Harrisburg has a "Hallmark" jew-erry store. This store is affiliated with the United Jewelers' Company of New York City, recently incorporated under to $1,500,000. While the principal offices of the company will be located in New York city it is the plan of the officials of the concern to secure the leading jew-eler of every city in the United States as a member of their association. Each member must buy stock in the parent association. The money subscribed will be used to buy merchandise in large quantifies and to import and manufac-ture a line of jewelry specialties all to bear the, Three koff the States have already joined the Corporation. By the co-operation of the "Hallmark" jewelers all articles will be produced in large quantities and sold direct to each "Hallmark" jeweler, thus elimi-nating the middleman's profit. The consumer will be able to pur-chase quality jewelry at a lower price than under the oid methods of buying.
