LATE WAR NEWS SUMMARY

In Serbia the Austrian advance is being carried on according to Vienna reports, with further success. Accounts of the fighting in Belgium, official and otherwise, dwell upon the frightful hardships which the men in the water soaked trenches are called upon to endure, and the great loss of life.

One such report comes from a British correspondent who estimates the German casualties in the last four days at 100,000.

The French official communication of to-day after emphasizing the violent character of the cannonading new in progress, mentions a few localities in Belgium and along the Aisne where German infantry attacks were made.

The fighting along the eastern boundary of Germany is of a different character. There is nothing there to correspond with the endless lines of trenches which stretch across France.

Little news of an official character was received from the Russian fields of battle. Private advices from Petrograd, however, dispute the German claims to success in Russia Poland, asserting that the German offensive movement has failed.

Russia admits the truth of recent Turkish statements that the invaders from the north had been driven back. The Russian advance guard, it is announced officially, has been forced to halt its march on Erzurum, the Turkish town near the eastern end of the Black sea.

British claims to victory in fighting with Turks at Fao, a town in the Persian gulf, are disputed at Constantinople, where it is announced officially that the English were repulsed with the loss of 1,000 men.

General Christian De Wet, one of the rebel leaders in British South Africa, is reported to have been wounded in the head. His followers, it is said, lack arms and are dispirited.

ALL SUBJECTS OF ENEMY MUST LEAVE FRANKFORT

London, Nov. 17, 5:47 A. M.—The Amsterdam correspondent of Reuter's Telegram Company sends the following: "The Berlin 'Vorwarts' announces that the prefect of police at Frankfurt has issued an order to the effect that all subjects of hostile countries, irrespective of age or sex, must leave the town and district of Frankfurt by the evening of November 24.

They are free to go where they like, with certain restrictions. For example, they are not allowed to go to Berlin or certain other towns. "They must inform the police forthwith where they intend to go and if they are found in Frankfurt after the 24th they will be arrested and interned at a concentration camp. The only exceptions which will be made will be in the case of people who are seriously ill or those whose friendliness is guaranteed by well known Germans. Others are permitted to return to their own countries except Russians, especially Russian agricultural laborers, who will not be allowed to leave Germany for the present."

SIMPLY BREATHE IT

That's the Way You Use Hyomei, the Safe Catarrh Remedy. The most pleasant, easiest, harmless, and the really sensible method for the cure of catarrh is Hyomei, which can be had from any drug store. Just put twenty drops of the liquid in the small inhaler that comes with every complete outfit—then breathe it. A few minutes' use almost instantly clears the head and stops that annoying sniffing. When using Hyomei every particle of air that enters the breathing organs is charged with an antiseptic, healing balsam that destroys the catarrh germs, stops the unclean discharges from the nose, relieves the irritation and quickly heals the sore and inflamed tissues. The first day's use of Hyomei will show a decided improvement no matter how distressing the trouble. Catarrh, which usually begins with a neglected cold, often becomes a very serious ailment, so don't wait but start using Hyomei to-day—it is inexpensive and H. C. Kennedy always sells it on the "No-cure-no-pay" plan. Adv.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Look Young! Nobody Can Tell If You Use Grandmother's Simple Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy. Amsterdam, Via London, Nov. 17, 8 A. The bodies, the letter says, were laid next to each other in three layers. These men were killed, it is stated, during a battle lasting only a few hours.

"DREAM OF THE ORIENT" IS A BIG SURPRISE AT THE COLONIAL

One of the Players in "Dream of the Orient"

Practically unheralded, a gorgeous musical and dancing playlet called "A Dream of the Orient," slipped into the Colonial yesterday and scored a triumph that was easily the most successful of the Colonial's whole career. Such clever talent and gorgeous scenery hasn't been seen before at the Colonial and each of the ensemble numbers, either vocal or dancing, was applauded to the echo by capacity audiences last evening. As one would glean from its title, "A Dream of the Orient," that the piece is distinctly foreign. One first sees a youth inhaling an opium pipe and he soon sleeps and dreams. Gradually a beautiful scene comes into view which is seen through a transparent screen, growing more vivid as the lights are heightened. Posing and reclining among elegant stage settings, representing the interior of a Turkish harem, is a bevy of the pretty girls. They soon break into songs and dances, their numbers being in keeping with the scene. The dreamer soon arises and joins the fun-makers, and he is a dancer of uncommon ability, too. Fine voices, pleasing players, an unusual theme and real talent make "A Dream of the Orient" an attraction of merit and beauty. Mr. Makarouk, who has just launched the production into vaudeville, is himself an actor and singer of ability. At the Colonial last evening he said he has been identified with grand opera for a number of years, but just before he produced this act he had to fulfill a contract with the Lubin Moving Picture Company, with which he has been associated for the last two years. At the Colonial he is directing the music for his act from the orchestra pit. During the action of the piece he sings a number of remarkable range and volume. The audience responded warmly to his efforts. "A Dream of the Orient" should not be overlooked by local vaudeville "fans" for it is far from the beaten path. Adv.
