With a Little Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet, the Secret of Perfect Digestion

You should see our farmers and their boys eating in the fields. On the farm five meals a day is the rule. No one ever has stomach trouble because meals are digested and people live normally.

Farmer's Boy—"Just think of brother Joe in the city. He can't eat. Why, a sandwich like this would kill him." A majority of people have come to know the blessings which an occasional use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets confer upon the stomach.

Go to your druggist to-day and buy a box. A small sample package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will be mailed free to any one who will address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich. Adv.

MISS LILLIE WALTON AND ROBERT T. FOX MARRIED

Wedding Was an Event of Last Evening Taking Place in the Zion Lutheran Church of Hummelstown—Many Out of Town Guests

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at 7 o'clock last evening at Zion Lutheran church, Hummelstown, when Miss Lillie S. Walton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen K. Walton, of Hummelstown, was united in marriage with Robert T. Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Fox, of Hummelstown. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Herbert S. Ganes, of the Zion Lutheran church, Hummelstown, and by the Rev. D. Burt Smith, of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Easton, and formerly pastor of the church in Hummelstown.

The church was beautifully decorated with potted plants, ferns and cut flowers, the color scheme being pink and white. Mr. Otto Kraus, Jr., of Philadelphia played Wagner's "Bridal Chorus" as the bridal party entered the church and Mendelssohn's March as they left.

The bride was dressed in white satin and carried a shower bouquet of white orchids, white roses and lilies of the valley. Her attendants carried out the color scheme of pink and white. The maid of honor, Miss Caroline E. Walton, sister of the bride, wore a pink crepe de chene dress and a very pretty head dress of pink tulle and pink ostrich tips and carried a shower bouquet of Killarney roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Hilpa S. Schram, of Columbia; Miss Margaret Shearer, of Carlisle; Miss Virginia Daddow, of Saint Clair; Miss M. Virginia Fox, of Hummelstown, and sister of the groom, all wore soft white gowns and headresses of pink tulle and white ostrich tips and carried pink chrysanthemums.

The best man was A. Ross Walter, of Harrisburg, and the ushers were Thomas G. Fox, brother of the groom; Paul A. Sykes, of Lancaster; Phil S. Moyer, of Harrisburg, and Elmer E. Erb, of Mockersville.

At 8:30 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Walton entertained about 200 of their friends at a reception followed by a dance at their home, Locust Farm. The house and ball room were beautifully decorated with greens and cut flowers, pink and white chrysanthemums predominating.

Among the guests in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Walton, Robert A. Walton, Miss Lillie Gochmann, Henry O. Deshoug, Miss Susie E. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Gay, Jr., and Mrs. John H. Gay, Jr., Miss C. Beatrice B. Fox, Dr. and Mrs. Webster L. Fox, Mrs. Harry H. Boyd, Miss M. Mary Ellen, Miss Ethel Schleiner, Miss Mary Lady, Mrs. Annie M. Leech, Miss Louise Taggart, Mrs. George Boyd, all of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Walton, Miss Virginia Walton, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Elkinton, Miss Anna Elkinton, Miss Anna Walton, Mrs. Elizabeth Warrington, all of Moylan; Miss Ruth Lemaster, Miss Dorothy Lemaster, of Lancaster; Miss Esther Mather, of Alliance, Ohio; Judge and Mrs. S. SKIN ERUPTION ALL OVER BABY

Kept Spreading. Disfigured for Time. Could Not Sleep at Night. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Completely Healed.

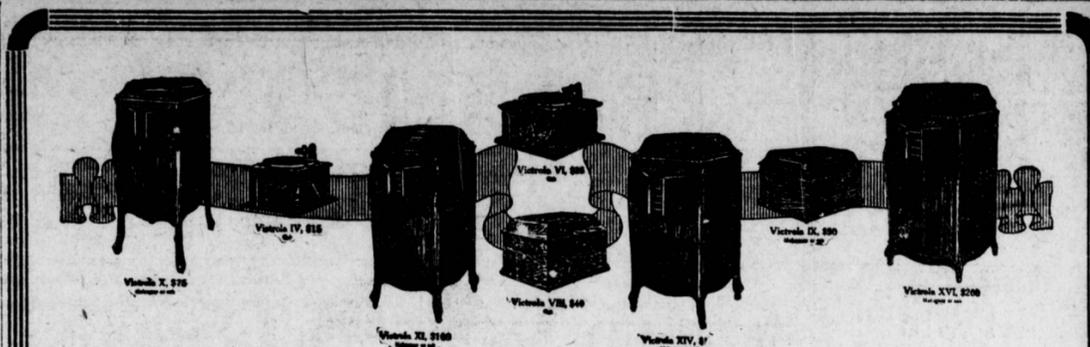

Eighty-four, Pa.—"My baby girl was three weeks old when the trouble began. It started with little white blisters on her hands and kept spreading. The tops of the blisters would get rubbed off and the water from them would make more blisters. They were all over her hands, arms and face and the upper part of her body, around the neck and shoulders. Her clothes would rub against them and make them all red. It disfigured her for the time being and seemed to annoy her for she cried and could not sleep at night.

"I got medicine and tried—and an—and several home remedies but they did not help her. A neighbor told me about Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I saw them advertised and sent for a sample. They seemed to afford relief almost at once. I sent my husband for a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment and her cure is now complete." (Signed) Mrs. Mabel Chester, Mar. 6, 1914.

Samples Free by Mail To allay itching and irritation of the scalp, prevent dry, thin and falling hair and remove crusts, scales and dandruff. BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

N. G. P. INSPECTOR'S REPORT

More Attention to Hair Cutting and Shaving Would Improve Appearances, Says Major Taggart

Major M. H. Taggart, inspector of the Fourth brigade National Guard, has made his report of the inspection of the National Guard while in camp to Inspector General Sweeney, and it has been made public from headquarters.

With it is the report of Colonel H. S. Williams, chief of ordnance who inspected the artillery, and who points out a few things that were not just proper. He says the personal appearance of the men is much improved.

As to the cavalry and infantry, Major Taggart pays attention to personal appearance, condition of clothing and condition of arms. He says a scale of efficiency ranging from 70, very bad, to 100, indicating the best attainable under conditions was observed by him in the ratings.

"All organizations," he says, "could have improved their appearance by more attention to hair cutting and shaving." Hats were not worn in a uniform manner; some of the uniforms were old and worn; some belts were unsatisfactory; some civilian shoes were worn, and military shoes were damaged by cutting. Unwarranted neglect of arms was apparent. The first sergeant and quartermaster sergeant are held responsible for conditions.

Among the ratings the Governor's Troop gets 95.5 for personal appearance; 96 for condition of clothes, 97.5

for condition of arms, and 93 for books and papers.

Company D, Eighth regiment, gets 96.6 for personal appearance; 97 for condition of clothing; 97.5 for condition of arms, and 97 for books and papers.

Company I, Eighth regiment, gets 95 for personal appearance; 97 for condition of clothing; 97.5 for condition of arms, and 97 for books and papers.

Company K, Eighth regiment, gets 100 for the three first items and 95 for the fourth.

WILL HOLD DANCING CONTEST

Sam Alles and Anna M. Smith Will Make Debut in Vaudeville

Sam Alles and Anna M. Smith, dancing instructor, of Atlantic City, but who have appeared in the local dance halls, are going on the vaudeville stage. They have been in Harrisburg for several weeks and in that time have given dancing exhibitions in several Harrisburg halls. So much favorable comment has been made about their dancing, that Manager Hopkins has induced them to give a public exhibition in the Colonial Theatre for one night only. Their turn will be an "extra" attraction, taking the place of the weekly "surprise" that always is furnished patrons of that theatre on Friday night.

In other words next Friday night will be "tango night" at the Colonial. Along with the regular vaudeville performance, these local dancers will first give an exhibition of some of the latest steps. They will then invite dancers from the audience to go on the stage to indulge in a contest. Alles and his dancing partner will conduct the contest and decide the winners.

GIRLS! GIRLS! YOU MUST TRY THIS! DOUBLES BEAUTY OF YOUR HAIR

For 25 Cents You Can Make Your Hair Lustrous, Fluffy and Abundant

Immediate!—Yes! Certain!—that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it. Adv.
