Gift Items That Should Be on Everybody's Infant List

What to give So-and-so's baby may perplex many persons, but it is not such a problem, after all, with such helpful suggestions as these:

- Infants' crocheted booties, high or light blue trimming, 25c, 35c, 50c, 65c to $1.00
Infants' crocheted saques, all white or with pink or light blue trimming, 50c, 75c, $1.00 to $2.50
Infants' crocheted caps in wool, silk and angora, all white with pink or light blue trimming, 50c, 75c, $1.00 to $3.95

Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, Second Floor, Front—Three Elevators.

This List of Gift Furniture Comprises Values That Are Uncommon

There are scores of staple articles of furniture that can be bought in the early days of the Christmas season for a mere fraction of its actual former price, on account of the invasion of the third floor by the Toy section.

The following pieces must get out to give room to a doll-contingent just arrived, so prices have been lowered to a remarkably low basis:

- $25.00 leather chair. Reduced to $16.95
$35.00 leather rocker. Reduced to $22.50
$16.50 Turkish rocker. Reduced to $12.50
$7.50 mahogany tables. Reduced to $4.50
$9.50 mahogany tables. Reduced to $6.95
$25.00 wing chair. Reduced to $16.95

Great Interest Centers About the Newly-Arrived Toys

And there are as many novelties as we have ever had heretofore in spite of the difficulty of getting shipments here from Germany. It will be impossible to duplicate about 75 per cent. of the toys now in the display, so if you want to choose prudently it will pay you to buy early.

Eiderdown, Beacon Blanket and Japanese Quilted Robes

Beautiful house robes for the bath or lounging have been imported for the gift season. These are luxurious garments that every woman delights to have in her wardrobe. Moderately priced.

- Eiderdown bath robes with turn-over collar or collarless; stitched satin trimming; red, grey, Copenhagen, American, beauty, peach and light blue, $2.95, $3.95 to $7.50
Beacon blanket bath robes with border or satin trimming; Copenhagen, tan, red, grey, navy and lavender, $3.50, $3.95, $5.00 to $7.50

Japanese Quilted Robes

- Japanese quilted robes in navy, red, rose, Copenhagen and purple; box back, turn-over collar and silk cord, $7.95
Japanese quilted robes, hand embroidered, Copenhagen and silk, $12.50
Imported crepe-kimonos, plain liberty satin lining; wistaria, Copenhagen, light blue and pink, $13.50

Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, Second Floor—Three Elevators.

15 Styles Nainsook Gowns in Gift Boxes: $1.00 to $2.95

An attractive Christmas display of dainty undermuslins packed in pretty boxes for gift giving. There are 15 styles to select from, including fine nainsooks, trimmed with lace insertion and lace; lace or embroidery medallions; embroidery or lace panels and ribbon—fancy lace trimmed sleeves.

HUMMELSTOWN

Home Talent Play to Be Given Friday Evening

Hummelstown, Nov. 30.—William Stoppel died Saturday morning at his home near Beaver Station, aged about 26 years. The funeral will take place from his late home to-morrow morning at 9:30 o'clock. Services will be held in the Chamber Hill church and will be conducted by the Rev. S. E. Brehm. Interment will be made in the Chamber Hill cemetery.

The play, "Farm Folks," to be given in Hummelstown hall on Friday evening, December 4, will be largely attended. The play is being given by the L. T. I. Club, and many of the persons taking part in the play have previously appeared in local talent productions. There are many humorous situations in the play, which tells the story of a country girl engaged to a rich New Yorker, whose mother has selected a society woman she wants him to marry and by falsehood makes the country girl believe her son does not love her. The mother is helped in her deception by a young farmer who is in love with the girl and intercepts the letter. On the eve of the wedding of the girl and the farmer he confesses and the New Yorker and the girl are married. Following is the cast of characters for the play: Philip Burleigh, from New York, Ralph Gingrich; Dave Weston, a young farmer, Muser White; Amos Goodwin, owner of Sli-verbrook farm, Edgar Nelbert; Bjah Finn, a jack-of-all-trades, Bertram Hummel; Mary, a maid in the Berleigh residence, Alberta E. Grove; Flora Goodwin, only a country girl, Mary Grove; Mrs. Burleigh, Philip's mother, Ruth White; Grace, Philip's sister, Ethel Ebersole; Sarah Goodwin, wife of Amos Goodwin, Rebecca Sutcliffe; Mrs. Penney, who never has a minute to spare, Pearl Behney; Della Slocom, hired girl at the farm, Beatrice Zeiter. The reserved seat chart will open to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock at Omar Hummel's store.

$1,309 COST OF INSPECTING WEIGHTS AND MEASURES

That Includes the $1,000 Salary of Harry A. Boyer, Who Kept His Expenses Down to $309—2,337 Devices Confiscated. The annual report of Harry A. Boyer, county inspector of weights and measures, to-day was filed with D. Frank Lobo, chief clerk to the Board of County Commissioners. The report shows the inspector examined 12,342 weights, scales and measures; sealed 10,005; adjusted 2,199 and confiscated and condemned 2,337. During the entire year Mr. Boyer's expenses, including traveling expenses and supplies, totaled $309.26, so that with his salary of $1,000, his department cost the county actually $1,309.26. His railroad fare was but $46.28 and team hire, $113.25, the rest of the expenses being made up with hotel bills, freight, expressage, printing and other incidentals. The inspector's expenses ran higher in October than in any other of the twelve months. Then the total was $53.14. The least he spent in any one month was in March, when the charge was $8.40. In his report Mr. Boyer classified the weights and measures and reported on each the result of his work as follows: Computing scales inspected, 251; sealed, 241; adjusted 71; condemned, 10. Spring scales, inspected, 238; sealed, 185; adjusted, 25; condemned, 103. Counter scales: inspected, 505; sealed, 466; adjusted, 245; condemned, 3. Platform scales: inspected, 166; sealed, 159; adjusted, 78; condemned, 7. Liquid measures: inspected, 3,251; sealed, 2,357; condemned, 894. Dry measures: inspected, 3,182; sealed, 2,271; condemned, 911. Miscellaneous: inspected, 1,432; sealed, 1,333; adjusted, 253; condemned, 99. Wagon, dormant and steelyard scales: inspected, 82; sealed, 72; adjusted 3; condemned, 10. Weights: inspected, 3,235; sealed, 2,971; adjusted, 1,488; condemned, 264.

KABINGA NOW AT BOSTON; SAVED BY CAPTAIN'S WIFE

Boston, Nov. 30.—The British steamship Kabinga, captured by the German cruiser Emden, and saved from being sunk by the presence aboard of the captain's wife and son, arrived last night from Calcutta, several days overdue as a result of storms. Newspaper reporters on a chartered tug went down to the Kabinga, which anchored in the lower harbor, to learn from Mrs. Gertrude Robinson, the captain's wife, details concerning the gallantry of Captain von Mueller, of the Emden, in turning the ship over to her. The British censor apparently scored a beat over the reporters, for when the pilot boarded the steamship he carried an official looking envelope. When the newspaper tug came alongside interviews were refused.

To Kill 37 Diseased Cattle

(Special to the Star-Independent.) Elizabethtown, Nov. 30.—Dr. H. T. McNeal, of the State Veterinary staff, visited a farm two miles from this place yesterday and found the foot and mouth disease among the stock, consisting of 20 heifers, 2 cows, 7 bulls and 8 steers. Strict quarantine was established and the 37 animals will be slaughtered and buried by the State and Federal agents at once. All the stock in the vicinity of the farm has been produced or shipped from the farm. The property was recently purchased for the right of way of the Elizabethtown and Deodote railway.

Dickens' Full Name

Charles Dickens was christened Charles John Huffmann, or Huffham, as it is erroneously entered in the parish register. But when he became famous he dropped the last two Christian names as he desired to be known as plain Charles Dickens, a wish respected on his tombstone in Westminster abbey, by his biographer and friend, John Forster, and by the scrupulously accurate Dictionary of National Biography.
