

P. A. makes men smoke hungry

Just you get a whiff of "the national joy smoke" and it's dollars to doughnuts you beat it 'cross lots to the nearest store that sells tobacco—and stock up! The flavor and aroma of Prince Albert has got 'em all backed off the boards. It sure will hit the spot with you. Get the drift of that?

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

just does all that we say it will do. It can't bite your tongue and it can't parch your throat. All this is because P. A. is made by a patented process that cuts out the bite! Why, this process has simply revolutionized smoking tobacco.

Prince Albert rolls up the bulliest makin's cigarette you or any other man ever smoked. It puts the jolt of joy right into your system.

You can just do "makin's" sunrise to sunset and have a lot of fun. Why, P. A. in a cigarette is absolutely a revelation. You go to it!

Buy Prince Albert everywhere; in the toppy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c; also in pound and half-pound humidor.

$18,000 FOR BRESNAHAN

Roger Put Name to Cub Contract as Manager for Three Years—O'Day May Umpire

Chicago, Nov. 20.—The terms under which Roger Bresnahan signed to manage the Cubs, according to newspapers quoting a "trustworthy source," include a salary of $3,000 as player and $12,000 as manager, or $15,000 a year. A clause providing that the new manager cannot be dethroned without his consent until the expiration of his term also was included.

Speculating on the future of Hank O'Day, deposed as West Side leader to make room for Bresnahan, Chicago fans believe he will again join President Tener's staff of umpires. Upon his retirement as Cincinnati manager he resumed his place as umpire during 1912. Newspapers also published yesterday a report that Jimmy Archer, the Cub catcher, is considering an offer from the Buffalo Federals. He refused to discuss the rumor.

YALE TO RETURN $21,000

Total Admissions Sold Are 69,000 While 10,500 Are Refused—Seats Were Added

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 20.—Yale ticket authorities are sending back to applicants $21,000 that had been mailed for tickets. Instead of the expected difficulty in filling the new bowl for the Harvard game, 9,000 seats were added temporarily making the total 53,000, and 10,500 applicants were refused opportunity for admission.

Yale bowl was started in November, 1913, by A. William Sperry, a local contractor, after plans by Charles A. Ferry, a local architect. The bowl is 930 feet long and 750 feet wide, covering 12 acres, with a playing field 300 feet by 500 feet. There are 60,817 regular spectators' seats beside 249 seats in the press stands.

The bowl is built 27 feet below ground level and 27 feet above or 54 feet from gridiron to top seat. The inner face is protected by concrete laid in a series of steps. Allowing a year for the portion above ground to settle. Only the lower is concrete, the other being temporarily faced with wood. Plans are contemplated for a steel superstructure to hold 40,000 seats additional.

Yale bowl cost $400,000. The upkeep alone of the old field was $10,000 each year.

THE WELSH-DUFFY FIGHT

Opinion Divided Between a Draw and a Shade for Latter

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 20.—Freddie Welsh, world's champion lightweight, fought a ten-round bout with Jimmy Duffy, of Lockport, here last night, upon the result of which opinion was divided between a draw and a shade for Duffy.

The third and fourth rounds were slow. The fifth round Welsh was slow. In the sixth Duffy staggered Welsh with a right across and put a solid left to face. Welsh came back with a punch that opened up Duffy's ear in a fierce exchange.

In the eighth round Welsh was at his best, the champion landing solid lefts to face and rights to body repeatedly. He also had the better of some of his fast fighting. The ninth round Welsh was very fast, both men apparently trying for a knockout, but neither found a spot that gave a decided advantage.

ODDS FAVOR CRIMSON

Hundreds Leave Cambridge for New Haven for Big Game

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 20.—Undeterred by prospects of muddy roads and possibly snow in some of the country districts hundreds of Harvard students and graduates to-day sent their motor cars splashing over the pavements soaked by last night's downpour on their way for New Haven where to-morrow they will watch the Crimson eleven in its final struggle of the season in the Yale bowl. Other hundreds prepared to go by special trains this afternoon. The linemen and guards of the football squad took an early train for New London where they were to join the players who went ahead yesterday and planned to get a little practice on the baseball grounds.

Harvard men expressed full confidence in the ability of their team to defeat Yale, and the betting odds here were 10 to 8 on Harvard.

STEELTON INVADERS CITY FOR GAME WITH TECH HIGH

Big Maroon Team at Last Has a Worthy Opponent in a Local Game—Real Football Struggle in Prospect—Big Crowd Expected

For the first time this season the big Tech eleven will have for an opponent in a local game one worthy of its steel. While the team has been making football history away from home, it has had very little chance to show in this city against worthy opposition.

The game scheduled with Steelton for the Tri-State grounds on the Island to-morrow afternoon will likely prove such a game and fans can find real football or the hope is all wrong. While Tech, in the matter of comparative scores has a better record, still it will be remembered that it was against Tech that Steelton first showed anything like football ability in a former game in Steelton. Taggart's crew surprised the local team to the extent that they had a touchdown to overcome to win.

As a football strategist Taggart is about the best in this section of the

ACADEMY IS SUCCESSFUL

Two Football Opponents Were Not in Local School's Class—Fine Team Next Year

The Harrisburg Academy team, having won two of its scheduled games this season, has scored twenty-five points to its opponents' ninety. Two of the eleven were not academy representatives and could not be placed in the Harrisburg team's class, and the season, therefore, has proven a success. Coach Taten is satisfied with the season's result.

He will be able to start again next year with more veterans as a nucleus as only the backfield men will be lost to the team by graduation. There is every promise of a successful eleven next year as the second team this season showed promise. The summary of the season's games follow:

October 10—Hummelstown High school 12, Academy 0, Academy field.
October 17—Open date.
October 24—Gettysburg Academy 6, Academy 13, Academy field.
October 31—Franklin and Marshall Academy 46, Academy 0, at Lancaster.

November 7—Yeates school, 0, Academy 12, Academy field.
November 14—Lebanon Valley College reserves 25, Academy 0, Academy field.

The chief fault with Central High against Steelton in the last game was poor headwork and if the Tech general can use his head and take advantage of his enemy's mistakes or continue a play that is getting by in a certain position in the line the victory will stay here.

Both schools will be out in force and bands will make merry during the game. Excellent policing arrangements have been made and everything for the accommodation of the spectator has been arranged.

NO NEED TO FEAR MEAT IN HOOF AND MOUTH DISEASE

No Affected Cattle Are Slaughtered in Federally Inspected Establishments—Thorough Cooking Will Render Uninspected Meat Thoroughly Safe

Washington, Nov. 20.—According to the specialists of the Department of Agriculture people even in States quarantined for the foot and mouth disease, need have no fear of eating meat, provided they cook it thoroughly. The foot and mouth disease is not easily communicated to human beings through food, although milk from a diseased cow might transmit the disease to a human being. In the case of milk, however, pasteurization will render it entirely safe. Human beings who do get the disease commonly get it from direct contact with a sick animal. It is wisest, therefore, for people to keep away from all animals having the disease, unless they are properly provided with rubber gloves, coats and boots, and these are thoroughly disinfected after each visit to the animals.

In the case of meat, as in the case of milk, it must be remembered that all herds which actually show the disease are quarantined, and neither milk nor meat from the sick animals can be sold. Sixty per cent. of the meat used in this country is produced in the nearly 900 federally inspected slaughtering and packing establishments located in 240 cities. In these establishments no animal is slaughtered until it has passed an ante-mortem inspection and also a most rigid post-mortem inspection by a veterinarian at time of slaughter. After slaughter its meat cannot leave the establishment until it has been carefully examined and stamped "U. S. Inspected and Passed." In all these establishments no animal showing any symptoms whatever of foot and mouth disease is allowed to go to slaughter, and no meat which, on post-mortem inspection, shows any suspicious symptoms of this complaint can be shipped out of the establishment. All meat suspected of coming from an animal suffering with this complaint is sent, under government seal, to the tanks to be rendered into fertilizer. The federal inspection stamp on meat, therefore, means that it is entirely safe.

The federal government, however, has no jurisdiction over local slaughterhouses which do not ship meat outside of the State in which it is slaughtered. If, however, meat from such an animal did escape from one of these local slaughter houses, which are purely under State or municipal control, all danger of its communicating the disease to human beings would be removed when it is thoroughly cooked and sterilized. Those who are located near an infected region and wish to be absolutely certain of the safety of their meat should cook it thoroughly.

The disease when contracted by adults is not at all a serious illness. It commonly takes the form of slight fever sores in the mouth and a slight eruption on the fingers. In the case of small or sickly children, it may take a more serious form, especially if complicated by other illness.

THE YALE-HARVARD GAME

Finishing Touches Added To-day for the Annual Clash To-morrow

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 20.—The finishing touches were added to-day in the preparation of the Yale and Harvard football teams for their annual clash to-morrow in the new Yale bowl. The Yale kickers will have final practice in the bowl and the entire team will afterwards, it was expected, line up on the old field for a signal drill.

After this drill the substitutes, in breaking training, will toss into a bonfire on the field their discarded football equipment, according to time-honored custom.

The squad of Harvard kickers which was at the Yale bowl yesterday and which returned later to New London, was joined by the remainder of the team there to-day. The entire squad will come to New Haven to-morrow forenoon.

R. BENNETT, ACADEMY CAPTAIN

Six Members of This Year's Team Will Be Lost Through Graduation

Ruben Bennett was elected captain of the Harrisburg Academy football team yesterday afternoon. He was the unanimous choice and was elected. After the team had its picture taken. The Academy expects to have a good team next year with the return of Ross, an end; Wallis, the center; W. Bennett, a guard; Hoke, a guard, and R. Bennett, with several members of the second team, providing good material. Coach Taten is much pleased with the prospects for a winning team.

Those members of this year's team who graduate are: Saltsman, Holler, Holmes, Jennings, White and Harlack.

The basketball team has been practicing hard in the gym every day after school. The first game will probably be December 5, although Manager Jeffers has not yet announced the schedule.
