.

His material is crisply new and screamingly funny and the celebrated comedian kept the audience in continuous laughter every minute he remained on view. If Mr. Willis were the lone attraction at the Orpheum this week he would be more than worth while, for he is actually a whole show in himself. But in this instance each has the support of six other Keith hits, not the least of which is the Mason-Keeler company of "In And Out" fame, who are this week presenting an equally clever comedy called "Married." There's a fine musical act on the bill also, a breezy song and dance trio, a thrilling bicycle novelty and a pleasing miss in entertaining stories.

At the Colonial

"A Dream of the Orient," a delightful musical extravaganza with pretty girls, tuneful songs, beautiful scenery and clever comedians is the attraction of real merit that is being presented at the Colonial for the first three days of the week. On the same bill is Cook and the Mason twins in a refined song, dance and patter skit; Rose and Seville, in a potpourri of comedy songs and bits, and Joe Hardman, the popular monologist. "He Loves the Nurses," a rattling good comedy film, is a special attraction in the way of "movies" for the first three days of the week.

Arm and Leg Crushed by Car

Temauqua, Pa., Nov. 17.—Charles Fahringer, aged 40, a car inspector, had his right arm severed and right leg crushed in the Philadelphia and Reading yard here yesterday when an engine tacked into a train of cars under which he was adjusting an air brake.

OBSCURE PASSAGES PLAIN

This Feature in Bible Is Not Only Interesting, But Instructive to Old and Young

Almost everybody owns a Bible and some have several—sometimes one for each member of the family. But the Star-Independent's Bible is different from any other ever published. It is the regular authorized version, to be sure, but is illustrated in a manner that has never before been approached.

There are six hundred subjects selected according to specified verses throughout the volume, and each subject is handled knowingly by some of the world's greatest artists, the result being an illustrated volume that cannot be excelled.

When Edward W. Bok, the able editor of the "Ladies' Home Journal," first saw the New Illustrated Bible, he said that he liked it because everything about it was well done, and it seemed to him to have been done in the right spirit. "The book itself," said Mr. Bok, "has been approached by the annotator with reserve and intelligence, and by its artists with sympathy and knowledge. It has been made a meaningful picture book. The pictures here serve a distinct purpose. They enrich the text, but they do more; they intelligently explain it, and many hitherto obscure passages will assume to thousands a new meaning through these eye-teaching pictures. Popularizing the Bible is a risky experiment in the hands of many, but it has been a splendid achievement in this case."

Praise from such an authority is praise indeed, and it only indicates the general feeling toward this magnificent work.

A description of the several styles will be found in the certificate printed elsewhere in to-day's issue. One certificate and the small expense item will get you one of the volumes.

WILL DINE GOVERNOR-ELECT

Dr. Brumbaugh to Be Honored by Associates in School Activities

Philadelphia, Nov. 17.—Governor-elect Martin G. Brumbaugh will be the guest of honor at two dinners to be given by men and women associated with him in his public school activities, early in January. On January 5 he will enjoy the hospitality of all the associate superintendents, heads of departments and secretaries with offices on the twelfth floor of the Stock Exchange building, adjoining Dr. Brumbaugh's own office. Not more than twenty-five persons are expected to attend this dinner, but more than 200 are expected at the dinner to be given by the Schoolmen's Club on January 7. The club's membership includes the district superintendents and many male teachers in the public schools.

Dr. Brumbaugh has accepted both invitations, it was announced yesterday.

WILL TAKE UNITARIAN PULPIT

Dr. Grant Was Formerly a Presbyterian Pastor

Northumberland, Pa., Nov. 17.—The Rev. Dr. William D. Grant, former pastor of the First Presbyterian church here, who was deposed by the General Assembly for alleged heretical sayings more than two years ago, will become a Unitarian preacher and serve in the Middle States Fellowship.

Dr. Grant is at present a member of the Manhattan Association of Congregational ministers and lives in New York.

When his church was rent by the charges of heresy, a committee of the Northumberland Presbytery sustained him. He later wrote a book about his case called "The Victim."

DIES OF FOOTBALL COLLISION

Tackled Quarterback Suffers Concussion of the Brain

New Brighton, Pa., Nov. 17.—Fred Treece, 17 years old, quarterback on the New Brighton High School football team, is dead from concussion of the brain, sustained Saturday in a football game between the local team and the New Wilmington High School.

During a scrimmage Treece tackled Captain Vance, their heads came together, and Vance was wearing head-gear, and was uninjured.

BOILING TAFFY KILLS CHILD

Baby Is Terribly Burned and Dies After Hours of Agony

Altoona, Pa., Nov. 17.—Burned to death by boiling taffy was the fate of E. Eugene Ryland, 17 months old, at Hollidaysburg. While the child was sitting on the floor near the kitchen range a pan of molasses taffy was spilled on his head, running down his face and over his body. The boiling substance stuck to the skin and burned deeply before it could be removed.

Walter Bernheimer, his grandfather, and Mrs. Charles Kipple, an aunt, were painfully burned about the hands trying to save the child. Death ensued after hours of agony.

HOLD MOTORIST FOR DEATH

Driver of Car Which Killed Child Under $1,000 Bail

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Nov. 17.—Charged with operating a motor vehicle without a license, and causing the death of Joseph Martin, aged 9 years, and the serious injury of Arthur Shelland, aged 10 years, Theodore Brandt was arraigned before Judge H. A. Fuller yesterday and held under $1,000 bail to answer a charge of involuntary manslaughter. Testimony offered was that the machine was traveling at a speed of ten miles an hour, when the boys darted from behind a wagon before the automobile and were run down.

Foley Cathartic Tablets

Stout people find they give immense relief and comfort. Antibilious. Warren Spofford, Green Bay, Wis., writes: "Foley Cathartic Tablets are the best laxative I ever used. They take the work promptly and with no bad after effect."

NEW JUGGLE IN DIAMONDS

Mutes Are Believed Also to Have Substituted Cheaper Gems

York, Pa., Nov. 17.—A ten-cent imitation substituted for a $35 diamond ring in a tray shown them at the jewelry store of F. Proctor Donahay is the latest charge against John Wooley and Thomas Meehan, deaf mutes, arrested here last Saturday each with a diamond ring concealed under his tongue. The substitution was not discovered until the police visited the store to inquire whether the pair had been there.

Thirty Head of Cattle Killed

Marietta, Nov. 17.—Thirty head of fine cattle, which were affected with the mouth and hoof disease on the David M. Eyer farm, just north of town, were killed yesterday morning. Mr. Shank, the tenant on the farm, while assisting to dispatch the cattle, was badly injured by being thrown by a cow, which, after being led into the

FOUR BURNED IN MINE

Injured by Premature Blast in Colliery at Wilkes-Barre

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Nov. 17.—Four men were burned seriously in a premature explosion in the Stanton colliery of the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal Company yesterday.

They were working in an open vein and had drilled a hole and filled it with powder. Before they left the chamber there was a blinding flash and the men were hurled about. First aid corps went to their rescue, and it was necessary to dig some of the men from under a fall of coal and rock.

Splinter in Hand Twelve Years

Marietta, Nov. 17.—Twelve years ago J. H. Mathiot was employed by Contractor Breneman as a carpenter when he ran a splinter into his left hand. The splinter could not be removed. Several weeks ago the hand began to fester and after the wound was lanced yesterday a splinter one-eighth of an inch long was taken out.

Dies From Fall Downstairs

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Nov. 17.—John Glow, aged 40 years, of Nanticoke, died at a hospital here early yesterday as a result of injuries sustained when he fell down a flight of stairs at his home Sunday. He stepped from his room out on a stair landing, and missing his footing plunged down the stairs, fracturing his skull.
