HOUSEHOLD TALKS

Henrietta D. Grauel

The Waste Product

City dwellers, more than rural folks, realize that the products allowed to waste on the farms of this country are sufficient to keep those who want for food in comfort.

Our government admits we are the worst wasters of any nation and it is sending a specialist into rural communities to teach the gospel of using what is generally lost on the farms.

BOY ON LARK SLEW FARMER

Had Been Drinking With Comrades and Only Meant to Scare Hay-Wagon Driver

Greensburg, Pa., Nov. 18.—It was I who fired the bullet that killed Arthur Wedge, the farmer, near Latrobe, Thursday night; but I did not commit murder intentionally.

"Yes," said the boy, who bears many traces of dissipation, "I fired the bullet that killed Mr. Wedge, and I will tell you how it occurred. John Showalter, Eddie Blusky, Tom Shaffer, Wilson Burley and myself secured a case of beer early in the evening and went out in an automobile over the Derry road to drink the beer."
