

Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart

Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart

A New Lot of Men's Balmacaans That Are Exceptional Values at $10

Overcoats of $16.00 and $15.50 Quality

The makers accepted a sacrifice price to clean-up his stock room for the season—he is now launched on Spring styles and this particular lot cannot be duplicated once the Balmacaans are all sold.

The lot includes styles for men and young men in oxford cassimeres and cheviots, grey Scotch mixtures and brown mixtures. Every garment has been cravenetted and is therefore rainproof. Sizes 33 to 40. Quarter satin or venetian lined.

Men's $20 Balmacaans at $15

Heavy grey checked mixtures, plain grey worsteds, brown worsteds, Scotch mixtures and blue chinchillas; sizes 33 to 38; slashed or patch pockets.

Boys' Balmacaans

Boys' grey and tan Scotch mixture Balmacaans, rainproof, sizes 7 to 18 years, $7.50 value at $5.00

Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, Second Floor, Rear—Three Elevators.

Our Grocery Department Makes Prompt Deliveries to All Parts of Harrisburg: Special Attractions To-morrow

If you are unable to come to the store, an order written on a postal card, or given over the telephone will bring to you just what you want at the time you want it.

- 2 lbs. granulated sugar, 10c
1 lb. Banquet coffee, 30c
1 can fancy new corn, 10c
Total, 50c

- 3 lbs. choice California Peaches, 25c
2 lbs. fancy Santa Clara Prunes, 25c
Dried Tartarian Cherries, 1 lb., 20c
New Moorpark Apricots, 1 lb., 20c
"Dei Monte" Raisins, 1 lb., 20c
paragus, regular 30c size; about 25 spears to the can. Special, 25c dozen, $2.50
"Flag" whole solid-pack Tomatoes, large can, 15c
Dozen, $1.70
Macaroni, Spaghetti, Alphabets and Noodles, 2 packages, 25c
Red Alaska Salmon, tall cans, 14c; dozen, $1.60
Tuna Fish, a delicious substitute for chicken in salads; can, 24c
Norwegian Sardines; in bouillon; can, 8c
Queen Olives; qt. jars, 25c
Fancy Head Rice; 3 lbs., 25c
New Pearl Tapioca; 3 lbs., 25c
Pimento Stuffed Olives, large jars, 25c
Sandwich "Olives," large Mason top jars, 25c
Full Cream Cheese, 1 lb., 25c
Dreem Swiss; 1 lb., 25c
Pimento Cheese; 1 lb., 25c
Imported Roquefort; 1 lb., 49c
Philadelphia Cream Cheese; cake, 10c
Dried Beef; country cured, 1/4 lb., 20c
Minced Ham; 1 lb., 20c
Boiled Ham; 1 lb., 39c
Ring Bologna; 1 lb., 25c
Swift's Premium Hams, average 11 lbs. each; 1 lb., 20c
Sugar Cured Bacon; sliced; 1 lb., 25c
Lebanon Bologna; 1 lb., 25c
Sunrise Catsup; new 12-oz. size, 25c
New grated horseradish, 1 lb., 25c
Large tumbler "German" Mustard, 5c
Choice Jutey Florida Oranges, large size, doz., 25c
Very fancy sound White Grapes; 2 lbs., 25c
New Mixed Nuts, 1 lb., 25c
Pineapple Casabas, 45c
Old Mission Casabas, 45c
Cape Cod Cranberries, 1 lb., 10c
Juicy Florida Grape Fruit, 5c; 1/2 doz., 25c
The finest Imported Malaga Table Raisins; 1 lb. packages, 25c
Brazil Nuts; 1 lb., 15c
Italian Chestnuts; 1 lb., 12c
New Glace Citron; 1 lb., 25c
Orange and Lemon Peel; 1 lb., 25c
New Seeded Raisins; package, 25c
New Cleaned Currants; package, 15c
Arabian Fard Dates; 1 lb., 15c
Fancy Pulled Figs; box, 15c
Rosedale Baking Chocolate; 1 lb. cake, 15c
Absolutely pure Flavoring extracts; all flavors, 10c and 25c
Pillsbury XXXX Flour; 24 1/2 lb. bags, 94c
"Europek" Soups; tomato, oxtail, etc.; doz., 55c
Laundry Starch; the very best; 5 lbs., 50c
Lighthouse Cleaner; 6 large cans, 25c

Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, Basement.

The Millinery Department

Is located for the Holidays in the inner section, or the Green Room, where trimmed and untrimmed hats are on display in cases and on tables.

A score of new styles in Fur Trimmed and white effects have been added to the display of Trimmed Hats, bringing this showing right up to the minute in style importance—$4.95 and $6.50.

The new colored untrimmed hats in large sailor effects are shown at $1.49 and $1.95.

Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, Second Floor, Front. Three Elevators.

Demonstration Bear Brand Yarns

A competent teacher is in attendance to give free lessons to all purchasers of Bear Brand yarns. There is also on display a beautiful assortment of knitted and crocheted garments, including many new models and novelties.

We will be pleased to have you see the display and profit by the instructions.

Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, Street Floor, near new elevators.

Removal of Corset Department on the Street Floor

The Department of inexpensive corsets on the street floor has been moved to the second floor, in order that more room might be provided for the many gift items that are clamoring to be presented to you.

Gloves of Finest Qualities From Trefousse and Perrin: $1.75 to $2.25

From such renowned glove houses as Trefousse and Perrin come the gloves that have made so splendid a name for our Glove Department. Only the finest grades of skins procurable are used and the workmanship is of the kind that stamps each glove with a mark of perfection. Various embroidery styles are used, some employing self and some contrasting stitching.

- Trefousse and Perrin gloves are shown now at $1.75 to $2.25
2-clasp kid gloves with self or black embroidery; in tan, grey, white and black. Pair, $1.50
2-clasp kid gloves in tan and grey. Pair, $1.25
2-clasp lamb skin gloves, in white, tan, grey and black. $1.85

Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, Street Floor.

tended the funeral of the former's brother, Jerome Jones. Mrs. James E. Rounsley has returned home from Mercersburg. William Marshall has been ill at his home on High street. Mrs. Susan Wagner, of Harrisburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ida Ward. Miss Grace Light has returned home from the Hebrew Hospital, Baltimore, where she underwent an operation several weeks ago.

HUMMELSTOWN

$10,000 to Be Distributed to Farmers' Bank Saving Fund Members

Special Correspondence. Hummelstown, Dec. 1.—The body of Solomon Cassel, who died Friday at his home near Grantville, was brought here at noon to-day for interment in the Hummelstown cemetery. Services were held in Zion Lutheran church and were conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Herbert S. Ganes.

There will be the sum of $10,000 distributed this year to members of the Christmas Saving Club conducted by the Farmers' bank of Hummelstown. The club this year numbers about 400 members, which is larger than the membership of any previous year and the amount distributed will exceed by several thousand dollars the amount of last year. Harry M. Horst, cashier of the bank, will be kept busy all next week getting the checks ready to send to the depositors and the checks will be mailed so as to be received by the club members by Tuesday, December 15. A new club will be formed and conducted by the bank during the coming year. The club will open on Monday, December 20, and a large increase in the membership of the club is looked for by the officials of the bank.

Dr. W. W. Fox was a visitor at Downingtown on Sunday.

Miss Emma Nitrauer, of Highspire, was the guest of her brother, Jeremiah Nitrauer, for several days.

FISHERVILLE

Mrs. Susan Shuman Died at Home of Son-in-Law

Special Correspondence. Fishersville, Dec. 1.—Orva Lingle and Ralph Lentz, Harrisburg, visited at the home of R. Lentz, on Thanksgiving Day.

James Bowman, of Harrisburg, spent a few days here at the home of his brother, William Bowman.

N. C. Matter, mother and son, Charles, of near town, spent a day at Harrisburg last week.

Misses Mary Stonerod and Daisy Wilbert, were at Harrisburg, over Thanksgiving.

Sallie Radel was at Millersburg last week one day.

Miss Margaret Hawk, of Mt. Holly Springs, visited here over Sunday at the home of F. Loudermilk.

Mrs. Catherine Bixler has gone to Harrisburg to spend the winter.

Mrs. Sarah Young has gone to Harrisburg to visit friends and relatives.

Mrs. Emma Joslin, of Los Angeles, Cal., visited friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Clinton Miller, of Oklahoma, visited in town last week.

William Wilbert had the first joint of his thumb of the left hand smashed while shedding corn fodder.

Quite a number of people from this place were at Halifax to attend the dedication of the new school house.

Mrs. Susan Shuman died on Friday evening at the home of her son-in-law, William F. Forney, near town, of a complication of diseases. She was nearly 50 years old. The funeral services were held to-day at Fetterhoff's church, and interment was made in the cemetery adjoining the church. The services were conducted by the Rev. J. F. Stables, C. C. Baker, was the funeral director.

Mrs. Isaac Kerstetter and daughter, Mary, spent Saturday afternoon at Lykens.

Communion services will be held at the Fetterhoff's church on Sunday forenoon by the Rev. J. F. Stables, pastor.

Mrs. J. C. Bixler and children, and Edward Fauber and E. J. Bixler were at Harrisburg on Saturday.

Lloyd Marsh transacted business at Harrisburg Saturday.

HERSHEY

Thomas Ingram, in Hospital Eight Weeks, Returns Home

Special Correspondence. Hershey, Dec. 1.—Mrs. J. B. Painter visited relatives at Middletown.

E. H. Stine moved into the home of the Rev. O. G. Romig, on Cooca avenue, recently vacated by the Rev. I. Moyer Hershey.

Mrs. Harriet Henry sold her property on Spring Creek to her son, Morris Henry.

Mrs. Andrew Frey, of Lancaster, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Magee, and family.

E. L. Bomgardner, who has been ill for several weeks with typhoid fever, is improving rapidly.

Thomas Ingram, who had been a patient at the Harrisburg Hospital for eight weeks, has returned to this place.

Joseph Dyer, of Sheephead Bay, N. Y., was a visitor here.

John Sollenberger visited his home at Dillsburg.

MIDDLETOWN

M. G. Witman, the Baker, is Suffering With a Sprained Wrist

Special Correspondence. Middletown, Dec. 1.—M. G. Witman, the Ann street baker, is suffering with a sprained wrist and a wound on his forehead, the results of falling off of a wagon at his bakery. He was assisting Merie Stipe to unload a wagonload of flour and Stipe was handing Mr. Witman the last sack when the horse started away, throwing Mr. Witman to the pavement, and receiving injuries which O. C. Schaeffer dressed.

Foster Banks, who spent the past several days in town as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Banks, Spring street, returned to Catawauqua on Sunday evening.

Thomas Rhan returned home on Monday from a several days' visit to friends at Reading.

Dr. W. P. Evans and sister, Emma street, are visiting relatives at Newark, N. J., for several days.

"Quo Vadis," which was shown in the Realty Theatre last evening, was largely attended and enjoyed by all who were present.

Joseph Hall, wife and son, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday down as the guests, the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fratts, Catherine street.

Miss Tillie Willis is ill at her home on State street.

Miss Mary Chalkley, Ann street, has accepted a position as clerk in the dry goods store of J. G. Peters.

T. O. Eckenrode is ill at his home on Emaus street.

Messrs. Frank Fisher, Lee Good and M. G. Witman left to-day for Philadelphia where they will attend the quarterly session of the Masons which meets in that city Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Margaret Palmer spent Sunday at Dillsburg, York county, as the guest of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Schaeffer, of Lancaster, spent the past several days in town as the guest of friends.

The Rescued basketball team will play the Union team in the M. A. C. rooms this evening and also the Wincroft and Car Shop teams will play this evening.

Mrs. Catherine Nauss is spending several days at Palmouth.

H. B. Witman, wife and son, of Lemoyne, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Witman, Ann street, on Sunday.

Quite a number of persons from town attended court to-day as the case of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company comes up this week in regards to the rioting and assaulting ten of the railroad police several months ago.

Miss Kathryn Ulrich, of Lebanon, was the guest of Miss Ruth Kline over Sunday.

Joseph Books, residing near Paxtang Park, is visiting relatives in Royalton for two weeks.

Charles Gammell, of Lancaster, had a very narrow escape yesterday morning from the steeple of the St. Peter's Lutheran church which he started to repair, but by the presence of mind saved himself from a serious fall. He had fastened a steel cable near the top and was in the act of start repairing the steeple when it gave away and he caught hold of the cable and left himself down. He started on the same job this morning.

Charles Burtron and staff, who have been holding services in the Free Mission for the past ten days, will remain in town and owing to the ill health of Samuel Irely, who has had charge of the Mission for the past nineteen years, expects to retire and will sell the Mission Hall to Colonel Burtron. Mr. Irely has done noble work in the Mission and will be greatly missed. He has made many friends and the work done by him in poorer class has been greatly appreciated by the people. Mr. Irely will be holding his services in the Free Mission building in his work. Since he has been assisting in services large crowds have been present and quite a number have gone forward.

NEW CUMBERLAND

Men and Boys' Night at Stough Tabernacle Changed to December 8

Special Correspondence. New Cumberland, Dec. 1.—The men and boys' night at the Stough tabernacle has been changed from Thursday evening, December 3, until Tuesday evening, December 8. The change has been made on account of the bazaar in the Methodist church, which will be held on Thursday and Friday evenings, December 3 and 4.

The Christian Endeavor social of Trinity United Brethren church will be held at the home of Edward Shelly on Market street this evening.

Mrs. Lewis Becker, of Bellavista, has returned from a visit to Philadelphia, where she met with an accident. She went with some friends to the city hall, where she made a mistake, falling down the stairs and breaking her left wrist and spraining her ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Zimmerman, of Geary avenue, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Edward Witt, of Enola, at dinner on Sunday.

The members of Mrs. William Mathis' Sunday school class of Trinity United Brethren church will hold a meeting this evening at the home of their teacher at New Market. All members are requested to be present.

Mrs. J. Bitterman and Mrs. Cohean, of Harrisburg, were guests of Miss Thelma Moyer yesterday.

Leeta Cline, of Baltimore, spent several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cline, at Bellavista.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver March and son, of Dover, visited Mrs. Ellen Zeigler and other friends here several days.

Mrs. Joseph Weatherly, Third street, has had the interior of her home remodeled and repapered.

Mrs. Mary Burns, Miss Reba Barnes and Miss Adams, of Mechanicsburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Burns, Ninth and Bridge streets, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Kebaugh visited Mr. and Mrs. Kuhns at Camp Hill on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wentz, of Second street, spent Sunday with friends in Mechanicsburg.

John Wiro and sons, Edgar and Ralph, have returned from a hunting trip of several weeks.

Miss Margaret Eslinger, of Harrisburg, was a week-end guest of Miss Esther Fisher.

Elopers Use Disguises

Altoona, Pa., Dec. 1.—Disguises aided Anthony Kimmel and Edna St. Clair, lover and sweetheart of ten years, to outwit relatives who sought to prevent their elopement and marriage. It was learned yesterday that the railroad police at both Altoona and Cumberland had been furnished with photographs of the young people. Kimmel borrowed a suit of clothes from a friend. His bride wore the wig of a woman of middle age, and they journeyed to Cumberland on separate trains.

NEW

First Class Up-to-Date

BARBER SHOP

NO. 208 STRAWBERRY AVE.

Rear of Bolton House

The patronage of the general public as well as my friends and former patrons is respectfully solicited.

Chas. F. Kuhn

Proprietor

SUBURBAN

MECHANICSBURG

Big Crowd to Attend Stough Meeting at Harrisburg

Special Correspondence. Harrisburg, Dec. 1.—Last evening a fine lecture on Palestine was given by the Rev. T. C. Billheimer, D. D., of Gettysburg. The lecture was illustrated with stereopticon views. It was given under the auspices of the brotherhood of the church.

This town will be largely represented in the Stough tabernacle services this evening. Yesterday about the hour of closing the register for reserved seats there were 324 registered and it is very probable that many will go who have not registered for reserved seats. The party will go on special cars leaving the square at 6.37. A band will accompany the party.

A number of our young people who are attending school and college away from home and were home for Thanksgiving vacation returned to school and college duties yesterday. Among them were William Dougherty, who returned to State College; Charles Shriver, to Franklin and Marshall; John Bowman, to Lehigh, and Harold Wrightstone, to Lebanon Valley.

J. K. Binkle is on a business trip to several of the New England States.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schaeffer, of Morristown, N. J., are guests of Mrs. Sheaffer's grandmother, Mrs. Anna Fishburn, East Locust street.

Mrs. Calvin Clendenin returned last evening from Philadelphia, where she spent Thanksgiving with her daughter, Miss Mary Clendenin, who is engaged in settlement work in the city.

Last evening Integrity Council, U. O. A., had as guests members of councils from several towns in this and adjoining counties.

The public school teachers are attending county teachers' institute in Carlisle this week and the boys and girls are hoping for clear weather the rest of the week, so they can have more outdoor fun during the vacation.

There were seven deaths in this place during the month just closed.

Miss Elsie Strong, of Shiremans-town, was a visitor here yesterday.

TOWER CITY

Junior Society of U. B. Church Give Thanksgiving Entertainment

Special Correspondence. Tower City, Dec. 1.—Mrs. Machamer, one of the oldest residents of town, was surprised by a reunion at her home. All of the children and grandchildren gathered and spent a pleasant time.

The Rev. O. G. Romig is conducting revival services this week at Dewin.

Harry Katerman, a student of Lebanon Valley College, spent several days at his home at this place.

The first quarterly conference was held in the United Brethren church on Friday evening. The Rev. H. S. Kieffer, of Lykens, was present to conduct the same.

On Sunday evening the Junior Society of the United Brethren church gave a grand Thanksgiving entertainment. The following program was rendered: Music, orchestra; hymn,

"America;" Scripture lesson by the secretary; hymn, "Bring Them In;" prayer, pastor; "Thanksgiving Day," by Harry Shuey; "The Turkey's Farewell," Florence Carl; "A Child's Thanksgiving," Vera Boyer; "Tommy's Thanksgiving," Clair Miller; "A Fellow Feeling," Mabel Rambarger; hymn, "Jesus Loves the Little Children;" "Along About Thanksgiving Day;" Margaret Bechtel; "Grumble Corner," Margaret Long; "Who Gives Us Our Thanksgiving Dinner?" Ruby Miller; "Little Paul's Thanksgiving," Wilmer Long; exercise, "Thanksgiving," Ethel Boyer and Arthur Keesey; duet, George Hoke and daughter; "What Bob Is Thankful For," Eva Carl; recitation, Millie Schroppe; "Thanksgiving Anticipations," Helen Copenhaver; "A Turkey's View of Thanksgiving," Albert Merold; hymn, "Jesus Loves Me;" recitation, Lloyd Shuey; "The Bashful Boy," Earl Shuey; "The Little Ones," Harry Keiser; exercise, "We Offer Thanks," Mildred and Ruth Bechtel; "Die Dankbarkeit," Galen Knorr; "Thanksgiving," Annie Shuey; "Day After Thanksgiving," George Nunemaker; recitation, Lawrence Merold; recitation, Myrtle Boyer; "Thanksgiving Day," Ray Nunemaker; address, pastor, offering; announcements, closing hymn, benediction. The offering amounted to $4.33.

HALIFAX

J. H. Pike, of Middletown, Visits His Mother Sunday

Special Correspondence. Halifax, Dec. 1.—Mrs. Ray Glace, of Harrisburg, is a guest at the home of Mrs. Jane Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bender did shopping at Harrisburg on Saturday.

Frank Shultzbaugh, of Millersburg, was in town on business on Saturday.

J. H. Pike, of Middletown, spent the week-end in town with his mother, Mrs. Sarah Pike.

H. Stewart Potter was in Millersburg on business Saturday evening.

Miss Carrie Masner, of Harrisburg, visited friends in town on Sunday.

Miss Alda Varner, of Harrisburg, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Clemson.

Lloyd Mutter was a visitor to Dauphin Sunday evening.

Charles Landis and daughter, Lydia, of Harrisburg, spent the week-end in town with his mother, Mrs. Lydia Landis.

William Cooper was home from Dickinson College where he is a student over the week-end.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Earl Spittle, of Tower City, Seriously Burned by Explosion

Special Correspondence. Williamstown, Dec. 1.—Allen Sausman, of Harrisburg, visited his parents, over Sunday.

Miss Mary Kingston, of Norristown, returned home after visiting her parents.

Miss Nellie Thompson, of Ardmore, returned Sunday after a visit to her parents.

Weldon Watkins and Paul Carl were visitors to Lykens Saturday evening.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Snyder on Saturday.

Robert Baird, Harry Hunter, Enoch Williams and Charles Batdorf motored to Harrisburg to hear the Rev. Dr. Stough.

Mrs. Wilson Bettinger, of Lykens, was the guest of Mrs. James Welsh on Sunday.

Thomas Bond, Sr., was a visitor to Harrisburg on Saturday.

Earl Spittle, of Tower City, was painfully burned and cut about the head by an explosion of coal gas in the mine Friday.

Harry Stites, a student at Swarthmore College, and Joseph, of Ridgway, returned after a visit to their parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Stites.

George Durbin, of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, returned after visiting his uncle, Dr. H. A. Shaffer, and family.

John Harris is seriously ill at his home on East Broad street.

Charles Allen and family, of Tower City, were Sunday visitors here.

William Hall resumed his studies at Villanova College.

Clarence Fear, of Lykens, was a town visitor Saturday.

SHIREMANSTOWN

Ralph Bates Visits His Parents at Florin

Special Correspondence. Shiremanstown, Dec. 1.—Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Bates and son, Albert, spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. Bates' parents and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Campbell and family at Mt. Joy and Florin.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Leiseman spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. William Stansfield.

Miss Belya Chronister spent Thanksgiving in Lebanon.

Mrs. Harry Huntsberger, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. E. E. Henderson.

Miss Eckels, of Carlisle, is spending some time with Mrs. Eckels, this place.

Miss Laurie Feister spent Sunday in Lebanon, visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Huntsberger and daughter, Violet, and Mr. and Mrs. John Myer.

Ralph Bates spent the latter part of the week with his father and mother in Florin.

LINGLESTOWN

Body of Late Mrs. Daniel Felty Placed in Concrete Vault

Special Correspondence. Linglestown, Dec. 1.—The remains of the late Mrs. Daniel Felty were raised from her grave in Shoop's church cemetery and placed in a concrete vault last week.

William Ball is erecting a new tenant house on his farm.

A movement to place lights on Main street is being agitated.

Charles Look, who is contractor and builder of the new house of John Fox, has the building almost ready for the roof.

Mrs. Leah Clay, of Penbrook, visited friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Strook, of Harrisburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lingle, of Enhart, were recent guests of Mrs. Mary Noecker.