THE BIG BATTLE IN WEST POLAND

Conflict Is in Full Progress but No Definite Decision Has Yet Been Reached

MEAGRE NEWS OF THE STRUGGLE

Fighting Previously Reported Eastward of Masurian Lakes Seems to Have Been Merely Preliminary to General Engagement Along Whole Line

Berlin, via The Hague and London, Nov. 20, 2:49 A. M.—The great battle in West Poland is in full progress. Official reports state that no decision has yet been reached but otherwise no definite details are known here of this titanic struggle which far overshadows the conflict on the west front.

The engagements previously reported eastward of the Masurian lakes, at Soldau, Lipo, Wiclawek and Czacow seem to have been merely preliminaries to a general engagement along the whole line. The German bulletin mentions fighting northward of Lodz while the Austrians report the advance of their army northward from Craow and it is evident that the allies and the Russians are engaged in the center along a north and south line. Hence it seems that the Teutonic allies are leveling a concentric attack from three directions against the Russian force.

Favorable to Dual Monarchy

How the struggle is progressing is utterly unknown here. The newspaper critics interpret conditions as generally favorable to the Austro-Germans and assert that the German advance beyond Miawa and the vicinity of Plock has eliminated danger of an invasion of east and west Prussia except by such cavalry forces as are operating northward of Eydkuhnen, in East Prussia, on the Russian border. These, however, are only raiders.

Major Morait, the military critic of the "Tagblatt," declares that General Von Hindenburg's advance south of the Vistula, has exercised effective pressure on the whole Russian right wing and deflected it southward from its natural line of retreat on Warsaw. The chief fighting is now proceeding to the southeast and east of Kutno, between Lodz and Lowicz, on the Bezura river. The situation, Major Morait says, gives the Germans ground for hope of complete success, particularly since strong Russian forces operating north of the Vistula against the line from Thorn to Miawa have driven back against the line of the River Bug.

Gives Credit to Austrian Armies

Major Morait gives full credit to the co-operation of the Austrian armies, which by their offensive from Craow has drawn upon themselves strong Russian forces and have prevented their detachment against the Germans in the north. The Austrians, he says in a self-sacrificing policy, have throughout played the game conscientiously and subordinate their own particular interests to those of the general campaign.

Emperor William has telegraphed General Von Hindenburg the imperial thanks for the victory of great promise in the first operations of the battles in West Poland and has sent greetings and his gratitude to the troops of the east army for their unparallelled deeds of marching and fighting.

"My best wishes accompany you for the coming days," he said in conclusion in his message to the soldiers.

THE LACK OF FOODSTUFFS IS FELT THROUGHOUT AUSTRIA

Rome, Nov. 19, 9:45 P. M.—Reports from Trieste telegraphed from the frontier say that the lack of foodstuffs is felt throughout Austria.

The abolition of the duty on grain, which was opposed by the Agrarian party, was granted too late by the government to be of service as Rumania, the only neutral state that could easily export grain into Austria, has prohibited its export. But little grain, it is stated, is reaching Austria from America and Argentina because of the Anglo-French blockade.

YOU CAN'T BRUSH OR WASH DANDRUFF

The Simplest and Quickest Way Is to Dissolve It

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this to-night, and by morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustreless, glossy, silky and soft, and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to preserve your hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair more quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it straggly, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everyone notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

WINTER'S BLASTS SUSPENDS ACTION IN WEST FLANDERS

Bruges, via Sluis to London, Nov. 20, 3:31 A. M.—Quiet reigns in West Flanders. The sudden and violent coming of winter has caused a suspension of hostilities. The Yser region now has a temperature of that of the New England coast of a bleak, windy December day.

In this weather the armies are compelled to live in the devastated territory where there are no houses to give shelter or warmth. Physical numbness, not military exhaustion, has caused the temporary lull in the battle.

Many cannon and automobiles have been lost in new inundations.

FRENCH FIGHT TO DRIVE GERMANS FROM FOOTHOLD ON LEFT BANK OF MEUSE

Desperate fighting is occurring opposite St. Mihiel, the French endeavoring to drive the Germans from their last foothold on the left bank of the Meuse, in the village of Chauvencourt. The French captured some houses in this village and announce officially that they still retain them. The Germans to impede their progress have blown up the western part of the village, after mining it. The German wedge in this region is very thin, not more than two or three miles, and reaches east to Metz and north to a point between Etain and Verdun.

SUPERIOR NUMBERS OF RUSSIANS NO TERROR TO GEN. VON HINDENBURG

Berlin, via The Hague and London, Nov. 20, 5:21 A. M.—The Russians have numbers on their side but numbers alone are not the decisive factor. In the present stage of the war, less than ever before, we are not afraid of Russian numerical superiority. At Tannenberg the Russians outnumbered us three to one yet the result was a notable German victory.

These are the views of General Von Hindenburg, now facing the great Russian war machine, as expressed in conversation with the Berlin correspondent of the "Neue Freie Presse," of Vienna.

"The Russians," said General Von Hindenburg, "are good soldiers and observe discipline, but discipline of another sort than that of the Austro-German which is based on thinking and the execution of command, while the Russian discipline is a mere blind, dull obedience."

"The Russians have learned much since the Japanese war, particularly in the science of entrenching, but when the ground is frozen they will no longer be able to dig themselves in. Then they will have a bad time of it. That is one of the advantages the winter campaign brings us.

"It is a sad but good thing that war and sentimentality do not go together. The merciful conduct of war is in the end the most merciful because war is soonest ended thereby.

"The war with Russia is now chiefly a question of whose nerves will snap first. If Austria and Germany have stronger nerves—and they have them—then they will be victorious."

Says War Loan Is Oversubscribed

London, Nov. 20, 3:50 A. M.—The "Daily Chronicle" asserts that the new war loan already has been oversubscribed and that the applications are still pouring in. According to the "Chronicle" the amount spoken for aggregates 600,000,000 pounds ($3,000,000,000). The total loan amounts to $1,750,000,000.

Promoted for Bravery on Field

Paris, Nov. 20, 4:25 A. M.—Major Adolphe Messimy, at one time Minister of War in the French cabinet and who recently was decorated with the legion of honor for an act of bravery on the battlefield, has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant colonel. The former war minister went to the front at the outbreak of the war as a member of the general staff.

GERMAN NAMES STRICKEN FROM LEGION OF HONOR

Bordeaux, France, Nov. 20.—President Poincare has issued a decree striking from the roll of the Legion of Honor all names of Germans.

"When the French government bestows the decoration of the Legion of Honor upon foreigners," the decree reads, "it does not do so merely in recognition of individual merit, but also and above all, these distinctions are accorded as a mark of homage to the nation to which the foreigners thus decorated belong."

President Poincare asserts that the Germans in conducting war are systematically violating all the rules of international law by acts of cruelty and barbarism without precedent in the history of humanity, which have excited against Germany the universal conscience.
