THIRD BARN BELONGING TO W. B. OYLER IS DESTROYED BY FIRE WITHIN A WEEK

Twenty-one head of livestock—ten milch cows, seven calves and four horses—perished in a fire this morning which destroyed the big barn on the W. B. Oyler farm, about one and one-half miles northwest of Camp Hill, Cumberland county. The losses aggregate $5,500, partly insured. The farm is tenanted by P. A. Sowers whose individual loss to stock, crops and farming implements will run close to $2,500, with $1,800 insurance. The loss to the barn, which was comparatively new, having been erected just four years ago, will run close to $3,000, but is covered by insurance.

LOSS IS PLACED AT ABOUT $5,500
