MISS KNEISELY'S WEDDING GOWN IS OF CHARMUSE

She Will Become Bride of Paul G. Smith To-morrow Evening—Miss Margaret Stackpole Entertains the Bridal Party at Luncheon

The handsome Kniesely residence at Front and Maclay streets will be the scene of the wedding to-morrow evening of Miss Mary Esther Kniesely, daughter of the late Arch G. and Mrs. Emma Kniesely, to Paul Garfield Smith, a member of the Daughin county bar and son of Mrs. J. K. Smith, 2115 North Second street.

The ceremony will be performed at 6 o'clock in the big parlors, which will be decorated with ferns and chrysanthemums. The Rev. Dr. John D. Fox, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal church, will officiate. The Looser orchestra will play the wedding marches.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her brother, Archibald G. Kniesely, Jr., will wear a gown of Japanese-crope, over white charmeuse, with full court train, and touches of tulle and pearls on the corsage. Her veil, arranged cap fashion, will be caught up by orange blossoms and she will carry a shower of lilies of the valley.

Miss Elizabeth Kniesely, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor and will wear a gown of pale pink velvet and carry bouquet. Mrs. Harry Reilly, of San Antonio, Texas, as matron of honor, will wear fresh-colored charmeuse and net and carry a fan-shaped bouquet of pink buds.

Gowns of the Bridesmaids
Miss Helen Delaney, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Jessie Nicholls, of New York; Miss Janet Sawyer and Miss Margaret Stackpole, of this city, as bridesmaids, will wear gowns of pink panne velvet with touches of fresh-colored tulle and will carry old-fashioned bouquets of pink flowers.

Doland R. McCain, son of Colonel George Nox McCain, a classmate of the bridegroom at Bucknell University, will be best man, and the ushers will be Dr. Harvey F. Smith, Silas H. Schoch, of Sellersgrove; John H. Lenhart and Charles K. Boas.

Following the ceremony there will be a reception and dance, after which the couple will leave for an extended wedding trip through the South. On their return they will be "at home" after January 1 at 2420 North Second street. Mr. Smith is a graduate of Bucknell University, where he played

FACE UNSIGHTLY WITH SKIN TROUBLE

Terrible Itching and Burning. Disfigurement Spread to Arms and Shoulders. Could Not Rest Or Sleep Night or Day. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

1081 Penn St., Reading, Pa.—"My trouble began with a red and swollen appearance of the face and neck accompanied with a terrible itching and burning which was especially distressing during the night. Upon the skin being rubbed with Cuticura Ointment the itching and burning subsided and the disfigurement spread to my arms and shoulders. The pain caused by contact of my clothing was intense especially on my arms. My face became so unsightly that I was compelled to remain indoors all the time. I could not rest in the day time nor sleep at night.

"After four months' unsuccessful treatment with remedies, I read of a similar case being healed by Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I secured a sample at once and experienced the relief I had been promised. In six months I was entirely healed by six cakes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment. (Signed) Miss Nellie Martin, May 7, 1914.

Samples Free by Mail
To prevent falling hair, remove dandruff and scales and allay itching and irritation of the scalp, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are indispensable. Sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Brown-Moore Wedding
Miss Helen E. Moore, of this city, was married at noon yesterday to Carroll R. Brown, of Highspire. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage of the State Street United Brethren church, Eighteenth and State streets, the Rev. E. A. G. Bossler being the officiating clergyman. The happy couple will reside in Highspire.

Among the out-of-town guests will be Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Besseler, Dr. and Mrs. John Bucher, Miss Elizabeth Capp, of Lebanon; Mrs. West and Miss Mary West, of York; Captain and Mrs. John C. Delaney, Washington, D. C.; Dr. and Mrs. Thorington, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. McCain, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hayes, Lansdowne; Mrs. George Ross and Mrs. Pearson, of Philadelphia.

Miss Stackpole Entertains
Miss Margaret Stackpole entertained at luncheon at her home, 1825 North Front street, to-day complimentary to Miss Kniesely and the members of the Smith-Kniesely bridal party. The table appointments were in pink, with roses and pink-capped candelabra carrying out the color scheme. Covers were laid for Miss Kniesely, Miss Elizabeth Kniesely, Mrs. Harry Reilly, Miss Helen Delaney, Miss Jessie Nicholls, Miss Janet Sawyer, Mrs. Harry Taylor Neale and Miss Kate Dyer.

This evening Miss Kniesely will give a dance at the Country Club for the members of the bridal party, the out-of-town guests and members of the younger set.

Mr. Smith gave his "bachelor dinner" to the men of the wedding party in the Harrisburg Club last evening.

DAUGHTERS OF 1812 TO MEET

Mrs. H. H. Freeburn Will Be Hostess at the Annual Meeting Next Thursday

The annual meeting of the United States Daughters of 1812 will be held at the home of Mrs. H. H. Freeburn, next Thursday, December 3. Mrs. B. F. Blough and Miss May Fox will also be hostesses. The leading feature of the afternoon will be a talk on "Women Under the Law" by J. Clarence Funk, one of the young attorneys of the city.

Miss Mary Seaman and Miss Katherine Heicher will also contribute vocal numbers and the Regent Mrs. Jones will give her usual Current Event talk. There will be brief reports by the Registrar, Miss Catherine Irwin Eggle, and by the Treasurer Mrs. J. Edward Dickinson. The historian, Mrs. James Barr Mersereau, will withhold her report until June, when she will be able to give the entire report for 1914-15.

Election of officers will be held at the meeting. The nominating committee, of which Mrs. E. Z. Gross is chairman, has presented the following names, which the Chapter may adopt or not as it wishes:

As Regent for the coming year, Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones, who has served since 1900 with the exception of one year when she was out of the city; first vice regent, Mrs. Charles J. Wood, Jr.; second vice regent, Mrs. Sarah Kistler, of Carlisle; treasurer, Mrs. James Edward Dickinson; registrar, Miss Catherine Irwin Eggle; historian, Mrs. James Barr Mersereau; corresponding secretary, Miss Matilda Heister; recording secretary, Miss May Fox. The Chapter will also plan its usual philanthropic work for Christmas.

If your stomach cannot digest your food, what will? Where's the relief? The answer is in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because, as all stomach troubles arise from indigestion and because one ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is able to thoroughly and completely digest 3,000 grains of food, doesn't it stand to reason that these tablets are going to digest all the food and whatever food you put into your stomach?

GET THE STAGE SECRET OF HEALTHY HAIR

Though wigs are often used in special parts played by actresses, it is a notable fact they all have beautiful, natural hair which is the result of sensible care only. Their only secret is care. Not strenuous, but regular. In washing the hair it is not advisable to use a makeshift, but always use a preparation made for shampooing only. You can enjoy the best that is known for about three cents a shampoo by getting a package of canthron from your druggist; dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water and your shampoo is ready. After its use the hair dries rapidly with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will weigh much heavier than it is. Its lustre and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth. Adv.

MARRIED AT YORK TO-DAY

Wedding of Miss Catherine Weaver and Paul H. Furman Solemnized by the Rev. Mr. Pettit

The wedding of Miss Catherine F. Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Weaver, of Steelton, and Paul H. Furman, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Furman, 27 North Sixteenth street, was a quiet event of to-day, taking place at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bricker, of York, the latter sister of the bride.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. John T. Pettit, pastor of the Evangelical church of York. The bride wore a smart traveling suit of brown with hat to match. The young people were attended by Mr. and Mrs. George Fairall, of Steelton; Miss Elizabeth Craig and Oliver Kitchen, of this city. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served and an informal reception held. Mr. and Mrs. Furman will defer their wedding trip until a later date and after December 1 will be "at home" to their friends at 1827 Whitehall street.

Mr. Furman is a graduate of Technical High school, class of 1913, and was the star distance runner of the school. Both young people have a host of friends in this city and Steelton.

Eating When Others Are Through

Is Not Gluttony, But Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Will Enable You to Have Such an Appetite

In these days of high pressure most men and women eat very little and a good old fashioned eater sits at table after all have left it.

The best way to get such an appetite is the Stuart way—the natural way.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets
Landlady: "Ever since Jones took Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets I've lost money on him."

If your stomach cannot digest your food, what will? Where's the relief? The answer is in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because, as all stomach troubles arise from indigestion and because one ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is able to thoroughly and completely digest 3,000 grains of food, doesn't it stand to reason that these tablets are going to digest all the food and whatever food you put into your stomach?

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are carefully made to supply every element lacking in a system afflicted with dyspepsia, indigestion, gastritis, stomach trouble, etc., and to aid healthy systems to digest difficult food at unseasonably hours.

Just carry one of these little tablets in your purse or pocket. After every meal, no matter when eaten, you have always at hand the assistance that nature will relish and thrive upon.

In this manner one may eat all manner of food, attend late dinners, etc., and feel no serious results afterwards.

Thousands of travelers always have a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in their grips and are thus enabled to eat unaccustomed meals at any and all times.

Surely to sufferers from food follies as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and the greatest proof of this fact lies in the assurance that one can purchase a box at any drug store anywhere in this country.

A small sample package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will be mailed free to anyone who will address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich. Adv.

ANNOUNCE JUNE WEDDING

Miss Alta Baldensperger and G. Ross Hurd Married at Baltimore Last Summer

Cards were issued this afternoon announcing the marriage of Miss Alta Elizabeth Baldensperger, daughter of Mrs. Caroline Armagost, of Warren, Pa., and Graham Ross Hurd, which took place June 6, 1914. The ceremony was performed at 3.30 on that afternoon in the parsonage of the Central Presbyterian church, Baltimore, Md., the Rev. Dr. Dewitt M. Benham, pastor, officiating. The bride wore an attractive traveling suit of blue gabardine and small white hat. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Hurd returned to this city and resumed their work in their departments on Capitol Hill. Mrs. Hurd in the Public Service Commission and Mr. Hurd in the Auditor-General's Department, telling no one of their wedding or their plans for the future.

As usual, yesterday quite a number of Capitol Hill employees left for their homes in different parts of the State to spend the Thanksgiving holidays. Instead of Miss Baldensperger leaving for her home in Warren and Mr. Hurd going to Genesee, Potter county, for his holiday visit, Mr. and Mrs. Hurd left this morning for their wedding trip to Petersburg, Washington, D. C., Old Point Comfort, New York and West Point. After January 1 they will be at home to their friends at 1108 Green street.

THE NICHOLLS-LEA WEDDING

Solemnized at Noon To-day at Home of Bride's Parents, by the Rev. H. E. Hallman

A pretty wedding was solemnized at noon to-day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Lea, 2352 Derry street, when their daughter, Jane Stewart Lea, became the wife of Percy Shaue Nichols, of Swisshale, Pa.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. Everett Hallman, pastor of the Immanuel Presbyterian church, in the presence of the immediate members of the family and a few friends.

The bride wore a pretty traveling suit of brown with hat to match and was unattended. Prof. Edwin J. Decevee played the wedding music.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Nichols left for an extended trip through the West. They will spend Thanksgiving Day in Pittsburgh and will attend the State-Pitt football game there. After January 1, they will be "at home" at 1803 Monongahela avenue, Swisshale, Pittsburgh.

The bride is a well known soprano and the groom a son of the Rev. A. B. and Mrs. Nichols, and is connected with the Carnegie Steel Company.

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

If you want a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O. Adv.
