THE STAR-INDEPENDENT The paper with the largest Home Circulation in Harrisburg and nearby towns.

Circulation Examined by THE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICAN ADVERTISERS.

TELEPHONES: Private Branch Exchange, No. 3280; CUMBERLAND VALLEY, No. 245-246.

Saturday, November 21, 1914.

NOVEMBER calendar table with days of the week and dates.

MOON'S PHASES: Full Moon, 2nd; Last Quarter, 10th; New Moon, 17th; First Quarter, 24th.

WEATHER FORECASTS: Harrisburg and vicinity: Fair and continued cold to-night with lowest temperature about 25 degrees.

YESTERDAY'S TEMPERATURE IN HARRISBURG: Highest, 39; lowest, 26; 8 a. m., 34; 8 p. m., 26.

HOW COLD WEATHER HELPS: Nature often accomplishes good where neither the government nor the politicians can.

A FRENCH PLAYWRIGHT'S VISIT: There was a significance in the presence of Eugene Brieux, French poet and playwright, at the opening session in New York.

MUST OMIT THE WORDS: The painstaking artist, eager to please, remarked to a prospective customer: "I can paint you a portrait of your wife which will be a speaking likeness."

AND CLEVER, TOO: Binks—"Timmins seems like a very unassuming little fellow."

WHICH IS SWITCH?: I can't deny that Rose is fair. She is a winning witch; But she wears so much purchased hair You can't tell which is switch.

REAL TEST: Willie—"Paw, what is a business woman?" Paw—"One who can receive and open a telegram without getting cold feet, my son."

PREFERS THE TAX: "Don't you object to paying this war tax?" "Well, I don't know. But I reckon I'd much rather have the tax than the war."

violation of the provision of the New York labor laws against the employment on public work of men not citizens of the United States. That provision, however, has been a dead letter because the restriction would greatly handicap work of excavation on canals, tunnels and subways, most of which falls to the lot of the aliens.

HELP THE HOSPITAL!

Notwithstanding the exceptional demands on the citizens of Harrisburg to give according to their ability to help relieve the terrible suffering in the European war zone, they should not and will not overlook the requirements of local charitable institutions.

Bags for Thanksgiving contributions are now being distributed and can be obtained by phoning to the hospital. The gifts that are most needed are jellies, canned goods, linens and soap.

And Püchot beat Palmer! The aspirants for nomination for county offices have got their lightning rods up early.

If we were to go to war, the 315,000 hunters who have taken out licenses in Pennsylvania could be made the nucleus of a right formidable army.

A regiment of lancers escorted Mr. Fletcher, the first U. S. Ambassador to Chile, upon his formally assuming that important post.

The will of the Rev. Washington Frothingham, late of Fonda, N. Y., provides that a trusted servant shall have the use of the family bathtub.

TOLD IN LIGHTER VEIN

WHAT DISTINGUISHES AB ADKINS: Ab Adkins is distinguished by the fact that he doesn't claim to be a financial genius who could have made vast fortunes had he had the capital; in fact, Ab goes further and admits he probably would have lost more money in his time had he not inherited poverty from his parents.

ONE WORRY LESS: At all events Europe will shortly have something to worry about besides overpopulation.—Washington Post.

BELGIUM'S DISTINCTION: Belgium, at least, does not have to explain to the world what it is fighting for.—Springfield Republican.

ART IN CLEVELAND: We went up to the Claxton Building the other day to call on an artistic friend. Perhaps we have expressed ourselves badly, we do not refer to a person who makes an art out of friendship, but to one who by his painting gains friends.

A NEW CHINESE PORT: The Vicar's Wife (inquiring after black sheep)—"And how is your son doing since he went to New York?"

MUST OMIT THE WORDS: The painstaking artist, eager to please, remarked to a prospective customer: "I can paint you a portrait of your wife which will be a speaking likeness."

AND CLEVER, TOO: Binks—"Timmins seems like a very unassuming little fellow."

WHICH IS SWITCH?: I can't deny that Rose is fair. She is a winning witch; But she wears so much purchased hair You can't tell which is switch.

REAL TEST: Willie—"Paw, what is a business woman?" Paw—"One who can receive and open a telegram without getting cold feet, my son."

PREFERS THE TAX: "Don't you object to paying this war tax?" "Well, I don't know. But I reckon I'd much rather have the tax than the war."

Tongue-End Topics

Babcock and U. S. Senatorship

A tall, handsome man, apparently in the prime of life, walked down Third street one day this week with insurance Commissioner Johnson, the two having been in consultation at the Capitol. It was E. V. Babcock, the Pittsburgh lumber king, one of the most widely known men in Pennsylvania and one who has been known in the inside circles of the Republican party for a long time.

Farquahar a Conference Visitor

A. B. Farquahar, York manufacturer, who presided at one of the meetings of the Welfare Conference this week, always takes an interest in State affairs, especially those relating to conservation.

'Long Way to Tipperary'

A novelty was introduced in an educational talk in this city recently that developed a new use for the musical and talking machine, and one that struck a popular chord.

Cartoon Gets a Ride

A copy of the "Safety First" cartoon that appeared in the Star-Independent Wednesday afternoon has been having a good time riding up and down in a model elevator in the show window of the Otis Elevator Company.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

A Plea for Correctly Designating Places and Celebrities: Frederick Upham Adams objects in his "Conquest of the Tropics" to the name usually given to the discoverer of America.

WOMAN IN HISTORY

She Appears to Have Got Herself on a Good Name: Some advocates of equal suffrage and feminine progress seem to think that woman has not been given her proper place and due credit in history.

GET RID OF HUMORS AND AVOID SICKNESS

Humors in the blood cause internal derangements that affect the whole system, as well as pimples, boils and other eruptions, and are responsible for the readiness with which many people contract disease.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN

The Star-Independent does not make itself responsible for opinions expressed in this column.

For Your Comfort

For your health's sake—to get rid of the headaches, low spirits, and sufferings caused by indigestion or biliousness, you should take promptly the one remedy specially adapted to relieve these troubles.

Experience,—the safest of guides—proves that Beecham's Pills deserve their unequalled and world-wide fame.

As well as for comfort's sake, you should seek relief from indigestion and biliousness for your safety's sake. Modern authorities agree that most serious sicknesses begin in disorders of the digestive organs, and Beecham's Pills are universally recognized as the best corrective.

BEECHAM'S PILLS For Indigestion and Biliousness. At all Druggists, 10c., 25c.

In American history and Sal Jennings a loller in English history; Meg Merrilies was no slouch. Does Catharine of Russia count for nothing, nor Maria Theresa of Austria, nor Elizabeth and Victoria of Britain, among feminine sovereigns?
