FORMER STAGE BEAUTY SUED FOR SEPARATION

Albert Gallatin Wheeler Jr. son of the Chicago financier of the same name, Mrs. Claudia Carlstedt Wheeler in the Supreme Court of New York. Mrs. Wheeler, who was once widely known on the stage, obtained a separation in 1910, with alimony of $10,000 a year.

When questioned Mrs. Wheeler said she was as yet unaware of the action. 'I have had a great deal of trouble in the last few years," she said, "and it would not surprise me if such a move were made by my husband."

The complaint is sea d. Mrs. Wheeler attributed all of her marital difficulties to having loved her husband too well, when in 1912 he contested her right to receive $10,000 in alimony and succeeded in reducing it to half that sum. Within the present year she said she intended to bring action against the elder Mr. Wheeler for $1,000,000 on the ground that he had alienated her husband's affections. Mr. Wheeler, Sr., was head of the corporatioon which built the Chicago subways, and he has many other interests.

Glazed Earthenware

AND TABLE DAY

AND TA Glazed earthenware was long supposed to be of no more ancient date than the ninth century, but the discovery of glazed ware in Egypt, of glazed bricks in the ruins of Babylon, of glazed coffns and enameled tiles in other ancient cities proves that this is not the case. The Arabs seem to be entitled to the credit of having introduced glazed ware into modern Europe. The Italians are said to have become acquainted with this kind of ware as it was manufactured in the island of Majorca and gave it the name of majolica. The French derived their first knowledge from the Italian manufactory at Faenza and christened it faience.—London Saturday Review. Glazed earthenware was long
