

SUBURBAN

LEMOYNE

Lutheran Church to Hold Sacred Cantata Thanksgiving Evening

Special Correspondence.

Lemoine, Nov. 24.—Trinity Lutheran church choir, assisted by soloists from Harrisburg and Carlisle, will sing "The Nazarene," a sacred cantata by Charles H. Gabriel in Trinity Lutheran church on Thanksgiving evening. Admission will be free, an offering being taken by the ushers at the door. The proceeds will be applied to the church building fund. Mr. Gahill is one of America's foremost composers and "The Nazarene" is one of his masterpieces.

Mrs. Leslie Kennedy spent a day near Andersontown with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shank and son, George, are spending two weeks with relatives near Yeocumtown, York county.

George Smith, of Camp Hill, visited at the home of his son, David Smith, of Herman avenue.

Jonas Smith, the West Haven avenue grocer, is having erected by Contractor W. E. Bushey, a very fine stable to replace the one destroyed by the recent fire.

Samuel McClure, of Andersontown, York county, visited his daughter, Mrs. Ira Shur.

Mrs. Harvey Portney and daughters, of White Hill, spent Sunday afternoon with friends in town, their former home.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Baker, of near Bowmansdale, spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Walter Wood, and family.

Henry Baker spent Sunday in New York.

Mrs. Paul Suskey, of Bressler, Dauphin county, visited her mother, Mrs. John Heitz, over Sunday.

Mrs. Eli Garrett, who sustained a stroke of paralysis last Sunday evening, is slowly improving.

The hazard held by Mrs. Lightner's sewing class of the Lutheran Sunday school which was held on Friday and Saturday, acknowledge receipts of over $150, which is very encouraging to the young girls and their instructor.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held in Trinity Lutheran church on Thursday at 10.30 a. m. The Rev. Mr. Green, of the United Brethren church, will officiate.

Mrs. Bergstresser, of Lancaster, visited her daughter, Mrs. William Haag, and family over Sunday.

NEW CUMBERLAND

New Market Schools Closed—Teachers Attending Institute at York

Special Correspondence.

New Cumberland, Nov. 24.—The New Market schools are closed this week as the teachers, Wilber Cross and Miss Elizabeth Kunkle are attending the Teachers Institute in York.

Mrs. D. R. Crumlich, of Bridge street, received painful injuries on Sunday evening. She was getting ready to attend church. She turned the electric light off in her bed room and reached to turn one on in the hall to light her down the stairway, when she made a misstep and fell down the long flight of stairs. Her injuries consisted of a broken right arm and a badly sprained left arm. Her physician, Dr. Stem, Lemoine, was summoned, who reduced the fracture.

The Rev. A. R. and Mrs. Ayers were delighted to entertain their married daughters, sons-in-law and children at Trinity U. B. parsonage the past week. They were Prof. and Mrs. B. Frank Green and children, Joseph and Eleanor, of York; Mr. and Mrs. C. Roy Stauffer, of Hazleton, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. John Plough, of Carlisle. Other guests were Professor A. and Mrs. McCune, of Duncannon; Mr. and Mrs.

George Nau, of Harrisburg, was home Sunday.

Joseph Phillips and George Gillingham, of Reading, visited their parents Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Nace, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday with her mother.

Robert Weir, of Philadelphia, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Mary Kinchell.

Miss Margaret Flynn, of Atlantic City, is home on a short vacation.

The high school football team was defeated by the Wisconsin team at Wisconsin Saturday by the score of 6 to 0.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ramsey, of Lykens, visited the former's parents Sunday.

Special Correspondence.

Williamstown, Nov. 24.—Fredie Elmore, of Tampa, Fla., is visiting Thomas Graham.

John Duenger and family visited relatives at Willow on Sunday.

Thomas Morgan, of Philadelphia, visited his mother on East street over Sunday.

George Nau, of Harrisburg, was home Sunday.

Joseph Phillips and George Gillingham, of Reading, visited their parents Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Nace, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday with her mother.

Robert Weir, of Philadelphia, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Mary Kinchell.

Miss Margaret Flynn, of Atlantic City, is home on a short vacation.

The high school football team was defeated by the Wisconsin team at Wisconsin Saturday by the score of 6 to 0.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ramsey, of Lykens, visited the former's parents Sunday.

Special Correspondence.

Elizabethtown, Nov. 24.—A delegation of Philadelphia Masons made a pilgrimage on Saturday to the Masonic Home as the guests of the Grand Master, J. Henry Williams. On their arrival here they were met by Andrew H. Hervey, of Lancaster, and H. C. Schook, of Mt. Joy, members of the Grand Lodge committee, on Masonic Homes. The visitors numbered more than 200, being the worshipful masters, senior and junior wardens of eighty lodges in city have rendered consideration the project of raising money for erecting the hospital which is a part of the plan of the great home. After dinner in the large dining room, Grand Lodge hall, the visitors were taken in automobiles over the estate of nearly a thousand acres. Thirty-two automobiles were used to convey the visitors over the grounds after which they visited Elizabethtown and passed through the principal streets of the borough and were well pleased with the fine and beautiful appearance and homelike aspect of the places.

Thirty-two excursion tickets were sold at railroad station here on Sunday morning for New York.

Two couple hailing from Lancaster paid this place a visit on Saturday morning and while here they tried the speed of their machine in Centre

7c a Day for These FINE WATCHES

The Watch and the Price Defy

All Competitions

Women's and Men's

Open face or Hunting case. These watches fully guaranteed. Elgin or Waltham movement, expansion balance, polished regulator, display winding works, patent self-locking setting device, and rust-proof case guaranteed for 25 years. Perfect in every respect.

Only $14.00

50c a Week—Can You Beat It?

Full Line of Xmas Goods Now on Display

American Watch & Diamond Company

New Location

Cor. Fourth and Chestnut Sts.

Harrisburg

Special Correspondence.

Geary Brenner, of Mechanicsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Hanskehn, of Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Park Hartman, Charles Paden, wife and two children, spent Sunday at the home of Martin Paden near Newville, making the trip in Mr. Hartman's automobile.

Misses Ella and Mary Long, Margaret Elmer and Miss Ethel Watts spent Sunday afternoon and evening with the Misses Sponser, in Steelton.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram Roudybush, of Aspers, Adams county, spent the week end with relatives here.

Donald Bowers, of Harrisburg, spent Saturday and Sunday with his aunt, Mrs. Frank Boush, Fourth street.

Miss Pauline Kircacofe, of Hagerstown, Md., is visiting Miss Amanda Haverstock.

Antonia Dieberta has moved into his new home at Elkwood.

Fred Houck is the champion hog raiser. He butchered two porkers yesterday, the one weighing 325 pounds and the other 380 pounds.

HALIFAX

Boyer Memorial School to Be Dedicated Thanksgiving Day

Special Correspondence.

Halifax, Nov. 24.—Howard Heister has returned to Northumberland after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Heister.

H. B. Radle, of Harrisburg, was in town on Sunday evening.

George W. Bowman is seriously ill at his home on Second street.

Miss Miriam Dunkel, of Steelton, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Heister.

The Boyer Memorial school building will be dedicated with appropriate exercises on Thanksgiving day. There will be a parade in the afternoon and exercises in the afternoon and evening.

Many prominent speakers from a distance will take part in both exercises of the day. All the secret organizations of town will turn out in parade and the people in general will pay tribute to William Harris Boyer, whose generous gift of $30,000 made the new building possible.

WILLIAMSTOWN

High School Football Team Defeated at Wiconisco

Special Correspondence.

Williamstown, Nov. 24.—Fredie Elmore, of Tampa, Fla., is visiting Thomas Graham.

John Duenger and family visited relatives at Willow on Sunday.

Thomas Morgan, of Philadelphia, visited his mother on East street over Sunday.

George Nau, of Harrisburg, was home Sunday.

Joseph Phillips and George Gillingham, of Reading, visited their parents Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Nace, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday with her mother.

Robert Weir, of Philadelphia, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Mary Kinchell.

Miss Margaret Flynn, of Atlantic City, is home on a short vacation.

The high school football team was defeated by the Wisconsin team at Wisconsin Saturday by the score of 6 to 0.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ramsey, of Lykens, visited the former's parents Sunday.

Special Correspondence.

Elizabethtown, Nov. 24.—A delegation of Philadelphia Masons made a pilgrimage on Saturday to the Masonic Home as the guests of the Grand Master, J. Henry Williams. On their arrival here they were met by Andrew H. Hervey, of Lancaster, and H. C. Schook, of Mt. Joy, members of the Grand Lodge committee, on Masonic Homes. The visitors numbered more than 200, being the worshipful masters, senior and junior wardens of eighty lodges in city have rendered consideration the project of raising money for erecting the hospital which is a part of the plan of the great home. After dinner in the large dining room, Grand Lodge hall, the visitors were taken in automobiles over the estate of nearly a thousand acres. Thirty-two automobiles were used to convey the visitors over the grounds after which they visited Elizabethtown and passed through the principal streets of the borough and were well pleased with the fine and beautiful appearance and homelike aspect of the places.

Thirty-two excursion tickets were sold at railroad station here on Sunday morning for New York.

Two couple hailing from Lancaster paid this place a visit on Saturday morning and while here they tried the speed of their machine in Centre square. Traffic Officer Brosey halted them and after much parleying and abusive language, on the part of the driver, the officer arrested him and took him to the office of Squire Giese.

Long's Big White Bear Show will give its first exhibition this evening at the Majestic Theatre.

HUMMELSTOWN

Mother of Reformed Minister Dies at Womelsdorf Home

Special Correspondence.

Hummelstown, Nov. 24.—Mrs. Emma Bausch, mother of the Rev. Robert A. Bausch, pastor of the Reformed church, died Sunday night at her home at Womelsdorf after an illness of several months. The funeral will take place from her late home on Friday afternoon.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society of the United Brethren church will give a name social in the social room of the church on Wednesday evening. An interesting program will be rendered during the evening. The proceeds of the social will be placed in the church building fund.

Dorothy Gohring, the 8-year-old daughter of Mrs. Martin Gohring, is ill with diphtheria and the home on South Rosina street has been quarantined.

Mrs. William Fackler has returned from Canton, Ohio, where she spent several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Leininger.

The body of Mrs. Edward L. Parker, who died at her home in Harrisburg on Thursday, was brought here yesterday for interment in the Hummelstown cemetery.

BERRYSBURG

Services in the United Brethren Church Last Saturday Evening

Special Correspondence.

Berrysburg, Nov. 24.—Harry Deibler, who had been visiting his wife, who is ill in the Harrisburg hospital, returned home Friday.

Mr. Moody, of Treverton, is visiting John Burkitt and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lubold, of Loyaltown, were the guests of Grant Hartman and family on Sunday.

Mrs. John Elmer, of Elizabethville, was the guest of her parents over Sunday.

Mrs. Ralph Strawhecker, of Harrisburg, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Keboch and daughter, Phyllis, motored to Warrior's Mark and are visiting the Rev. Edward Ward and Mrs. Keboch.

Mrs. Emanuel Smink, of Lykens, visited her parents, Jacob Welker, and family.

Harry Andress, of Philadelphia, is visiting at the home of Robert Deibler and family.

Charles Lebo, of Treverton, was in town on Sunday.

Guy Strawhecker, of Harrisburg, visited his father, Daniel Strawhecker.

Mrs. and Mrs. Huyett, of Lancaster, are visiting their son, the Rev. Paul Huyett, and wife for a few days.

The Rev. Edwin Bender, of Williamsport, preached in the United Brethren church, Saturday evening.

MECHANICSBURG

Miss Mary Emma Vogelsong and Clarence Shover Married

Special Correspondence.

Mechanicsburg, Nov. 24.—A quiet home wedding was solemnized at the home of David Vogelsong, South Market street, when his daughter, Miss Mary Emma, and Clarence Shover, of Harrisburg, were married. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. M. Oyer, of Hagerstown, Md., a former pastor of the bride.

On account of a recent death in the family of the groom, the wedding was a very quiet one, only the immediate families and a few intimate friends of the bride and groom were present. Amid a shower of rice and old shoes, Mr. and Mrs. Shover left on the 7.54 train for a wedding trip to Hagerstown, Baltimore and Washington, D. C. On their return they will reside in this place.

Last evening a meeting was held in Franklin hall annex to consider plans for further relief for the Belgians. The meeting was composed of citizens of town and farmers in the county. Plans were made for the collection of provisions to be sent soon to the Belgians.

Miss Mary Bush, teacher of music and drawing in the public schools, left yesterday to spend the week-end with friends in Baltimore. Thanksgiving vacation begins in the local public schools on Wednesday evening.

Miss Emma Hoover, of Battle Creek, Mich., is the guest of her cousin, Miss Lila George, South Market street.

The Rev. J. J. Rosh went to Frederick, Md., yesterday, where he was called by the illness of his mother.

Mrs. Mary Neisley, of Manassas, L. I., is visiting relatives and friends in this place and vicinity.

Living College will have only Thanksgiving Day as a holiday.

George Deitz, who underwent an operation two weeks ago in the Harrisburg hospital, has returned to his home on East Main street and is improving considerably.

LINGLESTOWN

Public Schools Rehearsing for Thanksgiving Entertainment

Special Correspondence.

Linglestown, Nov. 24.—There will be Thanksgiving services held in the United Brethren church on Thursday morning, conducted by the Rev. Clyde Lynch.

The schools of town are rehearsing for an entertainment to be given on Thanksgiving evening. The program will be published later.

John Early is having a new chicken house built on his farm.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barnhardt, 1513 North Fourth street, Harrisburg, entertained at dinner at their home on Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hassler. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Balthaser, Robert Balthaser, Elizabeth Balthaser, of Harrisburg; Mrs. Emory Hassler, of this place, and Samuel Balthaser, of Jersey City, N. J.

George McElhenny, of Harrisburg, visited his sister, Mrs. Annie Smith, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rabuck and daughter, Miss Catherine, of Oberlin, were the week-end guests of the former.

Take Care of Your Eyes and They'll Take Care of You

For advice, consult

W. H. C. Claster, 302 Market Street

Exclusive Patterns in Tea and Chocolate Sets

Our line of tea and chocolate sets are without a doubt

First—The finest quality obtainable;

Second—Of the highest artistic designs;

Third—Our prices are the lowest consistent with the quality we offer.

Our stock is new and complete. Not one, two or three sets, but dozens of sets to select from. Large sets, small sets, medium sets, fancy sets, plain sets—in fact, anything you want. Come in and look over our line over if you want to buy or not. You are always welcome at our store.

H. C. CLASTER

GEMS, JEWELS and SILVERWARE

302 Market Street

mer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rabuck.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ricker and daughter, Miriam, of Hummelstown, spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gay.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fox spent Sunday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Crum, of Lower Paxton.

Miss Anna Pfeiz, of Middletown, was the week-end guest of the Misses Zimmerman.

Lemar Cooper, of Lykens, visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Smith, on Saturday.

Miss Clara Nissley, of Harrisburg, is spending the week-end as the guest of E. O. Hassler and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Reese, of Penbrook, spent Sunday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Lutz.

Miss Susie Look spent Sunday as the guest of Miss Lillian Hain, at Hainton.

Harry Gertrude Nissley spent Saturday with friends at Harrisburg.

Samuel Balthaser, of Jersey City, was the week-end guest of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Balthaser.

J. H. McElhenny, of Harrisburg, on Saturday was a visitor here.

Mrs. Edward Hassler was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Blain Hassler at Penbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hain left on Thursday for a few days' stay with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Walmer, at Pine Grove.

Miss Myrna Speece and Miss Mary Speece, of Penbrook, on Sunday were the guests of Miss Marian Smith.

MIDDLETOWN

Basketball Contests to Be Held in M. A. C. Rooms To-night

Special Correspondence.

Middletown, Nov. 24.—H. O. Keener, of Philadelphia, transacted business in town yesterday.

W. J. Hampton, who spent the past several days in town, returned to his home at Pittsburgh on Sunday.

The lecture given by the Rev. Fuller Bergstresser in the Presbyterian church on the "Vinegar Peddler" was enjoyed by all present.

The union basketball team and the Liberty team and the Tennis Club and Car Shop teams will play in the M. A. C. rooms this evening.

Fully two hundred men were put to work on the traction street yesterday morning by the street company to lay a new track.

Mrs. W. R. Ridington entertained the teachers of the Junior League at the parsonage yesterday afternoon.

Miss Vivian Fritch has returned home from a month's visit to friends at Harrisburg.

Frank Houser spent the day at York Haven on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Strauss, of Reading, spent Sunday in town as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith, Spring street.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a parcel post sale in the vacant room in the Revault block on Saturday, December 19.

Financial donations for the Harrisburg hospital from town will be received up to this evening at Fow's drug store. The bags were sent to town on Saturday and Middletown generally responds liberally.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shoop, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday in town.

The Misses Amy and Mary Crown and niece spent Sunday in New York City as the guests of the former's brother, William Crown, who has been ill for the past several weeks.

William Farmer painted the roof of the residence of B. W. Kurtz, Swatara street.

Jerome Palmer, of Hershey, spent Sunday in town.

William Swartz, of Lebanon Valley College, spent Sunday in town as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Swartz, Spring street.

Mrs. Fuller Bergstresser is ill at her home on Spring street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gross spent Sunday at New York City.

Fred S. Kerr spent Sunday at New York City as the guest of his mother, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nuskey spent Sunday at Penbrook.

The sewing class of the American girls met last evening. Those taking the course are making very good progress under the direction of Miss Sarah Markley.

The Mothers' Congress Circle has purchased a magic lantern to be used in the High school.

DUNCANNON

Special Music for Union Thanksgiving Service Thursday

Special Correspondence.

Duncannon, Nov. 24.—Miss Miriam Jenhyn spent the week-end with friends at Harrisburg.

Scores of our local people have been attending the Stough meeting at Harrisburg.

A Union Thanksgiving service will be held in the Methodist church at 10 o'clock Thursday. Special music is being prepared. The Rev. F. T. Kohler, pastor of the United Brethren church, will deliver the sermon.

Mr. and Mrs. Max B. Lightner announce the birth of a daughter, November 20.

On Wednesday evening everybody is invited to attend an organ recital in the Methodist church to be given by Charles J. Dryfuss, of Philadelphia.

Vernot Lepper has enrolled as a student in a technical school at Lancaster.

Miss Sara Page has returned from a pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. Nelson Zeigler, at Harrisburg.

MILLERSTOWN

Union Thanksgiving Services in the Methodist Church

Special Correspondence.

Millerstown, Nov. 24.—The firemen's festival which was held on Saturday evening was a success. The proceeds amounted to $53.

Miss Alma Howanstein, of Newport, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Perry Ulsch.

William Rounsley went to Harrisburg on Sunday to hear the Rev. Mr. Stough.

Mrs. Emma Ball, a trained nurse in the Polytechnic Hospital in New York City, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nankivelle.

Mrs. Mary Allen is visiting her daughter, Mrs. William Kauffold, in Lancaster.

Union Thanksgiving Day services will be held in the Methodist church on Thursday evening. The Revs. W. H. Dyer and C. F. Himes will make addresses.

AUTO VICTIMS IMPROVING

Both Are Promised Early Recovery in South Bethlehem Hospital

South Bethlehem, Pa., Nov. 24.—

James McCandless and Hugh Miller, the University of Pennsylvania students injured in the grade crossing auto accident here Sunday, were reported yesterday from St. Luke's Hospital to be in good condition, with prospects of early recovery.