

COLD GONE! HEAD CLEAR AND NOSE OPEN--IT'S FINE! "Pape's Cold Compound" Ends Colds and Grippe in a Few Hours

Take "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until you have taken three doses, then all gripe misery goes and your cold will be broken. It promptly opens your clogged-up nostrils and the air passages of the head; stops nasty discharge or nose running; relieves the headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffing. Ease your throbbing head--nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Accept no substitute. Adv.

Thin Men and Women Here's a Safe Easy Way to Gain 10 to 30 lbs. of Solid, Healthy, Permanent Flesh Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say, "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good, nourishing food." The reason is just this: You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of your food instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

NOVEMBER JOE The Detective of the Woods by Hesketh Prichard

November was audibly sympathetic, and so was I. "Then one day this notion came to me. I planned it all out and got Hank to help. (I'd have asked you, dear Joe, if you'd been there.) Come now, Joe, you must see how good a pupil I was to you and how much I remembered of your tracking, which I used to both-er you to teach me."

"You're right smart at it, Miss Virginia!" "I arranged the broken rod, and Hank and his brother carried me to the canoe. Then they got out on the other side of the lake, and I paddled up near to the rock by the waterfall to get the police or whoever should be sent after me off my trail. I'm real hurt I didn't deceive you, Joe."

"But you did right through--till you come to Black lake," Joe assured her. "But you did not recognize me then?" she cried. "And I'd put on a pair of Hank's moccasins to make big tracks!" November explained and added the story of his dismissal by Plans.

"Well, it's lucky you were there, anyhow, or we'd have had poor Hank shot. That fixed me in my determination to get the money. I want it for Walter. I want to make up to him for all that my father has made him lose." "So Mr. Calvey is in this too?" said Joe in a queer voice.

"If you mean that he knows anything about it, you're absolutely wrong!" exclaimed Virginia passionately. "If he knew, do you think he'd ever take the money? It's going to be sent to him without any name or clew as to where it comes from. Walter is as straight a man as yourself, Norember Joe!" she added proudly.

"No! But I'll get it in time." And in the end Miss Virginia triumphed. She received her ransom in full, and it is to be doubted if Mr. Plans ever had an idea of the trick played on him. And I'm inclined to think Mr. Walter Calvey is still in the dark, too, as to the identity of his anonymous friend. But two things are certain--Mrs. Virginia Calvey is a happy woman, and Hank Harper is doing well on a nice 200 acre farm for which he pays no rent.

CHAPTER X. The Hundred Thousand Dollar Robbery. "I WANT the whole affair kept un-official and secret," said Harris, the bank manager.

ination of the vicinity. A few yards brought them to the end of Atterson's tracks. "Here's where he slept," said Hobson. "It's all pretty clear. He was dog tired and just collapsed. I guess that was last night. It's an old camping place, this. But where has he cached the bank's property?"

For upward of an hour Hobson searched every conceivable spot. But not so November Joe, who, after a couple of quick casts down to the river, made a fire, put on the kettle and lit his pipe.

"There's nothing cached round here, and his trail stops right where he slept. He never moved a foot beyond that nor went down to the river, 100 yards away. The chap's either cached them or handed them to an accomplice on the back trail. I'm thinking he'll confess, all right, when I get him alone."

Joe pointed to it. The paddle had evidently, I thought, fallen from the canoe, for the impression it had left on the soft surface was very slight. "How long ago was the canoe here?" "At first light--maybe between 3 and 4 o'clock," said Joe.

Mozart's Delusion During the last months of his life Mozart imagined a man stood always by him to compel him to compose his own requiem. Mozart played his harp-lishord when three years of age, and at six made a concert tour of Vienna. Extremely nervous, the musician was so weak that at times he would faint without any apparent cause.--New York Telegram.
