

THE YELLOW TICKET GIVES STATUS OF THE JEW IN RUSSIA

A play containing a particular appeal to the Jewish race, and especially to Russians is "The Yellow Ticket," which Manager A. H. Woods (who produced within the law) will bring to the Majestic on Saturday, matinee and night.

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC

Tonight, Fritz Scheff in "Pretty Mrs. Smith." Friday afternoon and evening, Nov. 27, "The Garden of Girls," Burlesque.

ORPHEUM

Every afternoon and evening, high class vaudeville.

COLONIAL

Daily continuous vaudeville and pictures.

Fritz Scheff

Fritz Scheff will be seen at the Majestic this evening in the comedy entitled "Pretty Mrs. Smith," directed by her success at the Casino theatre, New York.

"The Garden of Girls"

"The Garden of Girls," with Seltz Gooch and George B. Skoulon, is the risqué attraction at the Majestic Friday, afternoon and evening.

"The Yellow Ticket"

At the box office of the Majestic tomorrow, Thanksgiving morning, the sale for "The Yellow Ticket" will be open.

Literary Elegance

"Some of your hymns are very poor poetry," said the critical theologian. "That doesn't signify anything," replied the clergyman.

STEAMSHIPS

BERMUDA

These charming islands are now at their best. S. S. "BERMUDIAN" holds the record—40 hours—is the newest and only twin-screw steamship sailing to Bermuda.

SUBURBAN

SHIREMANSTOWN

Mr. and Mrs. John Simmons Entertain Number of Guests. Special Correspondence. Shiremanstown, Nov. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. John Spangler and son, Curtis, of Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Levi Zimmerman, of near Spangler's Mills, and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Spangler, of this place, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Simmons near Mechanicsburg on Sunday.

Mr. Wehler, of Iowa, who came to Pennsylvania to spend the winter with his parents at Newville, called on Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Braught Sunday. Mrs. C. M. Howell and Mrs. Ted Howell, of Northumberland; Mrs. Herbert W. Cummings, of Sunbury, and Mrs. W. L. Gutelius, of Washington, D. C., are visiting Mrs. J. W. Sheets.

Mrs. Ising, of Altoona, was the weekend guest at the home of C. B. Ising the last week. Mrs. Lowe, of Harrisburg, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. F. E. Weber.

WEST FAIRVIEW

Schools Close for Thanksgiving and County Institute. Special Correspondence. West Fairview, Nov. 25.—The public schools will be closed after today for the balance of this week for Thanksgiving and all of next week for the county institute. They will not open again until December 7.

The Stough prayer meeting at the home of George Mann yesterday morning was attended by 24 persons. Mrs. Frances Van Sover, of Springfield, Ohio, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shultz for several days.

The Rev. G. W. Strine, of Spry, called at the U. B. parsonage yesterday. Miss Nora Gallagher was brought home from the Harrisburg hospital Monday and is recovering nicely from the recent operation.

The Rev. Mr. Lutz, of Dauphin, was guests of their son, Harry Lutz, over Sunday. John McCann, Third street, is entertaining his daughter, Mrs. Ethel Anderson, of Muskegoe, Okla., for several weeks.

The union thanksgiving service will be held in St. Mark's Lutheran church tomorrow evening. The Rev. A. G. Wolf will preside and the Rev. S. B. Bidlack will preach the annual sermon.

DILLSBURG

Corn Crop, Unusually Large, Nearly All Harvested. Special Correspondence. Dillsburg, Nov. 25.—The corn crop has been an unusually large one in this section and is now nearly all harvested.

S. S. Clark reports about four thousand bushels of corn ears on eighteen and one-half acres. Some other farmers report from one hundred and forty to one hundred and fifty bushels of corn ears per acre.

The directors of the Farmers and Merchants' Bank on Saturday presented to Mr. and Mrs. John A. Gandy a set of silver knives, forks and spoons. Mr. Gandy has been the bookkeeper in the bank for the past four years and had been married only recently.

Mrs. Elizabeth Porter, of this place, is spending the week in Harrisburg as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Sheffer.

Mrs. William B. Kunkle and Mr. and Mrs. James Kunkle and daughter, of Philadelphia, were the guests of Mr. Coover and family, Saturday and Sunday.

Evangelist Goff, of Philadelphia, arrived Saturday and has taken charge of the Union meeting in the M. E. church. He brought with him Professor Myers, who has taken charge of the music.

Mrs. W. S. Sheffer and Mrs. J. J. Klugh attended the Stough meeting in Harrisburg Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. John Williams, a well known resident of Carroll township, celebrated her ninety-first birthday Saturday.

Mrs. George W. Baker and Miss Bessie Baker, of Mechanicsburg, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Spatz Saturday.

William Dull, Second and York streets, has purchased a home in Frankintown. After making some repairs he intends to move from this place to his newly-purchased home.

The Rev. Mr. Goff has consented to preach the Thanksgiving sermon tomorrow morning instead of the Rev. Mr. Krenz.

MIFFLINTOWN

Chester Pasick Has Right Cheek Bone Broken While Playing Football. Special Correspondence. Mifflintown, Nov. 25.—The Rev. J. C. Ely, of Pittsburgh, filled the pulpit of the Westminster Presbyterian church Sunday, morning and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Crawford and daughter, Helen, will spend Thanksgiving with Dr. E. D. and Mrs. Crawford in Philadelphia.

Miss Mary Earnest is spending the week with her sister, Miss Alma, in Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bartley, of Pittsburgh, are visiting their daughter, Miss Sara, at the home of W. H. Zeiders.

Misses Helen and Edith Pannebakker are spending the week at the home of John Pannebakker in Harrisburg.

Dr. Norman Eastlight was a Sunday visitor in Harrisburg.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Aurand were guests of the Misses Grace and Alma Seiber Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Berry and Mrs. Dickersheid spent Thursday in Lewisport.

Mr. and Mrs. Culp spent the first part of the week with their daughter, Mrs. Paul Heimlich, in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Miller McDonald, of Altoona, is a visitor at the Stetter home. Mrs. D. M. Crawford and daughter, Anna, are visiting in Lancaster city.

her mother, Mrs. Minick, for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Trout and two children spent Wednesday in Philadelphia.

Mrs. A. J. Kelly and daughter, Anna, spent Friday in Altoona. H. J. Lepley and son, Ernie; Mrs. Salzman and daughter, Florence, of Beaver Springs, were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Salzman's sister, Mrs. Ambrosia Depp.

Over weighing 126 pounds was recently shot the upper end of Licking Creek Valley by Harry Miller, of Makawana.

The Ford touring car owned by Elizabeth Dunn, of Cuba Mills, Fermanagh township, and driven by D. Banks Stouffer went down a 15-foot embankment at Montgomery's Ferry, about seven miles below Liverpool along the Susquehanna river, last Monday morning.

In the car were Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Dunn and daughter, Katherine; D. Banks Stouffer and little son, Wilbur, returning from a trip to Adams county. They escaped injury, with the exception of a few slight bruises about the face and body.

Miss Sallie Moyer has returned from a week's visit in Philadelphia. Mrs. Jerome Seiber is home after a two weeks' visit in Johnstown.

Miss Anna Mayer is visiting in Pittsburgh at the home of her uncle, Guy Wilson.

Miss Patton, of Lewistown, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wilbur Schneyer. Mrs. William Gundy and Mrs. S. I. Housel, of Lewisburg, are visiting their brother, Henry Penney, Third street.

Miss Mary Hoops was in Harrisburg Friday. Mrs. Guy Auker is visiting in Philadelphia.

Miss Caroline Strawinsk, of York, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Albert Baker, Charles Allison, of New York City, is visiting in this place, after an absence of fourteen years.

LINGLESTOWN

Program to Be Rendered by Public Schools To Remember Evening. Special Correspondence. Linglestown, Nov. 25.—The program for the Thanksgiving entertainment by the schools of Linglestown to be held in the chapel tomorrow evening is as follows:

7:30—Thanksgiving hymn, schools; "What Grandma Said," Fanny Lenker; "Pop Corn Song," sixteen children; "The Kind of a Boy to Be," Clara Haas; "The Pilgrims," six children; "Thanksgiving Dinner in Alphabet," 27 children; "The Best Way," Sibyl Hench; "What I'd Do," Orpha Shriner and Harry Pittman; "Grandma's Spectacles," Helen Hoeker; "Friends House," Bertha Keiser; "Thanksgiving Fun," Ruth Cassel; "Helps in Sewing," Carrie Hoeker, Vesta Koons, Kathryn Nisley; "Thanksgiving Song," school; "The Best Way," Lillie Fauber; Corn Drill, six boys; "Who Made the Speech," Fay Hoeker; pantomime, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," six girls.

The Embroidery Club was reorganized at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hicks on Monday evening with the election of these officers: Mrs. Gertrude Nisley, president; Mrs. J. F. Hicks, treasurer, and Miss Jane Care, secretary. The members are Mrs. J. F. Hicks, Mrs. O. B. Leese, Mrs. Monroe Kile, Mrs. Gertrude Nisley, Miss Jessie Lenker, Miss Minnie Jaker, Miss Annie Schaner, Miss Jane Care, Miss Eliza Buck and Miss Katherine Nisley.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hicks and son, Harry, of Penbrook, on Sunday were the guests of Mrs. Annie Smith.

Mrs. Joseph Miller and son, Robert, of Penbrook, spent Sunday as the guests of Mrs. Savilla Longenecker and family.

Miss Anna Mehring, of Harrisburg, was the guest of the Misses Shriner on Sunday.

The Rev. George Sigler spent Monday with friends at York.

Mrs. Charles McGarvey and daughter, Jennie, of Penbrook, on Monday visited friends here.

Mrs. Helen Frantz and daughter, Emma, spent Monday with friends at Harrisburg.

Mrs. John O. Hetrich on Sunday visited friends at Harrisburg.

The Misses Emma and Edna Graybill, of Bifield, are spending this week as the guests of C. C. Graybill and family.

Mrs. John Fox on Tuesday visited friends at Harrisburg.

Mrs. John Early, of Hainton, on Tuesday was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. William Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Witmer, of Union Deposit, spent Sunday as the guests of E. O. Hassler and family.

FISHERVILLE

The Rev. J. F. Stabley to Administer Communion at Lutheran Church. Special Correspondence. Fishersville, Nov. 25.—Mrs. S. J. Zearing was visiting in Harrisburg several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Brady, of Harrisburg, visited at the home of J. J. Gipple on Sunday.

Mrs. Eliza Zearing went to Harrisburg to spend the winter with her son, H. B. Zearing.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Crawford and daughter, Helen, will spend Thanksgiving with Dr. E. D. and Mrs. Crawford in Philadelphia.

Miss Mary Earnest is spending the week with her sister, Miss Alma, in Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bartley, of Pittsburgh, are visiting their daughter, Miss Sara, at the home of W. H. Zeiders.

Misses Helen and Edith Pannebakker are spending the week at the home of John Pannebakker in Harrisburg.

Dr. Norman Eastlight was a Sunday visitor in Harrisburg.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Aurand were guests of the Misses Grace and Alma Seiber Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Berry and Mrs. Dickersheid spent Thursday in Lewisport.

Mr. and Mrs. Culp spent the first part of the week with their daughter, Mrs. Paul Heimlich, in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Miller McDonald, of Altoona, is a visitor at the Stetter home. Mrs. D. M. Crawford and daughter, Anna, are visiting in Lancaster city.

Chester Pasick had his right cheek bone broken while playing football at Lewistown Saturday.

R. L. Cramer spent Sunday in Philadelphia. He was accompanied home by his daughter, Mrs. Flora Trout, who recently underwent an operation at the Polyclinic hospital there.

son will be preached by the Rev. A. F. Colom, pastor of the M. E. church.

Mrs. Alfred Bowman was the guest of relatives at Highspire the past week. Mrs. Johanna Fairchild has returned from Harrisburg, where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Irvine E. Deppen.

Mrs. J. B. Alter, of Port Royal, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Percival Hill, Third street.

Mrs. Clifford A. Funk did shopping at Harrisburg to-day.

HUMMELSTOWN

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Rhoads III With Diphtheria. Special Correspondence. Hummelstown, Nov. 25.—Large crowds of people still continue to attend the fair being held by the Aemo band and Chemical Fire Company in Hummelstown hall. There are still many articles to be disposed of and those in charge are anxious to sell all the goods until Tuesday evening when the fair will close.

The band renders an interesting musical program each evening. Mrs. George Hoeker and son, Walter, of Paxtang, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wolf on Monday evening.

Mrs. Albert Cockley, of Chamber Hill, spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Wolf.

The 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Rhoads, who resides on the commons in the northeast section of the town, is ill with diphtheria and the home has been quarantined.

The Rev. Herbert S. Ganes spent yesterday afternoon in Harrisburg. Mrs. Charles Laub and children, Alma and Walton, left yesterday to spend several days with relatives at Baltimore.

A special meeting of the consistory of the Reformed church, will be held at the home of John J. Nissley, this evening.

The postoffice will be open tomorrow from 7 to 8 o'clock a. m. and from 7 to 8 o'clock p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Wolf left this morning for Pennington, N. J., where they will spend several days with their son, Prof. H. Ray Wolf.

MILLERSTOWN

Poster Bollinger Home From Cornell for Thanksgiving. Special Correspondence. Millerstown, Nov. 25.—Mrs. John Crocker, of Houtzdale, is visiting her nephews, William and James Rounsley.

Mrs. Hoyt Johnson and daughter, of Ballston, Va., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Wingert.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laehr, of Newport, were recent visitors in town.

Foster Bollinger, a student of Cornell College, Ithaca, N. Y., is spending his Thanksgiving vacation at his home in this place.

Miss Olivia Rauch, of Thompsonstown, visited her friend, Miss Ruth Shenk, this week.

Mrs. John Rehok has gone to Waltersburg, Fayette county, to visit her son, Dr. E. H. Rehok.

FALMOUTH

Special Thanksgiving Services in the M. E. Church. Special Correspondence. Falmouth, Nov. 25.—A special Thanksgiving program will be rendered in the M. E. church at Bainbridge Thanksgiving evening at 7.30 o'clock. The program consists of special music, singing, an anthem by the united choir, and solo work by Mrs. John W. Edel, a soloist and leading singer of Harford Avenue M. E. church, Baltimore, and mother of the pastor, the Rev. W. W. Edel.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Lewis left Tuesday for an extended visit to Port Deposit, Maryland.

Miss Lillian Hipple, of Marietta, teacher of Lincoln school, Conoy town, visited last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dibeler.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Walton spent Sunday with friends in Harrisburg.

G. W. Orendorf is engaged in digging a cellar, and expects to erect a house in the near future.

Charles Smith and family, Miss Martha Horst and Roy Keek, of Harrisburg, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. John Horst.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bryans returned home from a visit to Oaklyn, N. J., the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Link.

Mrs. John Dahner and two children, of Enola, was the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Brinser.

M. J. Derick and O. E. Baker, of Harrisburg, repaired the M. E. church organ in this place Monday.

Ira Dibeler has been ill for some time.

MIDDLETOWN

To-morrow All Business Places Will Be Closed. Special Correspondence. Middletown, Nov. 25.—The car shop basketball team defeated the Tennis Club team last evening on the M. A. C. floor by the score of 29 to 5, and the Union team defeated the Liberty Fire Company by the score of 37 to 25. A large crowd was present.

The cantata entitled, "Nazarene," given by the M. E. choir last evening, proved a success. After the program was rendered the Sunday school class taught by H. J. Wickey served refreshments to those who took part.

Ed. Hollis moved his household goods to Philadelphia yesterday, where he has secured work.

The public schools will close this evening until Monday morning and the various schools had appropriate programs arranged for this afternoon.

Charles Force, who had been visiting relatives in town for the past week, returned to his home at Pittsburgh yesterday.

The meetings being held in the Samaritan Free Mission, Market and Lawrence streets, are largely attended. The meetings are in charge of Colonel Bertron.

Eather and Helen Hipple, the two daughters of Mrs. Grace Hipple, South Union street, will enter the Loyallville Orphan Home and will be taken there in about three weeks.

H. S. Roth transacted business at Philadelphia on Tuesday.

Macedonians from Royalton went to Steelton in four motor cars yesterday, where they attended the wedding of one of their countrymen. The cars were decorated with flags and bunting and were quite an attraction as they passed through town and returned in the afternoon.

All business places in town will be closed to-morrow, Thanksgiving Day. The M. A. C. football team will play the Lebanon Valley team on the fair grounds to-morrow afternoon.

D. B. Zorger and N. C. Fuhrman will spend Thursday at Strinestown, York county, as the guests of the former's sister.

Melvin Leonard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Leonard, Swatara street, was taken to Philadelphia yesterday by Dr. H. H. Rhodes, where the lad received treatment for his injured spine. He will have to use crutches for some time.

Miss Margaret Palmer found the purse lost by Arthur Brinser on Saturday and returned the same to the owner. The Junior League of the M. E. church and their teacher will attend the Stough meeting at Harrisburg to-morrow afternoon and several friends will accompany them.

NEWVILLE

Union Thanksgiving Service in United Presbyterian Church. Special Correspondence. Newville, Nov. 25.—The Rev. Haynes H. Lippincott, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, will preach the sermon on Thanksgiving. Thanksgiving service to be held in the United Presbyterian church to-morrow morning at 10.30 o'clock. The offering will be placed in the funds of the Ladies' Benevolent Society.

The funeral of George Washington Rideout was held from his late home in the South ward on Sunday afternoon. He was 81 years old and had lived here over fifty years. One daughter, Mrs. Serina Banks, of Carlisle, survives. Mr. Rideout was a member of the Second Church of God.

Mrs. W. H. McCrea arrived home on Monday from Cedar Falls, Iowa, where she attended the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Mary West Collar.

At a meeting in the lecture room of the Big Spring Presbyterian church on Monday evening the executive committee of the Belgian relief organization reported its plans, which are that on Sunday, December 6, offerings will be received in the various churches and contribution boxes will be placed in the business houses. Ladies from this place will bring the situation before many of the schools in the rural districts and contribution boxes will be distributed through these sections.

The Rev. George N. Lauffer, for four years the pastor of Zion Lutheran church of this place, has received the unanimous vote of the congregation of St. John's Lutheran church of Steelton to become its pastor. Mr. Lauffer will assume the pastorate January 1, 1915.

While in this place Mr. and Mrs. Lauffer won many friends, who will deeply regret their departure.

Miss Isabel Gracey, of Blair Academy, Blairstown, N. J., is home for her Thanksgiving vacation.

NEW CUMBERLAND

Sermon for Independent Order of America Sunday Evening. Special Correspondence. New Cumberland, Nov. 25.—On Sunday evening at 7 o'clock the Independent Order of America will meet at their hall and proceed to Trinity United Brethren church, where the Rev. A. R. Ayers, the pastor, will deliver a sermon to the Order. Special music will be rendered.

All of the mills, store, postoffice, bank and business places will be closed on Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. Morrison and son, Edward, of Columbus, Ohio, are guests of Charles Leiby's family.

Miss Marjorie Melvor spent Sunday at Lebanon Valley College.

Miss Helen Fogel Sanger, teacher of the Primary school, went to her home in Shippensburg this evening.

A prayer and praise service will be held to-night in Trinity U. B. church, appropriate to Thanksgiving Day.

Miss Mary Bond, of York, is visiting relatives in New Cumberland.

Mrs. Frank Sutton, of Gettysburg, spent several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kaufman, of Harrisburg, in visiting her sister, Mrs. Clyde Mathias.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drayer, of Perry county, and Mr. and Mrs. Amos Zimmerman, of Eberly's Mills, spent Sunday with Miss Mary Drayer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eby, of East Hanover, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Atland.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, of Hazleton, are guests of Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Wear, Third street.

Miss Marion Hoffmann spent the week-end with her sister, Miss Ruth, at Lebanon Valley College.

Miss Fairy Zinn, of near Lewisburg, is visiting Frank Hoover's family, at Bellavista.

WICONISCO

Mrs. I. W. Holland on Visit to Relatives in Wilkes-Barre. Special Correspondence. Wiconisco, Nov. 25.—Mrs. I. W. Holland is visiting relatives in Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. Sara Miller, of Williamstown, is visiting her daughter.

Dr. J. S. Prout is visiting in Mauch Chunk.

Irvan Hatten, of Philadelphia, was a visitor in town lately.

Miss Mary Davis and Miss Annie Isles are visiting in Minersville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pontius are visiting in Harrisburg.

Miss Dora Shadel is spending some time in Harrisburg.

C. V. NEWS

HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE AS FAMILY WORSHIPPED

Both House and Barn Were Consumed Before Keller C. Carbaugh, the Owner Returned From Attending Church Services

Gettysburg, Nov. 25.—While the owner was attending revival services at the Church of God at Jerusalem on Monday evening, the house and stable on the farm of Keller C. Carbaugh, a mile and a quarter east of Edgemont, were destroyed by fire. Neither Mr. Carbaugh nor his wife, knew anything of the fire until several hours after it had burned itself out.

The blaze, which is believed to have been of incendiary origin, was discovered in the stable by Jacob Fleagle, a neighbor. Another blaze was found raging in the house, which was only about fifty yards away.

CITY OFFICIALS ARE JAILED

Court Refuses New Trial to Men Convicted in Conspiracy Cases and Passed Judgment

Cumberland, Md., Nov. 25.—Judge Keedy yesterday afternoon overruled the motion for a new trial in the Hummelshime-Eichelberger conspiracy case and sentenced Dr. T. K. Hummelshime and Ward L. Eichelberger each to pay fines of $200 and one-third of the costs and to serve three months in the Annapolis county jail. H. Bruce Hummelshime was fined $100 and one-third of the costs and sentenced to sixty days in the county jail. Counsel for the defense filed a notice to take the case to the Court of Appeals and the defendants were released under bail.

Dr. Hummelshime is police commissioner and Ward L. Eichelberger is finance commissioner. They, together with young Hummelshime, were found guilty of conspiracy to receive a bribe to pass a measure through the City Council.

Believe Cattle Disease Checked

Carlisle, Nov. 25.—While an additional herd of cattle in the county have been reported to be affected with the foot and mouth disease, it is believed that the disease in this county has almost reached an end. There are at present seven cases in the county according to report of Dr. E. M. C. Moritz, representative of the State Live Stock Sanitary Board.

STUDENT HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Struck by Machine As It Swerved and Struck Fence

Gettysburg, Nov. 25.—Th lives of a number of Mt. Saint Mary's students were endangered when two automobiles collided on the pike along the athletic field of the Emmitsburg college. One member of the party, Charles Eck, a third-year Seminarian, was struck by a machine and his left leg was broken in three places and his face badly cut. He was removed to St. Joseph's hospital, Baltimore.

An Overland touring car belonging to Mrs. J. L. Gloninger, which was driven by her son, Sydney, was passing a Ford runabout, belonging to Meade Patterson, of Emmitsburg, which was driven by Howard Johnson, colored. The larger car swerved to the right of the road and crashed into the fence.

Mr. Eck was about to get over the fence to the athletic field at the time of the collision. A colored woman was in the Ford machine with Johnson. The two were not thrown out of the auto as it plunged through five panels of rail fence, but both were cut and bruised. The colored woman sustained several bad cuts.

Bishop Rockwell Is Dead